Dvorak, 2001 Shadow Lines Lorna Martens, 1996 Intellectual culture in early twentieth century Austria reached levels of originality and excellence that have rarely been equalled before or since Shadow Lines examines works by major novelists dramatists poets and intellectuals of that extraordinary era among them Sigmund Freud Arthur Schnitzler Robert Musil Hugo von Hofmannsthal Rainer Maria Rilke Ludwig Wittgenstein and Franz Kafka Lorna Martens considers how each of these authors contributed to a decisive transformation in Austrian culture involving a shift away from the dialectical syntheses of much nineteenth century German thought and culture to potent unresolvable dualisms of known and unknown orderly and chaotic features of human experience consciousness and the unconscious reason and the irrational language and the inexpressible In most of these writers according to Martens all that is knowable reasonable and orderly is grounded in that which is dark irrational chaotic What Martens calls the dark area emerges variously as the unconscious Freud the sexual drive Freud Schnitzler Musil the death instinct Freud Schnitzler the dangerous chaos below the surface of things Rilke the inaccessible totality von Hofmannsthal or the unsayable Mauthner von Hofmannsthal Musil Wittgenstein The essential yet enigmatic relation between the known and the unknown leads to much that is unsettling and strangely fascinating in these writers works A book that shrewdly relates the works of these authors to the intellectual and political turmoil of the times Shadow Lines is a new critical appraisal of Austrian literature and intellectual culture at the dawn of the century Modern Austrian Literature through the Lens of Adaptation Catriona Firth, 2012-01-01 For decades postwar Austrian literature has been measured against and moulded into a series of generic categories and grand cultural narratives from nostalgic restoration literature of the 1950s through the socially critical anti Heimat novel to recent literary reckonings with Austria's Nazi past Peering through the lens of film adaptation this book rattles the generic shackles imposed by literary history and provides an entirely new critical perspective on Austrian literature Its original methodological approach challenges the primacy of written sources in existing scholarship and uses the distortions generated by the shift in medium as a productive starting point for literary analysis Five case studies approach canonical texts in post war Austrian literature by Gerhard Fritsch Franz Innerhofer Gerhard Roth Elfriede Jelinek and Robert Schindel through close readings of their cinematic adaptations concentrating on key areas of narratological concern plot narrative perspective authorship and post modern ontologies Setting the texts within the historical cultural and political discourses that define the Alpine Republic this study investigates fundamental aspects of Austrian national identity such as its Habsburg and National Socialist legacies

Austrian Studies Vol. 29 Heide Kunzelmann, Lyn Marven, 2021-12-17 Austrian cultural production after 1945 has been enduringly haunted by unsavoury truths The fraught relationship of post war Austria with its own history and the collective denial of responsibility for National Socialist crimes informed a cultural discourse that was polarized between apologetic or extremely judgmental viewpoints Fliedl 1998 Towards the turn of the new millennium however research began to discern alternatives in the steadily growing number of phenomena and artefacts that accept the uncanny core of a dialectical integrative approach to Austria's difficult history W G Sebald 1991
