Alternative Pleasures Postrealist Fiction And The Tradition:

Alternative Pleasures Philip Stevick, 1981      Alternative Pleasures Philip Stevick, 1981-01-01      International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader's knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism

Cultural Identity and Postmodern Writing Theo d'. Haen, Pieter Vermeulen, 2006 This volume seeks to ascertain the relationship obtaining between the specific form postmodernism assumes in a given culture and the national narrative in which that culture traditionally recognizes itself Theo D haen provides a general introduction to the issue of cultural identity and postmodern writing Jos Joosten and Thomas Vaessens take a look at Dutch literature and particular Dutch poetry in relation to postmodernism Robert Haak and Andrea Kunne do the same with regard to respectively German and Austrian literature while Roel Daamen turns to Scottish literature Patricia Krus discusses postmodernism in relation to Caribbean literature and Kristian van Haesendonck and Nanne Timmer turn their attention to Puerto Rican and Cuban literature while Adriana Churampi deals with Peruvian literature Finally Markha Valenta investigates the roots of the postmodernism debate in the United States      The Play of the Double in Postmodern American Fiction Gordon Slethaug, 1993 In The Hawkline Monster Brautigan's minimalist metafictional parody of the double depicts our narcissistic view of reality In Double or Nothing Federman subverts the conventional double exposing its gamelike structures and traditional views of life and text

Rethinking Postmodern Subjectivity Zuzanna Ladyga, 2009 What is postmodern literary subjectivity How to talk about it without falling in the trap of negative hyper essentialism or being seduced by exuberant lit speak One way out of this dilemma as this book suggests is via a redefinition of the concept in the context of Emmanuel Levinas and his radical ethics By defining subjectivity as an ethically charged act of language Levinas provides a fresh perspective on the often trivialized aspects of postmodern poetics such as referentiality and affect construction strategies The foregrounding of the ethical dimension of those poetic elements has far reaching consequences for how we read postmodern texts and understand postmodernism in general Thus to prove the benefits of the Levinasian approach the author applies it to the work of the canonical American postmodernist Donald Barthelme and explains the distinctly ethical character of his apparently surfictional experiments      Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction Arthur M. Saltzman,2016-11-11 In Designs of Darkness Arthur M Saltzman examines some of the ways in which fiction has traditionally conspired to promote a goal oriented vision of the work of art and explores the ways in which postmodern or postrealist fiction consistently and unavoidably subverts the clarity of this vision Offering readings of works by well known authors including Barthelme Doctorow DeLillo and Hakes as well as works by lesser known writers Auster Gangemi Saltzman concentrates on the breakdown of epiphany in recent fiction both as philosophical motive and as structural foundation In contemporary fiction Saltzman contends ambiguities blossom far beyond our capacities to stabilize summarize or restore them to sense The old rules of the game in which a reader looking for truth can expect come sort of satisfactory resolution no longer apply Literature now comes out of the answerless Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction is a valuable new resource for scholars and students of contemporary literature      Bret Easton Ellis's Controversial Fiction Sonia Baelo-Allué,2011-06-23      A Poetics of Postmodernism Linda Hutcheon,2003-09-02 First published in 1988 Postmodernism is a word much used and misused in a variety of disciplines including literature visual arts film architecture literary theory history and philosophy A Poetics of Postmodernism is neither a defense nor a denunciation of the postmodern It continues the project of Hutcheon s Narcissistic Narrative and A Theory of Parody in studying formal self consciousness in art but adds to this both a historical and ideological dimension Modelled on postmodern architecture postmodernism is the name given here to current cultural practices characterized by major paradoxes of form and of ideology The poetics of postmodernism offered here is drawn from these contradictions as seen in the intersecting concerns of both contemporary theory and cultural practice      A New Introduction to American Studies Howard Temperley,Christopher Bigsby,2014-07-21 A New Introduction to American Studies provides a coherent portrait of American history literature politics culture and society and also deals with some of the central themes and preoccupations of American life It will provoke students into thinking about what it actually means to study a culture Ideals such as the commitment to liberty equality and material progress are fully examined and new light is shed on the sometimes contradictory ways in which these ideals have informed the nation s history and culture For introductory undergraduate courses in American Studies American History and American Literature      Robert Altman's Subliminal Reality Robert T. Self,2002 With his complex and unconventional films Robert Altman often draws an impassioned response from critics but bafflement and indifference from the general public Some audiences have dismissed his movies as insignificant unsatisfying and unreadable Ironically Altman might agree he makes films in order to challenge filmgoers expectations of straightforward narratives and easily understood endings In Robert Altman s Subliminal

Reality Robert T Self sheds light on Altman s work and provides the most comprehensive analysis of his films to date With close readings of classics like MASH McCabe Mrs Miller and Nashville as well as the more recent films The Player Short Cuts and Cookie s Fortune Self asserts the value of Altman s work not only to film theory and the entertainment industry but to American culture Book jacket      A History of American Literature Richard Gray,2011-09-23 Updated throughout and with much new material A History of American Literature Second Edition is the most up to date and comprehensive survey available of the myriad forms of American Literature from pre Columbian times to the present The most comprehensive and up to date history of American literature available today Covers fiction poetry drama and non fiction as well as other forms of literature including folktale spirituals the detective story the thriller and science fiction Explores the plural character of American literature including the contributions made by African American Native American Hispanic and Asian American writers Considers how our understanding of American literature has changed over the past thirty years Situates American literature in the contexts of American history politics and society Offers an invaluable introduction to American literature for students at all levels academic and general readers      The Politics of Postmodernism Linda Hutcheon,2003-12-16 Working through the issue of representation in art forms from fiction to photography Linda Hutcheon sets out postmodernism s highly political challenge to the dominant ideologies of the western world      Breaking the Sequence Ellen G. Friedman,Miriam Fuchs,2014-07-14 These nineteen essays introduce the rich and until now largely unexplored tradition of women s experimental fiction in the twentieth century The writers discussed here range from Gertrude Stein to Christine Brooke Rose and include among others Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys Jane Bowles Marguerite Young Eva Figs Joyce Carol Oates and Marguerite Duras Friedman and Fuchs demonstrate the breadth of their research first in their introduction to the volume in which they outline the history of the reception of women s experimental fiction and analyze and categorize the work not only of the writers to whom essays are devoted but of a number of others too and second in an extensive and wonderfully useful bibliography Emma Kafalenos The International Fiction Review After an introduction that is practically itself a monograph eighteen essayists too many of them distinguished to allow an equitable sampling take up three generations of post modernists American Literature The editors see this volume as part of the continuing feminist project of the recovery and foregrounding of women writers Friedman and Fuchs s substantive introduction excellently synthesizes the issues presented in the rest of the volume Patrick D Murphy Studies in the Humanities Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      Postmodern Characters Aleid Fokkema,2024-08-26      Keeping Literary Company Jerome

Klinkowitz,1999-06-10 Starting in the 1960s a group of radically new fiction writers began having success at reinventing the novel and short story for postmodern times Chief among them were Kurt Vonnegut Jerzy Kosinski Donald Barthelme Ronald Sukenick Raymond Federman Clarence Major and Gilbert Sorrentino Although their work proved puzzling to reviewers and did not fit the conventions familiar to academic critics these writers found an ally in a young reader named Jerome Klinkowitz Hired to teach Hawthorne and other nineteenth century figures Klinkowitz found his deepest sympathies and most lifelike affinities to be with Vonnegut and company instead Beginning in 1969 he published the first scholarly essays on Vonnegut Kosinski Barthelme and the others in turn By 1975 he was ready to write Literary Disruptions a literary history of what he called this post contemporary period Since then he has written more than thirty books on contemporary fiction and its allied developments in cultural history art music politics and philosophy Keeping Literary Company details Klinkowitz s work with these writers not just researching their fiction and other publications but introducing them to one another and taking part in the business world activities that spread news of their innovations He shows how what they wrote was so much a part of those turbulent times that a new literary generation found itself defined in such works as Slaughterhouse Five Being There and Snow White Here is a fascinating first person account of what these important figures wrote how they wrote it and what it means in the development of American fiction

Late Postmodernism J. Green,2005-05-12 Does the novel have a future Questions of this kind which are as old as the novel itself acquired a fresh urgency at the end of the twentieth century with the rise of new media and the relegation of literature to the margins of American culture As a result anxieties about readership cultural authority and literary value have come to preoccupy a second generation of postmodern novelists Through close analysis of several major novels of the past decade including works by Don DeLillo Philip Roth Kathryn Davis Jonathan Franzen and Richard Powers Late Postmodernism examines the forces shaping contemporary literature and the remarkable strategies American writers have adopted to make sense of their place in culture

Approaching Postmodernism Douwe Wessel Fokkema,Johannes Willem Bertens,1986 Most of the essays collected in this volume deal with theoretical issues that dominate the international debate on Postmodernism issues such as the shifting nature of the concept the problem of periodization and the problem of historicity Other essays offer readings of Postmodernist texts and relate practical criticism to a theoretical framework Hans Bertens Utrecht sketches the historical development of the concept Postmodernism in American criticism distinguishing between the various definitions that have been proposed over the last twenty five years in an attempt to bring some order to the field and to facilitate future discussion Brian McHale Tel Aviv and Douwe Fokkema Utrecht offer models for the description of Postmodernist texts Richard Todd Amsterdam argues convincingly that Postmodernism is much more of a presence in contemporary British fiction than has so far been assumed and Herta Schmid Munich presents a similar argument with respect to Russian avant garde theater Elrud Ibsch Amsterdam presents a contrastive analysis of Thomas Bernhard and Robert Musil Ulla Musarra Nijmegen writes on Italo Calvino The relation between Existentialism and Postmodernism is examined by Gerhard Hoffman Wurzburg Theo D haen Utrecht finds important parallels between Postmodernism in literature and in the visual arts Matei Calinescu Bloomington Ind relates literary Postmodernism to a far more general cultural shift rejecting however Foucault s notion of an epistemic break and arguing for both continuity and discontinuity Finally Helmut Lethen Utrecht and Susan Suleiman Harvard sharply question the concept of Postmodernism Suleiman argues that the supposed Postmodernist reaction against Modernism may well be a critical myth or if it isn t a reaction limited to the American literary situation      Aesthetics and contemporary discourse Herbert Grabes,1994      Middle Grounds Alan Wilde,1987-11-29 Alan Wilde identifies and defends what he calls midfiction which rejects both the extremes of realism and experimental self reflexive fiction He offers as examples the best works of Apple Berger Barthelme Pynchon and Paley
