Alvar Aalto Alvar Aalto,1994      Libraries of Light Alistair Black,2016-10-04 For the first hundred years or so of their history public libraries in Britain were built in an array of revivalist architectural styles This backward looking tradition was decisively broken in the 1960s as many new libraries were erected up and down the country In this new Routledge book Alistair Black argues that the architectural modernism of the post war years was symptomatic of the age s spirit of renewal In the 1960s public libraries truly became libraries of light and Black further explains how this phrase not only describes the shining new library designs with their open plan decluttered Scandinavian inspired designs but also serves as a metaphor for the public library s role as a beacon of social egalitarianism and cultural universalism A sequel to Books Buildings and Social Engineering 2009 Black s new book takes his fascinating story of the design of British public libraries into the era of architectural modernism      RIBA Journal ,2000      International Architecture Centres Hannah Ford,Bridget Sawyers,2003-05-07 This is a guide to the network of architecture centres established in the UK Europe and North America It features information about the network of centres and serves to define the role of architectural centres in contributing to ongoing debate on urban renaissance Source other than Library of Congress      Craft Arts International ,1997

International Books in Print ,1997      Architecture, Craft, and Culture John Tuomey,2004      Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals, 1995 Avery Library,1997-02      Design World ,1995      Heidegger for Architects Adam Sharr,2007-09-28 Written specifically for architects this is the first clear and concise explanation of Heidegger s architectural thinking in the context of his work      Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott,2004 A balance of sophistication and clarity in the writing authoritative entries and strong cross referencing that links architects and structures to entries on the history and theory of the profession make this an especially useful source on a century of the world s most notable architecture The contents feature major architects firms and professional issues buildings styles and sites the architecture of cities and countries critics and historians construction materials and planning topics schools movements and stylistic and theoretical terms Entries include well selected bibliographies and illustrations Reference that rocks American Libraries May 2005      Think Like An Architect Randy Deutsch,2020-10-31 Do you know how to think like an architect Do you know why you should How do you make sure that you have the critical thinking tools necessary to prosper in your academic and professional career This book gives you the answers Architects have a valuable and critical set of multiple thinking types that they develop throughout the design process In this book Randy Deutsch shows readers how to access those thinking types and use them outside pure design thinking showing how they can both solve problems but also identify the problems that need solving To think the way the best architects do With a clear driving narrative peppered with anecdote stories and real life scenarios this book will future proof the architectural student Change is coming in the architecture profession and this is a much needed exploration of the critical thinking skills that architects have in abundance but that are not taught well enough within architecture schools These skills are crucial in being able to respond agilely to a future that nobody is quite sure of

Plans, Sections and Elevations Richard Weston, 2004 CD ROM contains files for all of the plans sections and elevations included in the book

Nature and Space Sarah Menin, Flora Samuel, 2003 By assessing the historical personal and intellectual influences of two of the greatest figures in modern architecture Le Corbusier and Alvar Aalto this study offers an understanding about the diversity at the heart of modernism

Modern Housing Prototypes Roger Sherwood, 1978 Here are 32 notable examples of multi family housing from many countries selected for their importance as prototypes Designed by such masters as Frank Lloyd Wright Le Corbusier Mies van der Rohe and Alvar Aalto the buildings are illustrated with photographs site plans floor plans elevations and striking axonometric drawings

Alvar Aalto and Urban Design Robert Cody, Angela Amoia, 2025-10-24 This book provides a fresh look at Alvar Aalto's regional and community planning work particularly the ways in which he incorporated sustainability resiliency energy and health and examines how contemporary architects and planners can learn from this approach for the betterment of 21st century urban design and our future cities The Alvar Aalto Atelier planned and promoted regional development that combined ecological features considered density and offered a framework for informality including flexible adaptable infrastructures with physical plans integrating communities with nature These plans were largely suburban and contained vital lessons on how to deal with sprawl traffic landscape energy labor and industry This book analyzes letters writings and drawings not seen outside the Alvar Aalto Foundation to review alternative ways to examine suburban landscapes and urban typologies through sustainability ecology and use of digital technologies This is an essential read for all those interested in the urban design work of Alvar Aalto Written in an accessible way for those new to the work of Aalto Architecture and Urban Design students of all levels will also find this a helpful guide on ecologically and socially responsible design

Space, Time and Architecture Sigfried Giedion, 2009-02-28 A classic in its field Space Time and Architecture has been revised and expanded four times since its initial publication and translated into half a dozen languages Giedion delves deeply into the technical advances that have made modern architecture possible while never losing sight of the human feeling that brings structures to life

Architectonics of Poiēsis Simina Anamaria Lörincz, 2024-06-10 This volume explores the meaning of the architectural creative act following the dynamics of the relationship between creator creative act creation and the way in which architecture is defined over time as a creative act both material and symbolic Two protagonists Antonio Averlino Filarete and Christopher Alexander are singled out under the guiding concepts of poesis and poeta faber The book initiates a dialogue over time between their works and concepts engaging two cultures the Renaissance and the contemporary symbolically chosen for their importance in redefining the profession through the prism of its relation to the architectural creative act The core idea revolves around rediscovering the humanistic approach to architecture in and for the contemporary context and using it in order to better understand architectural creation This text appeals to students and researchers working in the history and theory of architecture product industrial design and semiotics     Rethinking Virtual Places Erik Champion,2021-11-30 How would the humanities change if we grappled with the ways in which digital and virtual places are designed experienced and critiqued In Rethinking Virtual Places Erik Malcolm Champion draws from the fields of computational sciences and other place related disciplines to argue for a more central role for virtual space in the humanities For instance recent developments in neuroscience could improve our understanding of how people experience store and recollect place related encounters Similarly game mechanics using virtual place design might make digital environments more engaging and learning content more powerful and salient In addition Champion provides a brief introduction to new and emerging software and devices and explains how they help hinder or replace our traditional means of designing and exploring places Perfect for humanities scholars fascinated by the potential of virtual space Rethinking Virtual Places challenges both traditional and recent evaluation methods to address the complicated problem of understanding how people evaluate and engage with the notion of place     Key Houses of the Twentieth Century Colin Davies,2006 Featuring over 100 of the most significant and influential houses of the twentieth century For each of the houses included there are numerous accurate scale plans showing each floor together with elevations sections and site plans where appropriate All of these have been specially drawn for this book and are based on the most up to date information and sources
