The African Book Publishing Record, 1991 Global Activism in Food Politics A. Mann, 2014-05-01 Who should provide food and through what relationships Whose livelihoods should be protected For over 20 years the peasant farmers of La Via Campesina have been engaged in the fight against injustice hunger and poverty under the banner of food sovereignty the right of peoples to healthy and culturally appropriate food produced through ecologically sound and sustainable methods and their right to define their own food and agriculture systems They campaign for healthy sustainable alternatives to an industrial food system controlled by agribusiness companies and the architects of unfair trade agreements This book draws on grounded case studies of agrarian movements in the Americas and Europe as exemplars of a power shift as local opposition scales up to global action in an effort to wrest control of our food away from transnational corporations and back to communities Publications of the State of Illinois, 2006 Africa Events, 1986 Publications of the Illinois State Geological Survey Illinois State Geological Survey, 1993 African Paleoecology and Human Evolution Sally C. Hendershot, Karl E. Bauman, 1988 The SAGE Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America Mwalimu J. Shujaa, Kenya J. Shujaa, 2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participate in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader s Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related
