Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on International Organizations and Movements,1972 Mining and Engineering Henry A. Gordon,1894 Degrees of Freedom Rebecca J. Scott,2009-06-30 As Louisiana and Cuba emerged from slavery in the late nineteenth century each faced the question of what rights former slaves could claim Degrees of Freedom compares and contrasts these two societies in which slavery was destroyed by war and citizenship was redefined through social and political upheaval Both Louisiana and Cuba were rich in sugar plantations that depended on an enslaved labor force After abolition on both sides of the Gulf of Mexico ordinary people cane cutters and cigar workers laundresses and labor organizers forged alliances to protect and expand the freedoms they had won But by the beginning of the twentieth century Louisiana and Cuba diverged sharply in the meanings attributed to race and color in public life and in the boundaries placed on citizenship Louisiana had taken the path of disenfranchisement and state mandated racial segregation Cuba had enacted universal manhood suffrage and had seen the emergence of a transracial conception of the nation What might explain these differences Moving through the cane fields small farms and cities of Louisiana and Cuba Rebecca Scott skillfully observes the people places legislation and leadership that shaped how these societies adjusted to the abolition of slavery The two distinctive worlds also come together as Cuban exiles take refuge in New Orleans in the 1880s and black soldiers from Louisiana garrison small towns in eastern Cuba during the 1899 U S military occupation Crafting her narrative from the words and deeds of the actors themselves Scott brings to life the historical drama of race and citizenship in postemancipation societies State Responsibility for Interferences with the Freedom of Navigation in Public International Law Philipp Wendel, 2007-09-19 Conventions covering the law of the sea contain provisions on compensation for wrongful interferences with navigation though they are rarely applied This book analyses all relevant compensation provisions and compares them to the general law of state responsibility The author discusses such issues as the responsibility of international organizations liability for lawful conduct and several and joint liability in public international law Rutgers Law Journal ,1984 Six Minutes To Freedom Kurt Muse, John Gilstrap, 2012-03-01 Dear President Bush My name is Kimberly Anne Muse I am writing this letter not for me but for my father Kurt Frederick Muse As you should know by now he is a political prisoner in Panama Born in the United States and raised in Panama Kurt Muse grew up with a deep love for his adopted country But the crushing regime of General Manuel Noriega in the late 1980s threatened his and a nation s freedom A nightmare of murder and unexplained disappearances compelled Kurt and a few trusted friends to begin a clandestine radio campaign urging the people of Panama to rise up for their basic human rights Six Minutes to Freedom is the remarkable tale of Kurt Muse s arrest and harrowing months of imprisonment his eyewitness accounts of torture and the plight of his family as they fled for their lives It is also the heart pounding account of the only American civilian ever rescued by the elite Delta Force Timelier than ever this is a thrilling and highly personal narrative about one man s courage and dedication to his beliefs A cliffhanger drama of survival against all odds Jeffery Deaver A dramatic portrayal of idealism courage integrity and fortitude John Douglas and Mark Olshaker A must read for anyone interested in how Delta Force operates John Weisman Harrowing entertaining inspiring and very very readable Col Lee A Van Arsdale U S Army Special Forces Ret A thrilling chronicle that puts a human face on unspeakable actions Continental magazine A Featured Alternate of the Military Book Club Eldorado National Forest (N.F.), Hwy 88 Corridor Future Recreation Use Determination ,1987 A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula Fernando Cabo Aseguinolaza, Anxo Abuín González, César Domínguez, 2010 A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula is the second comparative history of a new subseries with a regional focus published by the Coordinating Committee of the International Comparative Literature Association As its predecessor for East Central Europe this two volume history distances itself from traditional histories built around periods and movements and explores from a comparative viewpoint a space considered to be a powerful symbol of inter literary relations Both the geographical pertinence and its symbolic condition are obviously discussed when not even contested Written by an international team of researchers who are specialists in the field this history is the first attempt at applying a comparative approach to the plurilingual and multicultural literatures in the Iberian Peninsula The aim of comprehensiveness is abandoned in favor of a diverse and extensive array of key issues for a comparative agenda A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula undermines the primacy claimed for national and linguistic boundaries and provides a geo cultural account of literary inter systems which cannot otherwise be explained Talc and Soapstone: Their Mining, Milling, Products and Uses
