The Monastic Way Hannah Ward, 2013-01-25 A book of daily readings drawn from the writings of those who have lived the monastic life in all the major spiritual traditions of the Eastern and Western Churches Benedictine Franciscan Orthodox Carmelite and others For each month there is a specific theme Starting Out Seeking Guidance Living With Others Balancing Life and so on through the year Each theme is introduced by quotations from one of the great monastic Rules and for each day of the year there is an excerpt from the writings of a huge variety of men and women stretching across the centuries from 5th century Desert Mothers to Basil Hume Joan Chittister Thomas Merton and many more familiar and new names This is a book for all who are looking to an ancient rooted wisdom for practical guidance on living in the world today

Living the Hours Anthony Grimley, Jonathan M. Wooding, 2009-10-01 Living the Hours explores what makes the monastic tradition so appealing to ordinary people today who may be discovering a world of spirituality previously hidden from them or perhaps questioning the balance priorities and focal points of their lives Since its beginnings in the fourth century monasticism's alternative vision for living has in different ways always inspired men and women in the secular world to step outside the routine of everyday life and to give time to reflection and exploration The monastic day is measured in hours with times for prayer physical work study and rest all contributing to a balanced holistic life This book looks at different expressions of monastic life through history and at the new monastic movements emerging today and asks how they can teach us in today's consumerist world to live more fully more consciously aware of how we choose to fill our hours and days

Encyclopedia of Catholicism Frank K. Flinn, 2007 Covers the key people movements institutions practices and doctrines of Roman Catholicism from its earliest origins Resumé de l'auteur

A Lenten Journey with Jesus Christ and Saint Benedict John R. Fortin, 2009-10 Come to know the spiritual depths of Saint Benedict a man who thought that there was nothing more important in life than to seek God and for whom nothing was to be preferred to the love of Christ Benedict found God in many different ways in the goodness and wonders of creation in his fellow human beings created in the image and likeness of God in the prayerful reading of the Scriptures in the Sacraments and in the prayer of the Church This book can help you to journey with Jesus and Saint Benedict in Lent and thus help you to seek God more fervently and to live according to his commandments in faith hope and love Provided by publisher

Journey into Truth Peter Ball, 1999-01-11 Spiritual direction is a relationship in which God is at work using one person to help another on their journey of faith This book shows what this kind of relationship has meant to the Anglican Church over the centuries and what it means for people today
