family for the sources of their perceptions and expectations deftly weaving politics science history and philosophy into their personal story A memoir opens up to become a critique of our culture s attitudes toward the elderly A claustrophobic account of Alzheimer s is transformed into a complex lesson about love duty and community What creates a self and keeps it whole Levine insists that only the collaboration of others can safeguard her father s self against the riddling of his brain Embracing interdependence and vulnerability not autonomy and productivity as the seminal elements of our humanity Levine challenges herself and her readers to find new meaning even hope in one man s mortality and our own
