The Crisis ,1988-11 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens

Encyclopedia of African American Actresses in Film and Television Bob McCann, 2022-09-23 The first work of its kind this encyclopedia provides 360 brief biographies of African American film and television actresses from the silent era to 2009 It includes entries on well known and nearly forgotten actresses running the gamut from Academy Award and NAACP Image Award winners to B film and blaxploitation era stars Each entry has a complete filmography of the actress s film TV music video or short film credits The work also features more than 170 photographs some of them rare images from the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture

Jim Crow Wisdom Jonathan Scott Holloway, 2013-10-15 How do we balance the desire for tales of exceptional accomplishment with the need for painful doses of reality How hard do we work to remember our past or to forget it These are some of the questions that Jonathan Scott Holloway addresses in this exploration of race memory from the dawn of the modern civil rights era to the present Relying on social science documentary film dance popular literature museums memoir and the tourism trade Holloway explores the stories black Americans have told about their past and why these stories are vital to understanding a modern black identity In the process Holloway asks much larger questions about the value of history and facts when memories do violence to both Making discoveries about his own past while researching this book Holloway weaves first person and family memories into the traditional third person historian s perspective The result is a highly readable rich and deeply personal narrative that will be familiar to some shocking to others and thought provoking to everyone

America's Dark History H. H. Charles, 2021-07-12 Trump s Make America Great Again was a crass slogan intended to appeal to the most antiquated and base emotions resentments and bigotry that plague far too many Americans who still believe in white supremacy Using historical sources found on various research platforms Part I reviews the genocide persecution and bigotry practiced from Columbus to Trump on natives immigrants Africans and others There is no review of Trump as what he has done and is doing is well covered by present day media Acknowledging it is hardly an exhaustive compilation Part II lists the contributions made by those who suffered from their not being white Anglo immigrants to America The book is an attempt to have Americans who will listen and care recognize that America does not need to be made great again America needs to be made great
