Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 , The Aesthetic Economy of Fashion Joanne Entwistle, 2009-11-15 Fashion is bound up with promoting the new concerned with constantly changing aesthetics The favored styles or looks of a season arise out of the work of a vast range of different actors who collectively produce select distribute and promote the new ideals before moving on next season If fashion is defined in part by the incessant requirement to be new this requirement means aesthetic qualities are always in motion and therefore unstable How then are fashionable commodities stabilized long enough for them to be calculated i e selected distributed and sold by those critically placed inside the fashion system Since there are few studies that actually examine the work that goes on inside the world of fashion we know little about these processes Fashion and the Cultural Economy addresses this gap in our knowledge by examining how aesthetic products are defined distributed and valued It focuses attention on the work of some of the market agents in particular model agents or bookers and fashion buyers shaping the aesthetics inside their markets In analyzing their work Entwistle develops a theoretical framework for understanding the distinctive features of aesthetic marketplaces and the aesthetic calculations within them
