Almost Hollywood:

Almost Hollywood, Nearly New Orleans Vicki Mayer, 2017-02-24 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Early in the twenty first century Louisiana one of the poorest states in the United States redirected millions in tax dollars from the public coffers in an effort to become the top location site globally for the production of Hollywood films and television series Why would lawmakers support such a policy Why would citizens accept the policy's uncomfortable effects on their economy and culture Almost Hollywood Nearly New Orleans addresses these questions through a study of the local and everyday experiences of the film economy in New Orleans Louisiana a city that has twice pursued the goal of becoming a movie production capital From the silent era to today's Hollywood South Vicki Mayer explains that the aura of a film economy is inseparable from a prevailing sense of home even as it changes that place irrevocably Film and Television Production in the Age of Climate Crisis Pietari Kääpä, Hunter Vaughan, 2022-08-18 This volume brings together a range of voices from across the global environmental media community to build a comparative international set of perspectives on green film and television production Through this it provides a necessary intervention in environmental media studies that actively foregrounds media infrastructure production policy and labour that is the management and practice of media production cultures Due to its immense sociocultural influence and economic resources the global screen media industry is at the forefront of raising awareness for the political and social issues resulting from accelerated environmental instability However the 21st century relationship between screen media and the environment has another face that demands urgent scrutiny The advent of the digital age and the vast electrical and Information and Communication Technologies ICT infrastructures required to support digital production distribution and archiving has resulted in the rapid expansion and diversification of the industry's resource use infrastructure construction energy dependency and consequent waste and emissions production Addressing these structures is essential to alleviating their environmental and social impact and ensuring that the industry's rhetoric on environmental responsibility is reflected in its practice As a mitigating counterbalance to the above trends there has been a heightened push for sustainability measures along various lines of industry management policy and practice These initiatives including the cultural values they reflect the political economies that form their logic the managerial and marketing tactics that orchestrate them and the environmental realities of their implementation form the central object of inquiry for this collection Motion Picture Paradise David Morton, 2025-09-16 Highlighting Florida's essential often overlooked role in shaping American film and television Motion Picture Paradise is a sweeping story of filmmaking in Florida featuring the activities of studios and filmmakers across the peninsula by looking at the many iconic films and television shows shot in the state In the early years of the American film industry Florida was a favorite location for pioneer movie makers and David Morton chronicles the state's importance to producers throughout the next 125 years Often overshadowed by the well known entertainment industries of Hollywood and New York Florida has over time had several major film production centers Morton follows the rise and fall of filmmaking destinations across the state including Jacksonville St Augustine Tampa Bay Orlando and Miami as well as pioneering underwater and location based films shot at Florida's unique natural springs He argues that conflicting policies set by Florida politicians have at various times enticed or pushed away movie and television companies a pattern that has hampered serious investment Using a wealth of source materials Morton offers a comprehensive history that demonstrates how films and television shows made in Florida have influenced the state's sense of identity drawing attention to Florida's underacknowledged role as the third coast in American film history Motion Picture Paradise adds new insights into the state's dramatic social and economic transformations during the twentieth century

Pop Art Klaus Honnef, 2004 Originating in England in the mid 1950s Pop Art developed its full potential in the USA in the 1960s It substitutes the everyday for the splendid mass produced articles are assigned the same importance as one offs the difference between high culture and popular culture is swept away Media and advertising are among the preferred contents of Pop Art which celebrates the consumer society in its own witty fashion The enthusiasm generated by Pop Art since the first works were exhibited has never died down it is greater today than ever before Book jacket

Media Industries in Crisis Vicki Mayer, Noa Lavie, Miranda Banks, 2024-04-02 This edited volume offers a global overview of the immediate impacts the COVID pandemic had on local and national film television streaming and social media industries examining in compelling detail how these industries managed the crisis With accounts from the frontlines Media Industries in Crisis provides readers with a stakeholder framework management lessons and urgent commentaries to unpack the nature of crisis management and communications The authors show how these industries have not only survived but often thrive amidst a backdrop of critical national and regional emergencies wars financial meltdowns and climate disasters This international collection featuring case studies from 16 countries examines how media industries managed all of these crises successfully rebranding themselves as essential while making power plays in politics economics and culture The chapters reveal key lessons for the meltdowns tectonic shifts and struggles ahead This collection will be of interest to media and communication students particularly those focused on media industries crisis communications and management as well as to practitioners working in media industries

Melodrama and Meaning Barbara Klinger, 1994-08-22 Melodrama and Meaning is a major addition to the new historical approach to film studies Barbara Klinger shows how institutions most associated with Hollywood cinema academia the film industry review journalism star publicity and the mass media create meaning and ideological identity for films Chapters focus on Sirk's place in the development of film studies from the 1950s through the 1980s as well as the history of the critical reception both academic and popular of Sirk's films a history that outlines journalism's role in public tastemaking Other chapters are devoted to Universal's selling of Written on the Wind the machinery of star publicity and the changing image of Rock Hudson and the contemporary institutionalized camp response to

Sirk that has resulted from developments in mass culture Producing Precarity Curtis Marez, 2025-08-26 This book uses the concept of racial capitalism to make visible the hidden social costs of TV production for local Black Latinx and Indigenous communities Provided by publisher Lupe Velez Michelle Vogel, 2012-07-24 Here is the first extensive full length biography and career record on the life and work of Mexican whirlwind Lupe Velez 1908 1944 Over the years many crude myths have surfaced about Velez the most notorious that she died with her head in the toilet This biography not only studies Lupe s personal life and career including her tempestuous marriage to Johnny Weissmuller but also examines her death in detail It has been almost seven decades since her untimely end at long last the ugly rumors and myths are debunked for good Included are never before told family stories and photographs from Lupe s second cousin and an analysis of the actress s lasting influence on popular culture The foreword by Oscar winning film historian Kevin Brownlow focuses on the fact and fancy behind Lupe Velez s colorful public image Young and Homeless In Hollywood Susan M. Ruddick, 2014-05-22 Young and Homeless in Hollywood examines the social and spacial dynamics that contributed to the construction of a new social imaginary homeless youth in the United States during a period of accelerated modernization from the mid 1970s to the 1990s Susan Ruddick draws from a range of theoretical frameworks and empirical treatments that deal with the relationship between placemaking and the politics of social identity Abolishing Surveillance Chris Robé, 2023-09-05 The Department of Justice sought information on all who visited the DisruptJ20 org website for Donald Trump s inauguration Undercover agents infiltrate BlackLivesMatter protests Police routinely command bystanders to stop filming them by falsely claiming it is a crime Agricultural states like Iowa Idaho Utah and Wyoming enact laws that criminalize the filming of factory farm cruelty while allowing other the human animal suffering to continue unabated Dissent and poverty are increasingly criminalized by the state as precarity grows Abolishing Surveillance offers the first in depth study of how various communities and activist organizations are resisting such efforts by integrating digital media activism into their actions against state surveillance and repression and for a better world The book focuses on a wide array of movements within the United States such as Latinx copwatching groups in New York City Muslim and Arab American communities in Minneapolis undercover animal rights activists and counter summit protesters to explore the ways in which government surveillance and repression impacts them and more importantly their different but related online and offline tactics and strategies employed for self determination and liberation Digital media production becomes a core element in such organizing as cell phones and other forms of handheld technology become more ubiquitous Yet such uses of technology can only be successfully employed when built upon strong grassroots organizing that has always been essential for social movements to take root Neither idealizing nor disparaging the digital media activism explored within its pages Abolishing Surveillance analyzes the successes and failures that accompany each case study The book explores the historically shifting terrain since the 1980s to the present of how historically disenfranchised communities activist organizations and repressive state institutions battle over the uses of digital technology and media making practices as civil liberties community autonomy and the very lives of people and other than human animals hang in the balance Resilience in the Post-Welfare Inner City Geoffrey DeVerteuil,2016-08-17 Resilience has become one of the first fully fledged academic and political buzzwords of the 21st century Within this context Geoffrey DeVerteuil proposes a more critically engaged and conceptually robust version applying it to the conspicuous but now residual clusters of inner city voluntary sector organisations deemed service hubs The process of resilience is compared across ten service hubs in three complex but different global inner city regions London Los Angeles and Sydney in response to the threat of gentrification induced displacement DeVerteuil shows that resilience can be about holding on to previous gains but also about holding out for transformation The book is the first to move beyond theoretical works on resilience and offers a combined conceptual and empirical approach that will interest urban geographers social planners and researchers in the voluntary sector The Ocean Roars John Richard Nold,2010-09-29 My lifelong passion has been for great literature great music great art including sculpture and architecture and great philosophy I had some talented English teachers in high school and at the junior college in St Joseph MO also at Kansas University in Lawrence KS with extra credits from the University of Missouri Columbia and University of Missouri Kansas City This led to my embarking on a teaching vocation myself I taught on several levels and I should have been able to use the experience to my benefit Instead I had a breakdown that took me a while to recover from While I was floundering my way out of this dilemma I was hired by the City of Kansas City MO for a clerical position and was assigned to their Municipal Farm a still flourishing prison farm which eventually evolved into the Municipal Correctional Institution I intended and expected that this would be a temporary expedient for me I ended up staying for thirty years mostly as a records officer at the prison Ive never written about those years but that may yet occur provided time allows During those thirty years I was able to partake of the Citys rich cultural life and I read read read and also continued to write all through that period Here are some stories from an earlier period of my life before most of these latter things happened Eventually I broadened my horizon to include an interest in German literature and currently Im working at developing and honing my translation skills hoping to make a contribution to the literary challenge of being a translator The Plant Disease Reporter ,1943 The Plant Disease Bulletin ,1943 Have Your Yellowcake and Eat It Jack Boulton,2021-06-09 Have Your Yellowcake and Eat It is a story of men monsters and uranium in Swakopmund a small coastal city in the west of Namibia Founded by German settlers in the late nineteenth century Swakopmund remains a popular holiday destination for Namibians and international visitors alike How do young African men make their home in this peculiar town of pretty beaches and luxury hotels a brutal colonial history and a large uranium mining industry Are their close relations affected by global changes in the price of uranium And how do we describe their life worlds which straddle many homes neighbourhoods and establishments sometimes even existing beyond the limits of the post colonial city Employing a reflexive narrative and based on two year s fieldwork Jack Boulton explores the myriad ways in which intimacy develops and manifests for men in a city defined predominantly by racialised difference and local and global forces of inequality
