Am I Praying:

Praying with Every Heart Claudio Carvalhaes, 2021-08-26 This book develops an understanding of prayer from a liberation theological perspective Praying with offers a distinctive way of praying that can help orient our prayers around the where we pray and with whom we pray as the locus of the body's and heart's theological praxis The book helps create language to pray with people and in situations we are not used to praying with it insists on praying amidst racism poverty violence and suffering it calls us to pray at night and at the end of the world when we are overcome by fear hurt climate disaster or economic impoverishment it ventures into interfaith prayer settings and it claims a sense of self that is not discrete encapsulated in its own thinking or feeling rather it understands the notion of the self as entangled with the whole earth and each sentient and nonsentient being Thus to pray with in this book is to take the location of one's prayer more seriously and individually and collectively to gain an awareness of our grounding and positionality therefore creating a theological structure that assumes both the listening of our own heart and the voices of everything around us

Reunderstanding Prayer Kyle Lake, 2005-10 Lake offers a healthy approach to prayer by attacking prevailing misconceptions of God and destructive approaches to prayer like prayer as taskmaster then unpacks the essence of conversation

Footsteps of Jesus, The Anglican Prayer Life David F. Sokol, 2001 In our busy every day lives we must change our focus from the worldly mind to the silent contemplation of the spirit from the many to the One In prayer we seek to know the reality and presence of God It is not a cold calculating process but what the Greek Fathers called theoria a passionate contemplative insight involving communion and sharing Anglicanism in the Jewish tradition describes three levels of existence as one body mind and spirit We must discipline ourselves to assure the transition from the body and mind to the spirit To help inform our prayers and leave room for personal expression The Anglican Prayer Life emphasizes both the structured prayers in the Book of Common Prayer and personal prayers informed by Scripture Whether used as a companion in individual prayer with a prayer partner anamchara or in a formal prayer group this little book will help you enter a relationship with Jesus Christ and provide both solace in your personal needs and the courage to intercede on behalf of others The Christian's penny magazine, and friend of the people [ed. by J. most want a theological wrestling with Scripture Frederick Dale Bruner grapples with the text not only as a technical exegete although he does that very well but as a church theologian caring passionately about what these words tell us about God and ourselves His Matthew commentary is in the grand traditions of Augustine Calvin and Luther expansive and leisurely loving the text the people in it and the Christians who read it The same could well be said about the present John commentary which promises to be another invaluable resource for pastors teachers and laypeople alike Prayers of War Ed

Meditations on Prayer for Revival Ralph Lehman, 2017-08-05 This book is a call for men to prayer and to pray for revival in our churches Drawing from God's commands and lessons in both the Old and New Testament as well as our rich Church history through men such as Irenaeus Calvin and Edwards we can develop a prayer life that acknowledges God's desire to bring about His kingdom and pleads with Him to do so A kingdom of peace and healing of justice and life For a revived land is transformed by the love and respect people have for others the affirmation of life the care for the poor and needy and by justice for all not merely for a select few But the first heart that must be transformed is our own and this comes through prayer The 30 meditations of this book come complete with questions as well as a prayer incorporating the lesson May this book encourage us to pray that God will change hearts in our land including our own and that God will transform our society

Difficult Blessings Lori Heaton, 2018-12-21 Take Maddie home and make her comfortable for whatever time she has left Maddie's parents were hearing these words from the doctor after their four year old daughter was diagnosed with pulmonary arterial hypertension an incurable life threatening disease It was 1997 when there were very few options other than a lung transplant to treat Maddie's disease Because her parents were unwilling to accept this fate for their daughter they ended up at the Children's Hospital in Denver Colorado Maddie became one of the early pioneers of pulmonary arterial hypertension in the late 1990s when research was just beginning to develop therapies that were an alternative to lung transplantation treatments that provided hope This true and inspiring story chronicles Maddie's twenty year journey of courage and strength Maddie was an example of determination to all who knew her Even people who had never met Maddie were inspired by her story Maddie not only battled pulmonary arterial hypertension but at the age of six she was diagnosed with acute lymphocytic leukemia Maddie conquered cancer and lived on to receive two separate lung transplants Although this is a book about an amazing girl who rose above her adversity to live a full and happy life it is also a book about discovery This is a mother's story of how her daughter's pain and suffering became vehicles for uncovering her own inner strength and for
