In reality, such finds are more likely to be an Austin 7, Ford Popular or a Mini. This book is stuffed with these so-called barn finds. The author has tried to find out the background to the abandonment and the previous history of the as-found car when it was in regular use. Why was it put away and apparently forgotten? Many of the stories have appeared in his Lost and Found column in Classic and Sports Car magazine but a book gives a chance for the expanded story to be told. The cars featured date from 1900 through till the 1980s; most come from Great Britain and Europe but there are plenty from Australasia and USA. There are well over 200 different cars plus collections featured. Each story has at least one illustration to go with it. Some of the locations are bizarre: a Daimler buried under a rockery, a Porsche sunk in Lake Lucerne, a Rolls Royce on the roof of a high-rise building in Karachi or a Morris 8 special in a Gloucestershire pond. There is a chapter on collections of cars put together by seemingly eccentric owners who never got around to restoring them before their death. The author is not critical of any of these owners and is grateful for the number of cars they have saved from almost certain destruction.

Issigonis Gillian Bardsley, 2006 Alec Issigonis is the creator of some of the most celebrated car designs of the 20th century. Gillian Bardsley tells the personal story of this complex and truly gifted man. Good Grazing and Other Stories Kevin Scott, 2025-01-03 This collection presents ten short stories bound together by their connection to New Zealand, whether set within its shores or following the experiences of a New Zealander abroad. Spanning past, present and even the future, as in the story Good Grazing, these tales explore a range of moods and themes from the light-hearted to the thought-provoking. In the tradition of Shakespearean comedies, most stories here find their way to a satisfying end, though The Magpie and Walk a Mile venture into darker territories offering readers food for thought. Fans of The Cone Man will be delighted by the return of Norman Humbolt now grappling with the entanglements of modern politics and social media with unexpected results. Two of the stories, Good Grazing and As a New Zealander Might Regard Rome, touch on contemporary social issues related to Māori culture, portraying a hopeful future with a touch of humour. At its heart, this collection is a lighthearted journey into the world as a New Zealander might see it, full of humour, insight and occasional kernels of truth. Readers planning a trip to New Zealand may even find a glimpse of what awaits as the real locations described are easily discoverable.

The Marques of Coventry Brian Long, 1990 The Coventry Motor Industry David Thoms, Tom Donnelly, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000. Coventry is synonymous with both the creation and relative decline of the British motor car industry. This volume utilises the extensive range of primary sources on the subject to explore the relationship between the car industry in its local context and the wider economic, social and political environment. It analyses the emergence and early dominance of Coventry's motor manufacturers the rise of volume production in the 1930s and the instabilities and renaissance of the post war era Specific chapters deal with the industry's response to the demands created by the two world wars A number of themes run throughout the book including the structure of the industry and the relationship between its various sectors resource provision management and labour relations and the nature and response to market demand The book also provides fascinating insights into the history of some of the most evocative marques in the car industry including Daimler Jaguar Alvis Siddeley Standard and Rover Debrett's Bibliography of Business History Stephanie Zarach,1987-06-18 Motor Cycling and Motoring ,1970-09 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1998 Cumulative Book Index ,1998 A world list of books in the English language
