The Alphabet in the Park Adelia Prado, 1990 Poetry that eloquently concentrates on the spiritual and physical lives of women
Sing by the Burying Ground Marianne Boruch, 2024-03-15 Meditations on life literature and curiosity amid the shadows In her fourth essay collection award winning author Marianne Boruch explores the possibilities of hope even in darkness Through poetry the silence of Trappist monks the pandemic moment the Wright brothers quirky stab at flight treasured knickknacks and more this book celebrates the weird the mundane the overlooked and the promise of a future Though each essay is distinct foraging fresh ways into Louise Gl ck W H Auden Elizabeth Bishop Robert Frost Marianne Moore Sylvia Plath John Berryman Langston Hughes and more they are all connected through the thread of Emily Dickinson s comment that her fate was to sing as a Boy does by the Burying Ground Even in times filled with horror we find beauty Maybe we can sing in the blackest of nights Thoughtful and expressive this collection provides solace and humor for readers in a world where both are often in short supply

The Letters of Robert Duncan and Denise Levertov Robert Edward Duncan, Robert J. Bertholf, Albert Gelpi, 2004 This volume presents the complete correspondence between two of the most important and influential American poets of the postwar period The almost 500 letters range widely over the poetry scene and the issues that made the period so lively and productive But what gives the exchange its special personal and literary resonance is the sense of spiritual affinity and shared conviction about the power of the visionary imagination Duncan and Levertov explore these matters in rich detail until under the stress of dealing with the Vietnam War in poetry they discover deep seated differences in the religious and ethical convictions underlying their politics and poetic stance The issues that drew them together and those that drove them apart create a powerful personal drama with far reaching historical and cultural significance The editors have provided a critical Introduction full notes a chronology and a glossary of names

Ravishing DisUnities Agha Shahid Ali, 2000-11-03 A star studded anthology infuses English poetry with the rigor and wit of a foreign form In recent years the ghazal pronounced ghuzzle a traditional Arabic form of poetry has become popular among contemporary English language poets But like the haiku before it the ghazal has been widely misunderstood and thus most English ghazals have been far from the mark in both letter and spirit This anthology brings together ghazals by a rich gathering of 107 poets including Diane Ackerman John Hollander W S Merwin William Matthews Paul Muldoon Ellen Bryant Voigt and many others As this dazzling collection shows the intricate and self reflexive ghazal brings the writer a unique set of challenges and opportunities Agha Shahid Ali s lively introduction gives a brief history of the ghazal and instructions on how to compose one in English An elegant afterword by Sarah Suleri Goodyear elucidates the larger issues of cultural translation and authenticity inherent in writing in a borrowed form Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 2008-05-01 Volume four of the Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren covers a crucial time of personal and professional rejuvenation in Warren s life During the fifteen year period spanned by this correspondence he completed

Brother to Dragons Segregation The Inner Conflict in the South and Who Speaks for the Negro As these titles suggest these years were marked by Warren's immersion in American history and his maturing interest in race relations They also saw his return to lyric poetry after a ten year hiatus with the publication of the Pulitzer Prize winning collection Promises Along with seeing the completion of some of his most successful work this period was a time of momentous change in Warren's life including his move to Yale University his marriage to his second wife Eleanor and the birth of his two children As a chronicle of Warren's thoughts on his family his work his friends the state of literary studies and the culture at large these letters are invaluable Unlike many writers Warren rarely drafted his correspondence with future readers and scholars in mind he typically saved his prepared statements about the human condition and the state of the world for his poetry fiction and social commentary His letters offer a candid and personal glimpse of Warren's relationships as well as his personal views on literature politics and social trends Their recipients include Ralph Ellison Allen Tate Saul Bellow Robert Lowell Eudora Welty and Louis Rubin as well as Warren's editors reviewers collaborators and other friends Providing an unusually vivid and personal account of Warren's rich and fully realized life these missives are equally revealing of his thoughts on the state of contemporary American culture during this dynamic time in American history

The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman, 2015-07-15 This volume of correspondence the last in a three volume edition spans a pivotal moment in American history the mid twentieth century from the beginning of World War II through the years of rebuilding and uneasy peace that followed to the election of President John F Kennedy Robinson Jeffers published four important books during this period Be Angry at the Sun 1941 Medea 1946 The Double Axe 1948 and Hungerfield 1954 He also faced changes to his hometown village of Carmel experienced the rewards of being a successful dramatist in the United States and abroad and endured the loss of his wife Una Jeffers letters and those of Una written in the decade prior to her death offer a vivid chronicle of the life and times of a singular and visionary poet

Letters to America Jim Daniels, 1995 A collection of poems that explore the issues surrounding race relations in American society told from the experience of Black Native American Asian Arabic Hispanic and white cultures

Letters to Jargon Andrew Rippeon, 2019-09-24 Gathers some of the most intimate personal writing on life and the art of poetry by a crucial figure in late twentieth century American letters Celebrated by both the Black Mountain poets in the 1950s and 1960s and the Language poets in the 1970s and 1980s Larry Eigner's poems occupy an important place in American poetry and poetics and his reputation and legacy grow seemingly stronger with each passing year Letters to Jargon collects all of the known correspondence between Larry Eigner and Jonathan Williams the influential publisher of Jargon Society Press and himself a poet Eigner's correspondence with Williams began in the early 1950s as the two were in conversation over the manuscript of On My Eyes published by Jargon in 1960 Their correspondence continued for many years thereafter extending into the period when Eigner's work started to gain recognition from the nascent movement that would become known as Language writing

The letters are quite broad in their range of reference and provide a fuller context for Eigner's poetry and thinking. Eigner and Williams discuss their own poetic practices including the source material for specific poems, general writing practices, and small press and little magazine publication. This volume offers considerable insight into their shared literary communities as Eigner reports on his readings in contemporary poetry and poetics as well as his correspondence and contact with other poets including Charles Olson, Vincent Ferrini, Robert Duncan, Denise Levertov, Robert Grenier, and Barrett Watten. Also recorded are Eigner's reactions to current events and explications of his own poems including the contexts for appropriated lines and distinctions of character spacing. Eigner also shares with Williams details of his home life, his financial difficulties, and the daily challenges of his cerebral palsy. Finally, the book features a series of images of the original letters, enabling readers to see Eigner's specific material/textual practices.

Sara Teasdale, Woman & Poet William Drake, 1989 Biography of twentieth-century poet Sara Teasdale drawing from personal papers that had been withheld from publication for nearly fifty years after her death to reconstruct her tragic history and including samples of her poetry and prose.

Jane Austen Irene Collins, 1998-01-01 Jane Austen was a clergyman's daughter related to other clergy born and brought up in the parsonage. Irene Collins examines the influence this had on Austen's work.

The Selected Literary Letters of Paul Laurence Dunbar Paul Laurence Dunbar, 2021-02-09 These 250 transcribed and annotated letters reveal the personal and literary life of one of the most highly regarded African American writers and intellectuals. Paul Laurence Dunbar (1873-1906) was arguably the most famous African American poet, novelist, and dramatist at the turn of the twentieth century and one of the earliest African American writers to receive national recognition and appreciation. Scholars have taken a renewed interest in Dunbar, but much is still unknown about this once famous African American author's life and literary efforts. Dunbar's letters to various editors, friends, benefactors, scholars, and family members are crucial to any critical or theoretical understanding of his journey as a writer. His literary correspondence in particular records the development of an extraordinary figure whose work reached a broad readership in his lifetime but not without considerable cost. The Selected Literary Letters of Paul Laurence Dunbar is a collection of 250 letters transcribed and annotated that reveal the personal and literary life of one of the most highly regarded African American writers and intellectuals. Editors Cynthia C. Murillo and Jennifer M. Nader highlight Dunbar not just as a determined author and master of rhetoric but also as a young, sensitive, thoughtful, keenly intelligent, and talented writer who battled depression, alcoholism, and tuberculosis as well as rejection and racism. Despite Dunbar's personal struggles, his literary letters disclose that he was full of hopes and dreams coupled with the resolve to flourish as a writer at almost any cost, even when it caused controversy. Taken together, Dunbar's letters depict his concerted effort to succeed as an author within an overtly racist literary culture, among sharp divides within the African American intellectual community, and in opposition to the demands of popular public tastes often dictated by the demands of publishers. This wide-ranging selection of Dunbar's most relevant literary letters will serve to correct many matters of conjecture about Dunbar's life writing and choices by supplying factual evidence to counter speculation assumption and incomplete information

The Letters of Robert Frost Robert Frost, 2021-04-30 The third installment of Harvard's five volume edition of Robert Frost's correspondence The Letters of Robert Frost Volume 3 1929 1936 is the latest installment in Harvard's five volume edition of the poet's correspondence It presents 601 letters of which 425 are previously uncollected The critically acclaimed first volume a Times Literary Supplement Book of the Year included nearly 300 previously uncollected letters and the second volume 350 more During the period covered here Robert Frost was close to the height of his powers If Volume 2 covered the making of Frost as America's poet in Volume 3 he is definitively made These were also however years of personal tribulation The once tight Frost family broke up as marriage illness and work scattered the children across the country In the case of Frost's son Carol both distance and proximity put strains on an already fractious relationship But the tragedy and emotional crux of this volume is the death of Frost's youngest daughter Marjorie Frost's correspondence from those dark days is a powerful testament to the difficulty of honoring the responsibilities of a poet's eminence while coping with the intensity of a parent's grief Volume 3 also sees Frost responding to the crisis of the Great Depression the onset of the New Deal and the emergence of totalitarian regimes in Europe with wit canny political intelligence and no little acerbity All the while his star continues to rise he wins a Pulitzer for Collected Poems in 1931 and will win a second for A Further Range published in 1936 and he is in constant demand as a public speaker at colleges writers workshops symposia and dinners Frost was not just a poet but a poet teacher as such he was instrumental in defining the public functions of poetry in the twentieth century In the 1930s Frost lived a life of paradox as personal tragedy and the tumults of politics interwove with his unprecedented achievements Thoroughly annotated and accompanied by a biographical glossary and detailed chronology these letters illuminate a triumphant and difficult period in the life of a towering literary figure

Denise Levertov Dana Greene, 2012-09-30 Kenneth Rexroth called Denise Levertov 1923 1997 the most subtly

skillful poet of her generation the most profound and the most moving Author of twenty four volumes of poetry four books of essays and several translations Levertov became a lauded and honored poet Born in England she published her first book of poems at age twenty three but it was not until she married and came to the United States in 1948 that she found her poetic voice helped by the likes of William Carlos Williams Robert Duncan and Robert Creeley Shortly before her death in 1997 the woman who claimed no country as home was nominated to be America's poet laureate Levertov was the quintessential romantic She wanted to live vividly intensely passionately and on a grand scale She wanted the persistence of Cezanne and the depth and generosity of Rilke Once she acclimated herself to America the dreamy lyric poetry of her early years gave way to the joy and wonder of ordinary life By the late 1960s and early 1970s however her poems began to engage the issues of her times Vehement and strident her poetry of protest was both acclaimed and criticized The end of both the Vietnam War and her marriage left her mentally fatigued and emotionally fragile but gradually over the span of a decade she emerged with new energy The crystalline and luminous poetry of her last years stands as final witness to a lifetime of searching for the mystery embedded in life itself Through all the vagaries of life and art her response was that of a primary wonder In this illuminating biography Dana Greene examines Levertov's interviews essays and self-revelatory poetry to discern the conflict and torment she both endured and created in her attempts to deal with her own psyche her relationships with family friends lovers colleagues and the times in which she lived Denise Levertov A Poet's Life is the first complete biography of Levertov a woman who claimed she did not want a biography insisting that it was her work that she hoped would endure And yet she confessed that her poetry in its various forms lyric political natural and religious derived from her life experience Although a substantial body of criticism has established Levertov as a major poet of the later twentieth century this volume represents the first attempt to set her poetry within the framework of her often tumultuous life The Collected Poems of Denise Levertov Denise Levertov, 2024-02-21 The landmark collected work of one of the greatest poets of the 20th century now in paperback How splendid and impressive to have a complete clear and unobstructed view of Denise Levertov Covering more than six decades and including chronologically every poem she ever published Levertov's Collected Poems presents her marvelous groundbreaking work in full Born in England Denise Levertov emigrated in 1948 to the United States where she was acclaimed by Kenneth Rexroth in The New York Times as the most subtly skillful poet of her generation the most profound the most modest the most moving A staunch anti-war activist and environmentalist and the winner of the Robert Frost Medal the Shelley Memorial Award and the Lannan Prize Denise Levertov inspired generations of writers New Directions is proud to publish this landmark collected poems of one of the twentieth century's greatest poets Third World Women's Literatures Barbara Fister, 1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women's literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well-known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes What plays have been written by women in the developing world What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister's companion to Third World women's literatures in English and English translation Organized alphabetically this reference volume presents entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries
