Althea Dialogues On Aspirations And Duties:

Althea Vernon Lee, 1893 Althea Vernon Lee, 1893 Althea, dialogues on aspirations and duties, by Vernon Lee Vernon Lee, Violet Paget, 1894 Althea: Dialogues in Aspirations and Duties Vernon Lee, 1910 Althea Vernon Lee, 1894 Althea Vernon Lee, 2015-06-29 Excerpt from Althea Dialogues on Aspirations Duties A volume of dialogues similar to these which I collected some eight years ago was prefaced by an elaborate account of a personage called Baldwin. Re-reading those pages just now as a preliminary to prefacing this new set of dialogues I find to my surprise that the only information about him which I am called to add is that this shadowy personage about whose real existence and identity I once seemed so certain has ceased to exist. Those readers who quite properly leave the preface to the last will here interrupt with the statement that they have met Baldwin in every one of these dialogues that is true but it does not prevent his having ceased to exist. For Baldwin has departed this vague life of reality reality which is vague because it is complex and shifting to reappear in the clear solid existence of imaginary beings of those typical representatives of tendencies and ideas who are so consolingly consistent and who stand being undisturbed by vital processes as gentle and spirited as a saddler's wooden horse that horse which forever paws without moving for the better display of intellectual harness and trappings.
