Almanac of Federal PACs, 1998      Conspicuous Corporation Neil J. Mitchell, 2025-10-01 Why despite the political advantages of business in the policy process do business interests still sometimes lose policy fights in the political system Money mobility connections and incentives load the political system in favor of business interests Against the odds when the conspicuous corporation meets the virtuous politician business often loses in the policy struggle In answering this question Neil J Mitchell reassesses the dimensions of business power in the political system and provides a fresh consideration of how economic power translates into political power Charles Lindbloom s analysis of business power provides a point of departure for an examination of the evidence on business influence over public preferences on the importance of business confidence to politicians and on the financial and lobbying activities of business interests Mitchell then considers the position of labor unions the traditional opposition to business in contemporary policy making Finally he discusses the conditions under which business power breaks down This is accompanied by an analysis of a variety of cases in which business has attempted to influence the policy making process to test his findings Extensively researched this book sheds new light on the activities of business in politics on the strength of interests opposing business and on business policy failures in the United States and the United Kingdom The empirical analysis builds on survey data extensive interviews and archival research The relationship between business and government is a core topic for economists sociologists and political scientists taking us from heroic struggles over policy to sordid episodes of political corruption The book will be of interest to scholars in the social sciences and in business schools as well as to the general reader interested in power and influence in representative democracies Neil Mitchell is Professor of Political Science University of New Mexico      Almanac of Federal PACs, 1990 Ed Zuckerman, 1990      Spirit Of Community Amitai Etzioni, 1994-05-24 Explains how Americans need to develop or restore a sense of community in order to reconstruct society      Ain't Nothing Like Freedom Cynthia McKinney, 2013-03-26 Elected six times to the House from the state of Georgia Cynthia McKinney cut a trail through Congressional deceit like a hot ember through ash She discovered legislators who passed laws without reading them Party leaders who colluded across party lines against their constituents interests Black skinned individuals shilling for the white status quo She excoriated government lassitude over Hurricane Katrina uncovering dark secrets She held the only critical Congressional briefing on 9 11 introducing counter testimony of scholars investigators former intelligence agents As a member of the House Armed Services Committee she held Rumsfeld to account for malfeasance by military contractors and missing billions in the Pentagon s budget Then she hammered him on the reasons for the failure of NORAD air defenses on 9 11 She read truth into the Congressional Record held town halls and hearings led protests showed up while others played along to get along took the side of the people against the will of the Party And when she got too truth seeking and speaking the Republicans rigged the Democratic primaries to boot her out leaving behind a trail of achievements mostly won singlehandedly as a result of her service on the House International Relations House Agriculture House Armed Services and Budget Committees and the Select Committee on Hurricanes Katrina and Rita But McKinney rose again like a Phoenix answering the call to run as 2008 Green Party candidate for President challenging the corrupt two party stranglehold on American democracy Then it was on to the Freedom Flotilla to Gaza to be seized on the high seas and imprisoned in Israel On to Tripoli to serve as witness to the NATO terror bombing of Libya On to Malaysia to serve on the War Crimes Commission Often introduced as the Sojourner Truth the Harriet Tubman of our age McKinney reflects here on the Biblical figures of Esther Deborah and Naomi This is the Cynthia McKinney saga as it stands to date what she saw what she learned and how she fought for change Risky Business Robert Biersack, Paul S. Herrnson, Clyde Wilcox, 2016-09-16 By 1990 there were over 4000 Political Action Committees PACs active and visible in the USA This study covers various perspectives of PACs size contribution strategies access to Washington information networks and issues by means of diverse case studies Westvaco Kenneth Scott, 1994

Election Administration Reports, 1992 The Federal Civil Service System and the Problem of Bureaucracy Ronald N. Johnson, Gary D. Libecap, 2007-12-01 The call to reinvent government to reform the government bureaucracy of the United States resonates as loudly from elected officials as from the public Examining the political and economic forces that have shaped the American civil service system from its beginnings in 1883 through today the authors of this volume explain why despite attempts at an overhaul significant change in the bureaucracy remains a formidable challenge Politics, Punishment, and Populism David James George Hennessy Baron Windlesham, 1998 In this timely challenging book a former minister and current legislator in the British government examines the wave of American federal crime control laws that surfaced both before and after the 1994 Republican Revolution in Congress Lord Windlesham focuses on the pressure that populist opinion and special interests can exert in shaping crime policy Several law making actions and arguments are explored such as the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act thought by many to be the key legislative achievement of President Clinton's first term the Brady Act the three strikes and you're out rule Megan's Law and so forth Furthermore in presenting controversial views on the NRA and its competitors the book ultimately asks how long America can continue to tolerate the private possession of deadly weapons Politics, Punishment, and Populism Lord Windlesham, 1998-07-23 The Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994 was arguably the most important legislative achievement of President Clinton's first term In this detailed account Lord Windlesham a prominent legal scholar British legislator and Oxford College Principal brings his experience to bear in analyzing the forces inside and outside the 103rd Congress which shaped the final content of the Act Controversial issues discussed include racial justice three strikes and you're out and mandatory sentencing the Brady Act and the assault weapons ban the competing claims of prison building and prevention programs drug policies and restrictions on repeat sex offenders after release from prison The narrative of Politics Punishment and Populism continues with the Contract with America and the crime policies adopted after the Republicans won control of both the House and Senate in the elections for the 104th Congress The external pressures and the Congressional tactics deployed to facilitate passage of such measures as the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act Megan's Law and the Prison Litigation Reform Act are examined in the second part of the book Subsequent challenges in the courts are also reviewed including some cases decided by the Supreme Court at the end of its 1996-97 term The focal point throughout is the impact of populist opinion as well as that of special interest groups upon elected representatives in the formation of public policy The role of one of the most politically potent of all lobbies the National Rifle Association is assessed in the context of the competition it faces from an increasingly activist gun control movement The book concludes by asking whether an end is in sight regarding America's isolated tolerance of lethal weapons      Encyclopedia of Interest Groups and Lobbyists in the United States Immanuel Ness, 2015-07-17 A comprehensive general reference on major American interest groups This encyclopedia provides information on the lobbies and interest groups that dominate modern American politics It provides descriptions of 13 categories of groups followed by A-Z entries on the groups within that category      DttP. Documents to the People, 1989      Reflected Glory Sally Bedell Smith, 2013-11-05 A biography of Pamela Churchill Harriman based on over 800 interviews and archival research charting her life from marriage to Churchill's son Randolph through two further marriages to her eventual appointment as US Ambassador to France      Still the Best Congress Money Can Buy Philip M. Stern, 1992      Social Inequality Charles E. Hurst, 2015-10-14 A user friendly introduction to social inequality This text is a broad introduction to the many types of inequality economics status political power sex and gender sexual orientation race and ethnicity in U.S. society and in a global setting The author provides a wide range of explanations for inequality and using the latest research on the multiple impacts of inequality surveys in detail the personal and social consequences of social inequality Learning Goals Upon completing this book readers will be able to Understand that inequality is multidimensional Understand that it is essential to understand the explanations of the various forms of inequality in order to further a resolution to any inequality's undesirable consequences Understand the discussion of inequality in its broader historical cultural and international context      The Law of Public Communication Kent Middleton, Bill F. Chamberlin, 1994 The 2001 Update Edition of Law of Public Communication includes the most current information available on the subject Focusing on the day to day implications of the law for media practitioners this book examines the law affecting both traditional journalism and the ever changing commercial and electronic media explaining the law as it applies to the daily work of media practitioners anyone working in the mass communication field or anyone interested in pursuing a career in mass communication      Campaign, 1992      Creative Campaigning Anthony Corrado, 2019-03-04 Ronald Reagan started it back in 1977 George Bush perfected the art in 1988 In the 1980s and 1990s Democrats as well as Republicans running for president or thinking of doing so have followed Reagan's lead in establishing precandidacy PACs as a way of raising more money faster without the regulatory rigors laid down by Congress and the Federal Election Commission Marshalling years of experience on the campaign trail Anthony Corrado has documented for the first time the fundraising and spending patterns of presidential candidates who feel forced to circumvent the system in order to amass enough funds to mount a contemporary presidential campaign He shows how a variety of factors contribution limits the delegate selection process expenditure ceilings and costly campaign strategies have combined to push candidates to establish PACs to raise and spend money on campaign activities well in advance of an official declaration to run These lofty sounding organizations such as Bush s Fund for America s Future and Gephardt s Effective Government Committee operate as shadow campaigns throughout the nomination process and often live on beyond the candidate s formal bid for office The year 1992 is a special case in presidential election year history because of the strong Bush incumbency a reluctant Democratic challenge and a series of foreign policy crises Corrado explains why precandidacy PACs persist and how they are likely to grow in number and clout if an array of bold new reform measures is not implemented prior to the next open presidential election in 1996 After showing how the Federal Election Campaign Act not only permits but in fact inspires presidential candidates to break the laws governing campaign finance Corrado points out how ironically less regulation may yield greater compliance and a more effective nomination process in the 1990s and beyond
