Mobile Payments, Consumer Policy, and the Law Nwanneka Ezechukwu, 2023-03-17 Mobile technology offers an innovative and cost-effective channel for delivering a range of financial services including mobile payments. In some jurisdictions mobile payments simply provide a convenient option for facilitating payment transactions. In other jurisdictions mobile payments are viewed as potentially transformative because they present an opportunity to expand access to financial services. However, as with other innovations, mobile payments raise consumer protection concerns and require robust regulatory mechanisms to address such concerns. Against this backdrop, the book adopts a typology of consumer policy tools which can be used to address the identified consumer concerns. This typology guides the enquiry into the existing consumer protection frameworks applying to mobile payments in selected jurisdictions: Canada, Kenya, and the United Kingdom. The main objective of this endeavour is to identify best practices that national authorities seeking to leverage mobile payments and similar innovations can emulate. This book will be of interest to policymakers, regulators, industry stakeholders, students, and scholars interested in the regulation of innovative financial services, particularly from a consumer protection perspective.

Justice Reform and Conflict Resolution in Africa and Asia: Comparative Analyses and Case Studies Yin, Elijah Tukwariba,Kofie, Nelson F.,2021-06-18 The civil justice system is characterized by a distinct dispute resolution and law enforcement functions although these functions are not always explicit and their relationship can be vague People normally turn to this legal system to address an unjust situation they encounter This makes civil justice both socially and economically important as it may be driven by efficiency or access to justice concerns The literature suggests that law reform has an uninspiring record in this field This is because it has largely not been considered with a detailed empirically informed evaluation of proposed solutions This legal system is complex and research in this field is correspondingly challenging interesting and important Advancing Civil Justice Reform and Conflict Resolution in Africa and Asia Comparative Analyses and Case Studies provides significant empirical research findings as well as theoretical reviews and frameworks on a wide array of issues within civil justice and the legal system This includes topic areas such as access to justice and legal representation the challenges to developing civil justice courts and procedures and civil justice reform This book is valuable for lawyers human rights lawyers court officials psychologists social workers sociologists consultants professionals academicians students and researchers working in the field of law socio legal studies sociology anthropology political science social work social policy economics and criminal justice along with anyone seeking updated information on the current reforms and challenges within the civil justice and legal systems Mediation and other forms of Alternative Dispute

Resolution Michael Bartlet,2024-12-03 Covering both the principles and practice of Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR this important new textbook equips students not only with a contextual understanding of the role of ADR in adjudicating civil disputes but also with the different forms of mediation and ADR available and the key issues in their application Providing theoretical and practical insights the book begins with a critical examination of the tenets on which ADR is based where it sits in relation to civil law and how it is applied in different national contexts It discusses the various areas in which mediation or arbitration can be applied from family mediation to restorative justice and includes chapters on the ethics of mediation and its psychology as well as an introduction to online dispute resolution ODR The concluding chapter offers some thoughts on the benefits and challenges of mediation Featuring a glossary of key terms detailed case law end of chapter problem questions and advice around listening skills during a mediation process Mediation and other forms of Alternative Dispute Resolution is an essential textbook for any student approaching ADR for the first time and offers practitioners an opportunity to reflect on the context of ADR Mediation and Commercial Contract Law Maryam Salehijam,2020-12-10

There is an urgent need to better understand the legal issues pertaining to alternative dispute resolution ADR particularly in relation to mediation clauses Despite the promotion of mediation by dispute resolution providers policy makers and judges use of mediation remains low In particular problems arise when parties lack certainty regarding the legal effect of a mediation clause and the potential uncertainty regarding the binding nature of agreements to pursue mediation is problematic and threatens the growth of ADR This book closely examines the importance and complexity of mediation clauses in commercial contracts to remedy this persistent uncertainty Using comparative law methods and detailed empirical research it explores the creation of a comprehensive framework for the mediation clause Providing valuable insight into the process of ADR and mediation this book will be of interest to academics law makers law students in house council lawyers as well as parties interesting in drafting enforceable mediation clauses Asia-Pacific Legal Development Gerry Ferguson,1998-11-01

In this age of globalization many legal experts see evidence of swift global movement toward an eventual single world legal system Yet the trend to political and economic integration in some parts of the world is matched by the trend to disintegration in others where strong cultural and political resistance to external influences exists Asia Pacific Legal Development traces current and prospective developments in several legal systems of the Asia Pacific region to make sense of these trends and counter trends The contributing authors represent a wide variety of specialist expertise both public and private and together they encompass the three sectors that constitute a modern system of formal law the economic the behavioural and the civic Taking into account the opinions and perspectives of both indigenous and non indigenous experts on topics ranging from prostitution to constitutional law the book surveys how several ASEAN nations as well as Canada Australia and New Zealand are confronting social economic and legal change In the first three parts chapters are grouped along general sectoral lines to cover economic civic and behavioural themes while in the fourth cross sectoral contexts are addressed With the introduction and concluding chapter the editors provide an overall integrating framework as well as provocative insights into trends in legal development in the Asia Pacific region and on comparative legal research and writing in general Asia Pacific Legal Development is not only an exemplary model for cooperative and comparative legal research and scholarly pluralism but also a rich study of the increasingly relevant issue of convergence and divergence of legal systems with a unique Asian focus Dealing in Virtue Yves Dezalay,Bryant G. Garth,1996

With examples from England the United States Sweden Egypt Hong Kong and many other countries Dezalay and Garth explore how international developments in turn transform domestic methods for handling disputes Finally they analyze the changing prospects for international business dispute resolution given the growing presence of international market and regulatory institutions such as the EEC NAFTA and the World Trade Organization      The Comparative Constitutional Foundations of Private-Public Arbitration, 2025-04-24 This book engages with the concerns the rising phenomenon of arbitrations between private and public actors raises for principles of constitutional law including democracy the rule of law and the protection of fundamental rights It analyses how party appointed one off arbitral tribunals determine the delineation of private rights and public interests within a transnational legal environment and provides a framework that aligns this activity with constitutional values Featuring 20 chapters dealing with almost 40 jurisdictions from different corners of the world the book examines how domestic legal systems and legal practice approach the involvement of public entities as parties to arbitration agreements and arbitration proceedings to what extent the constitutional legal frameworks involved problematize private public arbitration as a constitutional concern and how different domestic legal systems ensure that private public arbitration conforms to and avoids undermining the public interest The chapters analyse inter alia whether the governing domestic law treats private public arbitration differently from commercial arbitration between private parties to what extent domestic law permits such arbitrations what regulatory frameworks domestic law sets up and what control mechanisms domestic law establishes in order to ensure that the public interest is safeguarded when public entities agree to have disputes resolved through arbitration rather than in domestic courts      Multidisciplinary Dynamics of Mediation Hugo Luz dos Santos, 2025-09-15 This book casts an analytical eye on the legal dynamics of mediation premised on a multidisciplinary approach This is the very first book to meld mediation and applied psychology with a view to portray the myriad of cognitive biases with which the great bulk of legal actors grapple tussle with in mediation settings The overriding goal of this book is to provide a multidisciplinary comprehensive and full fledged framework to legal dynamics of mediation while emphasizing the paramount importance of incorporative mediation to protect the fundamental rights of the weakest disputant in the room something that has not been done yet This book is the very first one to provide a framework frame of reference to the usage of artificial intelligence in the remit of both mediation settings and Restorative Relationship Session RRS
