40 Cases Leslie Lundt, Nancy Nadolski, 2005-10

No Way Out of This Sue Fagalde Lick, 2025-07-30 No Way Out of This is not the kind of Alzheimer's memoir where you read about a noble self sacrificing wife who gives up everything to take care of her husband We see such spouses in books and movies but they're not telling the whole story Nobody's that good Certainly Sue Lick isn't Sue's much older husband Fred is a forgetful man She's always found that charming But when his absentmindedness worsens into full blown dementia she suddenly finds herself dealing with his illness alone Struggling to care for Fred and manage their two loveable but incorrigible dogs and still find time to write and play music Sue constantly faces impossible choices Tell people about his illness Let him drive Put him in an institution Treat his medical problems or let him go Every decision feels wrong but in the end their love carries them through it all More than 6 million Americans suffer from dementia One in three seniors have it Add in the spouses siblings adult children and professionals responsible for their care and we all have a stake in this story While some caregivers have loving families to support them and enough money to pay for the best care more often the situation is a lot messier Here the author a longtime journalist tells the truth about nursing homes Medicaid mental health and more

Dementia 3Ed David Ames, Alistair Burns, John O'Brien, 2005-08-26 The rising prevalence of dementia in the population continues to pose a serious public health challenge in both the developed and the developing world Previous editions of Dementia have become acknowledged as a key gold standard work in this field and have had a genuinely international approach The third edition has been fully revised and updated to reflect the most recent advances in the rapidly developing field of dementia research adding further important detail to this already authoritative and detailed text New material on mild cognitive impairment has been included and the latest developments in areas such as service development and carer research are also covered All the chapters have been revised to include the most up to date research in their field This is an essential work of reference for specialists in old age psychiatry neurology and health care of the elderly It should also be a useful resource for others working with patients with dementia including general practitioners nurses psychologists and other allied health professionals

Still Alice Lisa Genova, 2009-01-06 Feeling at the top of her game when she is suddenly diagnosed with early onset Alzheimer's Disease Harvard psychologist Alice Howland struggles to find meaning and purpose in her everyday life as her concept of self gradually slips away A first novel Simultaneous A Guide to Alzheimer's Disease Julie Corliss, Susan Gilbert, 2009 Are you having memory problems that seem to go beyond the ordinary or do you see this happening to someone you love Are there other difficulties like struggling to follow a conversation or find the right word getting confused in new places or botching tasks that once came easily Everyone has these experiences sometimes but if they happen regularly they may be early signs of Alzheimer's disease Older People, Ageing and Social Work Karen Heycox, 2020-07-23 Essential reading for practitioners educators and researchers within the general field of social work with older people From the foreword by Mark Lymbery Associate Professor of Social Work University of Nottingham The reality of our ageing population means all social workers need to be confident in working with older people Social workers are engaged in ongoing practice with older people in a variety of contexts from hospitals aged care assessment teams and mental health services to employment services housing services and rehabilitation services Older People Ageing and Social Work draws on theoretical research policy and practice knowledge to inform contemporary practice with older people Hughes and Heycox demonstrate that high level professional skills are required in this area as well as detailed knowledge of the issues affecting older people's lives They argue that practitioners need to take into account the social and emotional needs of the older people they work with as well as the practical and administrative aspects of their roles They emphasise understanding the diversity of the older population and enabling older people to make the most of their strengths and capacities
