Reading Architecture with Freud and Lacan Lorens Holm, 2022-09-30 Reading Architecture with Freud and Lacan Shadowing the Public Realm methodically outlines key concepts in psychoanalytic discourse by reading them against key modern and post modern architects It begins with what is arguably the central concept for each discipline by putting the unconscious in a dialectic relation to space Each subsequent chapter begins with a detail in architectural discourse a kind of provocation that anchors each excursion into the thought of Freud and Lacan The text is cyclical episodic and cloudlike rather than expository the intention is not simply to explain the concept of the unconscious but to different degrees perform it in the text The book offers powerful critiques of current planning practice which has no tools to address our attachment to places It concludes with powerful critiques of our incapacity to change the environmentally damaging ways we live our lives which is an effect of our incapacity to recognise the presence of the death drive in our nature The text is an extended thesis spanning the chapters that the field of the Other is the common grammar that organises subjects into civilisations which has consequences for how we treat the public realm in architecture politics and the city The field of the Other is a slightly different slice through the urban social world It shadows but does not correspond exactly to more familiar categories like private public inside outside figure ground or piazza boulevard Reading Architecture with Freud and Lacan will be an essential resource to anyone interested in how the environment we build is a reflection of our desire Psychoanalysis is one of the great humanist discourses of the 20th century and this book will be a valuable reference to the humanist in architects planners and social scientists whether they are students professionals or amateurs It will appeal to historians of the 20th century and to psychoanalysts and architects who are interested in how their respective discourses interdigitate with each other and with other discourses

Snowcub Graham Fulbright,2021-07-06 If you relish writing which pushes the envelope with the unconventional Snowcub is for you Graham Fulbright has struck gold with his quintet of soft animal toys and their shared dreamstate metamorphoses into sharp minded flesh and blood creatures Whereas Moby Dick s creator thought domesticated dogs and horses Man s cleverest mind readers Graham looks to the wild side for nature s shrewdest judges of human nature But he also rings the changes putting words into the mouths and beaks of creatures unable to think straight because of unwittingly parodying humankind And as is often the case with Graham language comes under the microscope There s no shying away from the fact that the main thrust of this novel will sit uneasily on some readers consciences An intrepid teenager has thrown down the gauntlet face up to the inconvenient truth that most of us think animals exist to do with as we see fit Last but not least let s not forget the creature after whom this novel is named You will be hard put not to warm to the furry protagonist and his quest for self realisation as he grapples with doubts fears and aspirations mirroring your own Under this heroic creature s leadership and armed with lessons learnt from their encounters with animal life across the globe the novel s five goodwill ambassadors become a young girl s mental support agents in defence of the planet s threatened fauna encouragement from a range of leading professionals including Catherine Tate on writing memorable comedy characters Robert Harris on penning bestselling fiction and Michael Rosen on constructing stories that will appeal to young people This book draws together the material from those supplements and includes a full directory of useful addresses from publishers and agents to professional societies and providers of bursaries Whether you re looking to polish up your writing skills or you want to ensure that your manuscript finds its way into the right hands How to Write will prove essential reading Perfectly Plum Leah Wilson,2007-06-01 Speculating about the cultural metaphors in Janet Evanovich s wildly popular mystery series which includes 11 books from One for the Money to Eleven on Top this anthology takes a look at lingerie buyer turned bounty hunter Stephanie Plum and catalogs her bad luck with cars she s blown up quite a few her good luck with men her unorthodox approach to weapon storage and the rich tapestry of her milieu Trenton New Jersey also known as The Burg The contributors praise the way the series smartly spoofs that familiar chick lit epiphany I have a bad job and what I really want is a good man in Bounty Hunting as a Metaphor for Dating Why Stephanie Should Quit Her Job but Never Will and Nothing Better than a Bad Boy Gone Good Several essays veer from the chick lit perspective and focus instead on the comic theme of luck and chance that ties Stephanie to the barroom gamblers and gangster meanies of her home town in Luck of the Italian Skill versus Chance Acting Beautifully Sigi Jottkandt,2012-02-01 What is the matter with the women in Henry James In The Portrait of a Lady The Wings of the Dove and his short story The Altar of the Dead one woman returns to a monster of a husband another dies rather than confront the truth of her lover s engagement while yet another stakes her all on having a candle lit for a dead lover only to promptly reject it Exploring these strange choices Sigi J ttkandt argues that the singularity of these acts lies in their ethical nature and that the ethical principle involved cannot be divorced from the question of aesthetics She combines close readings of James with suggestive tours through Kantian aesthetics and set theory to uncover the aesthetic underpinning of the Lacanian ethical act which has been largely overlooked in the current drive to discover a Cartesian origin for the subject as the subject of science Material Inscriptions Andrzej Warminski,2016-06-30 This book focuses on the practice and pedagogical value of rhetorical reading Its readings follow an itinerary from poetic texts such as those by Wordsworth and Keats through theoretical or philosophical texts by Descartes and Nietzsche to narrative

Re-membering Masculinity in Early Modern Florence Allison Levy,2017-03-02 From Pliny to Petrarch to Pope Hennessy and beyond many have understood the obvious connection between portraiture and commemorative practice This book expands and nuances our understanding of Renaissance portraiture the author shows it to be complexly generated within a discourse of male anxiety and pre mortuary mourning She argues that portraiture could defer memory loss or at the very least pictorially console the subject against his own potentially unmourned death This book recognizes a socio cultural anxiety the fear not merely of death but also of being forgotten and identifies a set of pictorial literary and theoretical strategies consequently formulated to ensure memory To explore this phenomenon this interdisciplinary but fundamentally
