Alter Ego Twenty Confronting Views On The European Experience:

Alter Ego Guido Snel, 2004 Frank illuminating and poignant immigrant tales from twenty of Europe's writers, artists, politicians and scholars looking back at their roots, their journeys and their divided loyalties Europe Since 1980 Ivan T. Berend, 2010-04-08 Recovery and growth The Exile and Return of Writers from East-Central Europe John Neubauer, Borbála Zsuzsanna Török, 2009-10-28 This is the first comparative study of literature written by writers who fled from East Central Europe during the twentieth century. It includes not only interpretations of individual lives and literary works but also studies of the most important literary journals, publishers, radio programs and other aspects of exile literary cultures. The theoretical part of introduction distinguishes between exiles, migrants and expatriates while the historical part surveys the pre-twentieth century exile traditions and provides an overview of the exilic events between 1919 and 1995. One section is devoted to exile cultures in Paris, London and New York as well as in Moscow, Madrid, Toronto, Buenos Aires and other cities. The studies focus on the factional divisions within each national exile culture and on the relationship between the various exiled national cultures among each other. They also investigate the relation of each exile national culture to the culture of its host country. Individual essays are devoted to Witold Gombrowicz, Paul Goma, Milan Kundera, Monica Lovinescu, Milo Crnjanski, Herta and Paul Amirian and to the internal exile of Imre Kertész. Special attention is devoted to the new forms of exile that emerged during the ex-Yugoslav wars and to the problems of homecoming of exiled texts and writers The Contemporary Crisis of the European Union Ivan T. Berend, 2016-12-08 For the first time after more than half a century, some countries were almost forced to step out of the Union. History's most frightening migration crisis shocked Europe and led to the strengthening of several anti-integration parties in various countries. This pioneering book discusses the nine crisis elements that may lead to disintegration of the EU. Beginning with the Greek Debt disaster, this book delves into the cause of the recent European crisis and then onto the recent immigration influx and its consequences as well as the possibility of Britain's exit from the Union. A concluding chapter based on the facts of positive development during the crises years gives a cautiously optimistic forecast for the future International Encyclopedia of Civil Society Helmut K. Anheier, Stefan Toepler, 2009-11-24 Recently the topic of civil society has generated a wave of interest and a wealth of new information. Until now no publication has attempted to organize and consolidate this knowledge. The International Encyclopedia of Civil Society fills this gap, establishing a common set of understandings and terminology and an analytical starting point for future research. Global in scope and authoritative in content, the Encyclopedia offers succinct summaries of core concepts and theories, definitions of terms, biographical entries on important figures and organizational profiles. In addition, it serves as a reliable and up-to-date guide to additional sources of information. In sum, the Encyclopedia provides an overview of the contours of civil society, social capital, philanthropy and nonprofits across cultures and historical periods. For researchers in nonprofit and civil society studies, political science, economics, management and social enterprise, this is the most systematic appraisal of a rapidly growing field Reexamining the National-Philological Legacy Vladimir Biti, 2014-01-02 Has thinking working and teaching in terms of national literatures become obsolete in today's globalized world of hyphenated languages literatures and cultures Since the rise of modern European national philologies coincided with the emergence of modern European nation states does the dissolution of the latter in the European supranational unity imply the suspension of the former Or we must on the contrary consider the fact that today's Europe is not only postnational but in its re-nationalized East Central European part post-multinational as well i.e. emerging out of the breakdown of the postimperial state formations such as the Soviet Union Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia Reconsidering the Postmodern Thomas Vaessens, Yra Dijk, 2025-10-01 From Michel Houellebecq to Zadie Smith from Javier Marías to Arnon Grunberg this timely study takes its reader on a tour of European literature and the critical discussion around it Despite recent declarations of postmodernism's demise contemporary literature turns out to be entangled in a discussion with postmodernism It is time to critically evaluate this legacy Twelve specialists in the national literatures sketch the outlines of the debate Turning to literature itself they find it to be searching for new values after the relativizing force of postmodernism Forced Migration and Mental Health David Ingleby, 2004-12-07 Although forced migration is not new in human history it has become in our time one of the world's major problems In the last few decades armed conflict and political unrest have created vast numbers of asylum seekers refugees and displaced persons This has led in turn to increasing involvement of professional care workers and agencies both governmental and nongovernmental While there is no doubt on the part of helping parties that care is necessary there is considerable debate about the kind of care that is needed This book presents a critical review of mental health care provisions for people who have had to leave their homeland and explores the controversies surrounding this topic Providing fresh perspectives on an age-old problem this book covers humanitarian aid and reconstruction programs as well as service provision in host countries It is of interest to all those who provide health services create policy and initiate legislation for these populations American Book Publishing Record, 2006 European Identity Alex Drace-Francis, 2013-10-17 What is Europe A continent A political institution A cultural community Bringing together 101 key texts on the theme of European identity this reader provides essential insights into the idea of Europe from 450 BC to the twenty-first century The only collection of its kind in English it includes rare and newly translated material alongside classic texts from antiquity and the Enlightenment from figures as diverse as Aristotle Immanuel Kant Fyodor Dostoevsky Winston S Churchill and Julia Kristeva Space is also given to views of Europe from the outside including Asian African Latin American US and Caribbean authors With an introductory overview notes on each text and a guide to further reading Alex Drace-Francis brings issues of European identity into sharp relief for both teachers and students of European history geography culture and politics
