Almost A Lifetime A True Story:

The True Story of Alice B. Toklas Anna Linzie, 2006-04 In this original and intriguing study Anna Linzie examines three mid twentieth century texts never before treated as interrelated in a book length work of literary criticism Gertrude Stein's The Autobiography of Alice B. Toklas 1933 and Alice B. Toklas's The Alice B. Toklas Cook Book 1954 and What Is Remembered 1963 Taking these three texts as intertexts or as an assemblage of the true story of Alice B. Toklas Linzie challenges assumptions about primary authorship and singular identity that have continued to limit lesbian and feminist rereadings of autobiography as a genre and of Stein and Toklas as writers and historical figures The True Story of Alice B. Toklas explores how the concept of autobiography as a primarily referential genre is challenged and transformed in relation to autobiographical texts written about the same person the same life but differently by different writers at different points in time The concept of one true story is deconstructed in the process as Linzie modifies Homi K. Bhabha's almost the same but not quite not white for the purposes of this particular study as almost the same but not quite not straight The investigation moves simultaneously on the planes of textuality and sexuality in order to provisionally articulate a lesbian autobiographical subject in Linzie's reading of these three texts Linzie's study fills a gap in literary criticism where Stein's companion and her work have been more or less neglected conceptualizing the Stein-Toklas sexual textual relationship as fundamentally reciprocal The True Story of Alice B. Toklas provides a new critical perspective on Toklas as indispensable to Stein's literary production a cultural laborer in her own right and a writer of her own books Making a significant contribution to recent lesbian feminist reconceptualizations of the genre of autobiography this study will fascinate Stein and Toklas scholars as well as those interested in queer and autobiography studies True Stories Of History And Biography Nathaniel Hawthorne, 2023-11-09 Grandfather had been sitting in his old arm chair all that pleasant afternoon while the children were pursuing their various sports far off or near at hand Sometimes you would have said Grandfather is asleep but still even when his eyes were closed his thoughts were with the young people playing among the flowers and shrubbery of the garden He heard the voice of Laurence who had taken possession of a heap of decayed branches which the gardener had lopped from the fruit trees and was building a little hut for his cousin Clara and himself He heard Clara's gladsome voice too as she weeded and watered the flower bed which had been given her for her own He could have counted every footstep that Charley took as he trundled his wheelbarrow along the gravel walk And though Grandfather was old and gray haired yet his heart leaped with joy whenever little Alice came fluttering like a butterfly into the room She had made each of the children her playmate in turn and now made Grandfather her playmate too and thought him the merriest of them all Based on a True Story Christopher Holdsworth, 2012-09 A giant spider cannibals and a vast chessboard are some of the obstacles Zed and his companion must face in their journey to reach an unknown treasure hidden deep within a mountain range in Peru Zed is astounded when he meets a Genie and is offered the chance to travel through time and witness prominent events Adam and
