Almonds To Zooof Collected Stories:

Almonds to Zooof Richard Stern, 2005-06-10 Stern's stories witty moving charged with narrative energy never sacrifice storytelling to mere elegance or bursts of essayistic wisdom This collection demonstrates Stern's remarkable ability to portray people's flawed relationships to ideas their sometimes bizarre relationships with lovers and friends their often brilliant if skewed appraisals of themselves The stories reflect Stern's compassion for his characters whoever they are and whatever their origins Book jacket A Critical Friendship Elizabeth Murphy, 2021-08-05 A chance meeting in the University of North Carolina campus library in 1944 began a decades long friendship and sixty year correspondence Donald Justice 1925 2004 and Richard Stern 1928 2013 would go on to become respectively the Pulitzer Prize winning poet and the acclaimed novelist A Critical Friendship showcases a selection of their letters and postcards from the first fifteen years of their correspondence representing the formative period in both writers careers It includes some of Justice's unpublished poetry and early drafts of later published poems as well as some early never before published poetry by Stern A Critical Friendship is the story of two writers inventing themselves beginning with the earliest extant letters and ending with those just following their first major publications Justice's poetry collection The Summer Anniversaries and Stern's novel Golk These letters highlight their willingness to give and take criticism and document the birth of two distinct and important American literary lives The letters similarly document the influence of teachers friends and contemporaries including Saul Bellow John Berryman Edgar Bowers Robert Lowell Norman Mailer Allen Tate Peter Hillsman Taylor Robert Penn Warren Eudora Welty and Yvor Winters all of whom feature in the pair's conversations In a broader context their correspondence sheds light on the development of the mid twentieth century American literary scene Still on Call Richard Stern, 2010 Richard Stern is a literary treasure Scott Turow Thinking of Others Ted Cohen, 2012-04-08 In Thinking of Others Ted Cohen argues that the ability to imagine oneself as another person is an indispensable human capacity as essential to moral awareness as it is to literary appreciation and that this talent for identification is the same as the talent for metaphor To be able to see oneself as someone else whether the someone else is a real person or a fictional character is to exercise the ability to deal with metaphor and other figurative language The underlying faculty Cohen argues is the same simply the ability to think of one thing as another when it plainly is not In an engaging style Cohen explores this idea by examining various occasions for identifying with others including reading fiction enjoying sports making moral arguments estimating one's future self and imagining how one appears to others Using many literary examples Cohen argues that we can engage with fictional characters just as intensely as we do with real people and he looks at some of the ways literature itself takes up the question of interpersonal identification and understanding An original meditation on the necessity of imagination to moral and aesthetic life Thinking of Others is an important contribution to philosophy and literary theory The Publishers Weekly, 2005 Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L.
