collection presenters from the series both within and outside of the academy examine the ways they have utilized TEK for inclusive teaching practices and in environmental justice efforts Advocating for and providing an expansion of place based Indigenized education that infuses Indigenous epistemologies for student success in both K 12 and higher education curricula these essays explore topics such as land fragmentation remote sensing and outreach through the lens of TEK demonstrating methods of fusing learning with Indigenous knowledge IK Contributors emphasize the need to increase the perspectives of IK within institutionalized knowledge beyond being co opted into non Indigenous frameworks that may be fundamentally different from Indigenous ways of thinking Decolonizing current harmful pedagogical curricula and research training about the natural world through an Indigenous guided approach is an essential first step to rebuilding a healthy relationship with our environment while acknowledging that all relationships come with an ethical responsibility Voices of Indigenuity captures the complexities of exploring the contextualized meanings for why TEK should be integrated into Western environmental science processes and frameworks while rooted in Indigenous studies programs Sung Hwan Kim

Janine Armin, 2025-05-20 A richly illustrated exploration of Sung Hwan Kim's complex record of migrant stories displacement and belonging border crossings and translation In A Record of Drifting Across the Sea 2017 Sung Hwan Kim turns to past histories of migration The artist parses the traces archival and bodily left by undocumented Korean migrants who came to the US by way of Hawai'i at the turn of the last century and ponders over their impact on other migrant and indigenous communities As an ongoing film and installation series comprising two chapters and a third in progress A Record unsettles the limits of the one work with its distributive open ended and collaborative nature In this speculative inquiry Janine Armin explores each chapter in Kim's multilayered work as a mycelial network of feelers entangling and extending the wider work in process Engaging history through the senses folklore and myth as much as through archival material Kim navigates and crosses the boundaries between displacement and belonging Focusing on the artist's attempt to escape from representation Armin illuminates and attends to the different stories and non sovereign ways of being together towards which his work points us This title is part of the One Work book series which focuses on artworks that have significantly changed the way we understand art and its history The Past before Us Nālani Wilson-Hokowhitu, 2019-04-30 From the Foreword Crucially past present and future are tightly woven in iwi Native Hawaiian theory and practice We adapt to whatever historical challenges we face so that we can continue to survive and thrive As we look to the past for knowledge and inspiration on how to face the future we are aware that we are tomorrow's ancestors and that future generations will look to us for guidance Marie Alohalani Brown author of Facing the Spears of Change The Life and Legacy of John Papa The title of the book The Past before Us refers to the importance of ka w mamua or the time in front in Hawaiian thinking In this collection of essays eleven Kanaka iwi Native Hawaiian scholars honor their mo'okauhau genealogical lineage by using genealogical knowledge drawn from the past to shape their research methodologies These contributors K naka writing from Hawai'i as well as from the diaspora throughout the Pacific and North America come from a wide range of backgrounds including activism grassroots movements and place based cultural practice in addition to academia Their work offers broadly applicable yet deeply personal perspectives on complex Hawaiian issues and demonstrates that enduring ancestral ties and relationships to the past are not only relevant but integral to contemporary Indigenous scholarship Chapters on language literature cosmology spirituality diaspora identity relationships activism colonialism and cultural practices unite around methodologies based on mo'okauhau This cultural concept acknowledges the times people places and events that came before it is a fundamental worldview that guides our understanding of the present and our navigation into the future This book is a welcome addition to the growing fields of Indigenous Pacific Islands and Hawaiian studies Contributors H.
