Riddell,Andrew Rippin,2016-06-10 The largely Arabo centric approach to the academic study of tafsir has resulted in a lack of literature exploring the diversity of Qur'anic interpretation in other areas of the Muslim majority world. The essays in The Qur'an in the Malay Indonesian World resolve this aiming to expand our knowledge of tafsir and its history in the Malay Indonesian world. Highlighting the scope of Qur'anic interpretation in the Malay world in its various vernaculars, it also contextualizes this work to reveal its place as part of the wider Islamic world especially through its connections to the Arab world and demonstrates the strength of these connections. The volume is divided into three parts written primarily by scholars from Malaysia and Indonesia. Beginning with a historical overview, it then moves into chapters with a more specifically regional focus to conclude with a thematic approach by looking at topics of some controversy in the broader world. Presenting new examinations of an under-researched topic, this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Islamic studies and Southeast Asian studies.

Theological Approaches to Qur'anic Exegesis Hussein Abdul-Raof, 2012-08-06
 This book provides a comprehensive and systematic analysis of the various schools of Qur'anic exegesis from the earliest periods through to the present day. Employing a comparative contrastive methodology, the author examines traditional and rational schools of thought such as the Mu'tazili, Shi'i, Ibadi, Sufi, metaphysical, modern, and scientific approaches to the interpretation of the Qur'an to give a detailed analysis of the similarities and differences in their theological views. The study spans a broad period covering exegetical techniques adopted in Qur'anic exegesis from its infancy during the 1st-7th century up to the beginning of the 15th-21st century. Furnished with copious micro and macro level examples which explicate the Qur'anic notions and the points of view relevant to each school and exegetical approach, the book provides a rounded empirical study of Islamic thought. This thorough and holistic historical investigation is an important contribution to the study of Qur'anic exegesis and Islamic theology and as such will be of enormous interest to scholars of religion, philosophy, and Islamic studies.

Meaning, Madness and Political Subjectivity Sadeq Rahimi, 2015-02-20
 This book explores the relationship between subjective experience and the cultural, political, and historical paradigms in which the individual is embedded. Providing a deep analysis of three compelling case studies of schizophrenia in Turkey, the book considers the ways in which private experience is shaped by collective structures, offering insights into issues surrounding religion, national and ethnic identity, and tensions between modernity and tradition, madness, gender, and individuality. Chapters draw from cultural psychiatry, medical anthropology, and political theory to produce a model for understanding the inseparability of private experience and collective processes. The book offers those studying political theory a way for conceptualizing the subjective within the political; it offers mental health clinicians and researchers a model for including political and historical realities in their psychological assessments and treatments; and it provides anthropologists with a model for theorizing culture in which psychological experience and political facts become understandable and explainable in terms of, rather than despite, each other. Meaning, Madness and Political Subjectivity provides an original interpretative methodology for analysing culture and psychosis, offering compelling evidence that not only normal human experiences but also extremely abnormal experiences such as psychosis are anchored in and shaped by local cultural and political realities , Al-mizan Allamah Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Tabatabai,2017-05-27 This book is one of the many Islamic publications distributed by Mustafa Organization throughout the world in different languages with the aim of conveying the message of Islam to the people of the world Mustafa Organization is a registered Organization that operates and is sustained through collaborative efforts of volunteers in many countries around the world and it welcomes your involvement and support Its objectives are numerous yet its main goal is to spread the truth about the Islamic faith in general and the Shi a School of Thought in particular due to the latter being misrepresented misunderstood and its tenets often assaulted by many ignorant folks Muslims and non Muslims Organization s purpose is to facilitate the dissemination of knowledge through a global medium the Internet to locations where such resources are not commonly or easily accessible or are resented resisted and fought
