Alternative Theater In Poland:

Alternative Theatre in Poland Kathleen Cioffi, 2013-07-04 The complex nature of the relationship between theatre and politics is explored in this study of the Polish theatre scene It traces the development of the alternative theatre movement from its origins in the 1950s through to its decline in the late 1980s The Post-traumatic Theatre of Grotowski and Kantor Magda Romanska, 2014-10-01 Despite its international influence Polish theatre remains a mystery to many Westerners This volume attempts to fill in current gaps in English language scholarship by offering a historical and critical analysis of two of the most influential works of Polish theatre Jerzy Grotowski's Akropolis and Tadeusz Kantor's Dead Class By examining each director's representation of Auschwitz this study provides a new understanding of how translating national trauma through the prism of performance can alter and deflect the meaning and reception of theatrical works both inside and outside of their cultural and historical contexts

The Politics of Cultural Retreat Iryna Vushko, 2015-05-26 An illuminating history of state building nationalism and bureaucracy this book tells the story of how an international cohort of Austrian officials from Bohemia Hungary the Hapsburg Netherlands Italy and several German states administered Galicia from its annexation from Poland Lithuania in 1772 until the beginning of Polish autonomy in 1867 Historian Iryna Vushko examines the interactions between these German speaking bureaucrats and the local Galician population of Poles Ukrainians and Jews She reveals how Enlightenment inspired theories of modernity and supranational uniformity essentially backfired ultimately bringing about results that starkly contradicted the original intentions and ideals of the imperial governors

The Unwritten Grotowski Kris Salata, 2013-05-07 This book gives a new view on the legacy of Jerzy Grotowski 1933 1999 one of the central and yet misunderstood figures who shaped 20th century theatre focusing on his least known last phase of work on ancient songs and the craft of the performer Salata posits Grotowski's work as philosophical practice and more particularly as practical research in the phenomenology of being arguing that Grotowski's departure from theatrical productions and thus critical consideration resulted from his uncompromising pursuit of one central problem What does it mean to reveal oneself the very question that drove his stage directing work The book demonstrates that the answer led him through the path of gradually stripping the theatrical phenomenon down to its most elemental aspect which shows itself through the craft of the performer as a non representational event This particular quality released at the heights of the art of the performer is referred to as aliveness or true liveness in this study in order to shift scholarly focus onto something that has always fascinated great theatre practitioners including Stanislavski and Grotowski and of which academic scholarship has limited grasp Salata's theoretical analysis of aliveness reaches out to phenomenology and a broad range of post structural philosophy and critical theory through which Grotowski's project is portrayed as philosophical practice

theatre performance pedagogy and dramaturgy in response to the accelerating climate crisis This text is founded upon the principle that the theatre is the most anthropocentric of all the arts the means of its representation the human figure is identical with its conventional object the human narrative broadly considered In order to respond ethically to the climate crisis it must expand its range to include performing as in response to the nonhuman Conrad Alexandrowicz concisely explores theoretical approaches to the other than human found in the work of among others Jane Bennett Timothy Morton Rosi Braidotti and Cary Wolfe The implications of this move are far reaching and commence with displacing realism from its traditional position of dominance The practices of 20th century physical theatre visionaries such as Tadeusz Kantor Jacques Lecoq and Jerzy Grotowski are revisited and reconsidered for their applicability to forms of theatre that might serve the needs of establishing storytelling deriving from nonhuman phenomena This logically leads to the matter of responding appropriately to Indigenous ways of knowing and being The work finds guidance in Indigenous pre scientific ways of knowing and being such as those articulated by Robin Wall Kimmerer Braiding Sweetgrass 2013 In contemplating our kinship with vegetative life the work finds inspiration in the latest research into the ways tree communities communicate collaborate and share resources including the work of Suzanne Simard Finding the Mother Tree 2021 It next imagines transformations in how theatre is situated delivered and received and considers the ways in which the performer spectator binary may have to be reconfigured with particular reference to Grotowski's experiments in participatory theatre It poses an even more provocative question is such theorized performance work pointing in the direction of some re imagined version of ritual and ceremony that may find antecedents in pre Christian European belief and practice Finally it locates such eco theatre in the realm of healing climate anxiety depression and grief on the part of instructors students and artists will require us to consider and activate the healing power of the art form perhaps the core purpose of all the arts will shift to support the need to generate solace in times of fear anger and uncertainty This book is intended for instructors both scholars and performance pedagogues in theatre and performance studies as well as graduate and undergraduate students in these areas

Bakhtin and Theatre Dick Mccaw, 2015-07-30 What did Bakhtin think about the theatre That it was outdated That is stopped being a serious genre after Shakespeare Could a thinker to whose work ideas of theatricality visuality and embodied activity were so central really have nothing to say about theatrical practice Bakhtin and Theatre is the first book to explore the relation between Bakhtin's ideas and the theatre practice of his time In that time Stanislavsky co founded the Moscow Art Theatre in 1898 and continued to develop his ideas about theatre until his death in 1938 Stanislavsky's pupil Meyerhold embraced the Russian Revolution and created some stunningly revolutionary productions in the 1920s breaking with the realism of his former teacher Less than twenty years after Stanislavsky's death and Meyerhold's assassination a young student called Grotowski was studying in Moscow soon to break the mould with his Poor Theatre All three directors challenged the prevailing notion of theatre drawing on disagreeing with and challenging each other's ideas Bakhtin's early writings about action character and authorship provide a revealing framework for understanding this dialogue between these three masters of Twentieth Century theatre
