Singing the Vietnam Blues Joseph F. Tusso, 1990 The songs of the U S Air Force flyers during the Vietnam War written in the cryptic language of pilots and navigators aloft in their beasts a dozen angels up in the sky uniquely reflect the stark emotions and black humors of that ill fated war Veteran navigator Joseph F Tusso spent fifteen years collecting the lyrics for more than a hundred songs written or sung by U S Air Force flyers from about 1966 through 1969 Many of the songs authors are unknown But their lyrics even such jarring lines as those of Chocolate covered Napalm often are set to popular melodies such as The Wabash Cannonball Some songs have original tunes as well Twenty five of the 148 songs whose lyrics are included here were written by Dick Jonas the premier songwriter of the Vietnam era Air Force Many other songs appear in print for the first time Singing the Vietnam Blues begins with a personal overture that sets the stage for a play of war evoked emotions and lines that are less than sacred more than profane and sometimes poignant Some songs such as the Phu Cat Alert Pad are based on historical events while others have their origins in popular myths such as Wolf Pack s Houseboy Whatever the direct source of the songs it is the daily combat rescue or transport missions the possibility of death and the fear bravado and competition between pilots navigators planes and enemy flyers or bandits that generated the lyrics Most songs are preceded by Tusos explanation of each song s origin other versions references to current events or inside jokes and sometimes personal insights and memories A glossary is also included

Quarterly Essay 23 The History Question Inga Clendinnen,2015-01-29 In the third Quarterly Essay for 2006 Inga Clendinnen looks past the skirmishes and pitched battles of the history wars and asks what s at stake what kind of history do we want and need Should our historians be producing the objective record of achievement that the Prime Minister has called for For Clendinnen historians cannot be the midwives of national identity and also be true to their profession history cannot do the work of myth Clendinnen illuminates the ways in which history myth and fiction differ from one another and why the differences are important In discussing what good history looks like she pays tribute to the human need for story telling but notes the distinctive critical role of the historian She offers a spirited critique of Kate Grenville s novel The Secret River and discusses the Stolen Generations and the role of morality in history writing This is an eloquent and stimulating essay about a subject that has generated much heat in recent times how we should record and regard the nation s past Who owns the past In a free society everyone It is a magic pudding belonging to anyone who wants to cut themselves a slice from legend manufacturers through novelists looking for ready made plots to interest groups out to extend their influence Inga Clendinnen The History Question
