volume are veteran teachers of imaginative writing from across the country The T W Guide to Classic American Literature is an inspiring collection for teachers American literature and imaginative writing It is also a fascinating read for anyone passionate about teaching literature or creative writing Nonfiction Mentor Texts Lynne R. Dorfman,Rose Cappelli,2009 Guides teachers through a variety of projects samples and classroom anecdotes that demonstrate how teachers can help students become more effective writers of good nonfiction The Muses Among Us Kim Stafford,2012-03-15 The Muses Among Us is an inviting encouraging book for writers at any stage of their development In a series of first person letters essays manifestos and notes to the reader Kim Stafford shows what might happen at the creative boundary he calls what we almost know On the boundary s far side is our story our poem our song On this side are the resonant hunches griefs secrets and confusions from which our writing will emerge Guiding us from such glimmerings through to a finished piece are a wealth of experiments assignments and tricks of the trade that Stafford has perfected over thirty years of classes workshops and other gatherings of writers Informing The Muses Among Us are Stafford s own convictions about writing principles to which he returns again and again We must Stafford says honor the fragments utterances and half discovered truths voiced around us for their speakers are the prophets to whom writers are scribes Such filaments of wisdom either by themselves or alloyed with others give rise to our poems stories and essays In addition as Stafford writes all pleasure in writing begins with a sense of abundance rich knowledge and boundless curiosity By recommending ways for students to seek beyond the self for material Stafford demystifies the process of writing and claims for it a Whitmanesque quality of participation and community

International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications,2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who s Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King s Queen s Gold medal and other poetry prizes Wild Pedagogies Bob Jickling,Sean Blenkinsop,Nora Timmerman,Michael De Danann Sitka-Sage,2018-06-22 This book explores why the concept of wild pedagogy is an essential aspect of education in these times a re negotiated education that acknowledges the necessity of listening to voices in a more than human world and re learning how to dwell in a place As the geological epoch inexorably shifts to the Anthropocene the authors argue that learning to live in and engage with the world is increasingly crucial in such times of uncertainty The editors and contributors examine what wild pedagogy can truly become and how it can be relevant across disciplinary boundaries offering six touchstones as working tools to help educators forge an onward path This collaborative work will be of interest to students and scholars of wild pedagogies alternative education and the Anthropocene and for all those engaged in re wilding education A Country Called Childhood Jay Griffiths,2015-11-10 While traveling the world in order to write her award winning book Wild Jay Griffiths became increasingly aware of the huge differences in how childhood is experienced in various cultures One central riddle in particular captured her imagination why are so many children in Euro American cultures unhappy and why is it that children in traditional cultures seem happier In A Country Called Childhood Griffiths seeks to discover why we deny our children the freedoms of space time and the natural world Visiting communities as far apart as West Papua and the Arctic as well as the UK and delving into history philosophy language and literature she explores how children s affinity for nature is an essential and universal element of childhood It is a journey deep into the heart of what it means to be a child and it is central to all our experiences young and old Arts for Change Beverly Naidus,2009-04-01 Arts for Change presents strategies and theory for teaching socially engaged art with an historical and contemporary overview of the field The book features interviews with over thirty maverick artists faculty from colleges and universities in the United States Canada and Great Britain whose pedagogy is drawn from and informs activist arts practice The issues these teaching artists address are provocative and diverse Some came to this work through personal healing from injustice and trauma or by witnessing oppressions that became intolerable Many have taught for decades deeply influenced by social movements of the 1960s and 1970s yet because the work is controversial tenured positions are rare What I Learned at Bug Camp Sarah Juniper Rabkin,Sarah Rabkin,2011 What I Learned at Bug Camp offers a compelling inquiry through the eyes of an artist naturalist and teacher Sarah Rabkin joins personal essay and science journalism in fluent spirited prose that probes the spaces between science and art autonomy and community doubt and faith On a passionate quest for a home in the world she creates bridges out of stories inviting us to join her on the trail At the End of Ridge Road Joseph Bruchac,2005 A noted teller of the traditional tales of the Adirondacks and of Native peoples everywhere Joseph Bruchac has performed throughout the world That gift for narrative informs this revealing autobiography Teaching with Heart Sam M. Intrator,Megan Scribner,2014-05-19 Each and every day teachers show up in their classrooms with a relentless sense of optimism Despite the complicated challenges of schools they come to and remain in the profession inspired by a conviction that through education they can move individuals and society to a more promising future In Teaching with Heart Poetry that Speaks to the Courage to Teach a diverse group of ninety teachers describe the complex of emotions and experiences of the teaching life joy outrage heartbreak hope commitment and dedication Each heartfelt commentary is paired with a cherished poem selected by the teacher The contributors represent a broad array of educators K 12 teachers principals superintendents college professors as well as many non traditional teachers They range from first year teachers to mid career veterans to those who have retired after decades in the classroom They come from inner city suburban charter and private schools The teachers identified an eclectic collection of poems and poets from Emily Dickinson to Richard Wright to Mary Oliver to the rapper Tupac Shakur It is a book by teachers and for all who teach The book also includes a poignant Foreword by Parker J Palmer The Courage to Teach a stirring Introduction by Taylor Mali What Teachers Make and a moving Afterword by Sarah Brown Wessling Teaching Channel Where Teaching with Fire honored and celebrated the work of teachers Teaching with Heart salutes the tenacious and relentless optimism of teachers and their belief that despite the many challenges and obstacles of the teaching life much is possible Working with Academic Literacies Theresa Lillis, Kathy Harrington, 2015-11-04 The editors and contributors to this collection explore what it means to adopt an academic literacies approach in policy and pedagogy Transformative practice is illustrated through case studies and critical commentaries from teacher researchers working in a range of higher education contexts from undergraduate to postgraduate levels across disciplines and spanning geopolitical regions including Australia Brazil Canada Catalu a Finland France Ireland Portugal South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States Teaching Environmental Writing Isabel Galley, 2020-05-14 Environmental writing is an increasingly popular literary genre and a multifaceted genre at that Recently dominated by works of new nature writing environmental writing includes works of poetry and fiction about the world around us In the last two decades universities have begun to offer environmental writing modules and courses with the intention of teaching students skills in the field of writing inspired by the natural world This book asks how students are being guided into writing about environments Informed by independently conducted interviews with educators and a review of existing pedagogical guides it explores recurring instructions given to students for writing about the environment and compares these pedagogical approaches to the current theory and practice of ecocriticism by scholars such as Ursula Heise and Timothy Morton Proposing a set of original pedagogical exercises influenced by ecocriticism the book draws on a number of self reflexive environmentally conscious poets including Juliana Spahr Jorie Graham and Les Murray as creative and stimulating models for teachers and students Biopoetics Andreas Weber, 2016-09-01 Meaning feeling and expression the experience of inwardness matter most in human existence The perspective of biopoetics shows that this experience is shared by all organisms Being alive means to exist through relations that have existential concern and to express these dimensions through the body and its gestures All life takes place within one poetic space which is shared between all beings and which is accessible through subjective sensual experience We take part in this through our empirical subjectivity which arises from the experiences and needs of living beings and which makes them open to access and sharing in a poetic objectivity Biopoetics breaks free from the causal mechanic paradigm which made biology unable to account for mind and meaning Biology becomes a science of expression connection and subjectivity which can understand all organisms including humans as feeling agents in a shared ecology of meaningful relations embedded in a symbolical and material metabolism of the biosphere Beyond Stories Susan Britsch, 2013-08-16 This book pulls together the experiences of teachers and children in pre school through Grade 3 It demonstrates that nonfiction composing is a highly creative process for young children It provides suggestions for writing assignments focused reading and assessment The theme that underlines this book is that joy and creativity are inherently part of nonfiction and non narrative composing with young children The Wise Earth Speaks to Your Spirit Janell Moon,2002-04-01 Offers a strong incentive for us to get back to the natural world stay quiet reflect and write to connect with a spirit that is larger than ourselves Sheila Bender author of Keeping a Journal You Love A heartfelt combination of spiritual discovery environmental observations and journal writing The Wise Earth Speaks to Your Spirit offers readers a 52 week cycle of themed essays and related questions about the natural world Entries on night and sky and parakeets wind and mud and rain snakes and tea and thistle among others In addition to folklore myths stories and symbols connected to each theme Janell Moon includes inspirational quotes from well known writers among them E B White Ursula K Le Guin Gertrude Stein and Mother Theresa and shares her original poetry and personal experiences with the natural world As she writes in the introduction It is my wish that through the telling of these stories and the deepening of your own connections through your writing that you will better enjoy a rainbow or a tree with angel s wings in a storm American Haiku Toru Kiuchi,2017-11-30 American Haiku New Readings explores the history and development of haiku by American writers examining individual writers In the late nineteenth century Japanese poetry influenced through translation the French Symbolist poets from whom British and American Imagist poets Amy Lowell Ezra Pound T E Hulme and John Gould Fletcher received stimulus Since the first English language hokku haiku written by Yone Noguchi in 1903 one of the Imagist poet Ezra Pound s well known haiku like poem In A Station of the Metro published in 1913 is most influential on other Imagist and later American haiku poets Since the end of World War II many Americans and Canadians tried their hands at writing haiku Among them Richard Wright wrote over four thousand haiku in the final eighteen months of his life in exile in France His Haiku This Other World ed Yoshinobu Hakutani and Robert L Tener 1998 is a posthumous collection of 817 haiku Wright himself had selected Jack Kerouac a well known American novelist like Richard Wright also wrote numerous haiku Kerouac s Book of Haikus ed Regina Weinreich Penguin 2003 collects 667 haiku In recent decades many other American writers have written haiku Lenard Moore Sonia Sanchez James A Emanuel Burnell Lippy and Cid Corman Sonia Sanchez has two collections of haiku Like the Singing Coming off the Drums Boston Beacon Press 1998 and Morning Haiku Boston Beacon Press 2010 James A Emanuel s Jazz from the Haiku King Broadside Press 1999 is also a unique collection of haiku Lenard Moore author of his haiku collections The Open Eye 1985 has been writing and publishing haiku for over 20 years and became the first African American to be elected as President of the Haiku Society of America Burnell Lippy s haiku appears in the major American haiku journals Where the River Goes The Nature Tradition in English Language Haiku 2013 Cid Corman is well known not only as a haiku poet but a translator of Japanese ancient and modern haiku poets Santoka Walking into the Wind Cadmus Editions 1994 Children's Literature and New York City Padraic Whyte,Keith O'Sullivan,2014-01-10

This collection explores the significance of New York City in children's literature stressing literary political and societal influences on writing for young people from the twentieth century to the present day Contextualized in light of contemporary critical and cultural theory the chapters examine the varying ways in which children's literature has engaged with New York City as a city space both in terms of urban realism and as an idea such as the fantasy of the city as a place of opportunity or other associations The collection visits not only dominant themes motifs and tropes but also the different narrative methods employed to tell readers about the history function physical structure and conceptualization of New York City acknowledging the shared or symbiotic relationship between literature and the city just as literature can give imaginative reality to the city the city has the potential to shape the literary text This book critically engages with most of the major forms and genres for children young adults that dialogue with New York City and considers such authors as Margaret Wise Brown Felice Holman E L Konigsburg Maurice Sendak J D Salinger John Donovan Shaun Tan Elizabeth Enright and Patti Smith Pastoral Terry Gifford, 2019-10-16 Updated throughout this new edition provides a clear and invaluable introduction to the study of pastoral Terry Gifford traces the history of the genre from its classical origins through to contemporary writing and introduces the major writers and critical issues relating to pastoral Gifford breaks the term down into three accessible concepts pastoral anti pastoral post pastoral and provides up to date examples from literature and film New chapters explain the continuing tradition of georgic literature and the recent evolution of pastoral in their historical contexts Pastoral is essential and engaging reading for students and academics alike
