1947 and followed by the now equally famous Undiscovered Scotland In 1951 he was depute leader to Eric Shipton on the Everest Reconnaissance Expedition which discovered the eventual successful route which would be climbed by Hilary and Tensing From the 1960s onwards he was heavily involved in conservation campaigns and his book Highland Landscape commissioned by the National Trust for Scotland identified areas of outstanding beauty that should be protected It proved to be extremely influential In 1966 he was awarded an OBE as he pursued a life of service as is well illustrated by the various posts he held Commissioner for the Countryside Commission for Scotland 1968 1980 President of the Scottish Mountaineering Club 1962 1964 and of the Ramblers Association Scotland 1966 82 Chairman of Scottish Countryside Activities Council 1967 82 Vice President of the Alpine Club 1971 72 President of Mountaineering Council of Scotland 1972 75 He was a prolific author but a proper understanding of his life and work requires that we appreciate that his driving force was a quest to achieve inner purification that would lead him to oneness with Truth and Beauty For many years the climber author and teacher Robin Lloyd Jones above has been researching the life and work of Bill Murray and working steadily on this biography It is not only a triumph of fine writing and interest but a worthy accolade for this great man
