Neue musikalische Presse, 1896 Country Path Conversations Martin Heidegger, 2010-06-14 The philosopher's meditations on nature, technology and evil, written in the final years of WWII, presented in clear and highly readable translation. Philosophy in Review. First published in German in 1995, volume 77 of Heidegger's Complete Works consists of three imaginary conversations written as World War II was coming to an end. Composed at a crucial moment in history and in Heidegger's own thinking, these conversations present meditations on science and technology, the devastation of nature, World War II and the nature of evil. Heidegger also delves into the possibility of release from representational thinking into a more authentic relation with being and the world. The first conversation involves a scientist, a scholar and a guide walking together on a country path; the second takes place between a teacher and a tower warden; and the third features a younger man and an older man in a prisoner of war camp in Russia where Heidegger's two sons were missing in action Unique because of their conversational style this lucid and precise translation of these texts offers insight into the issues that engaged Heidegger's wartime and postwar thinking Die Grenzboten, 1906 Als Mariner im Krieg und andere autobiografische Werke
