Artisans and Cooperatives Kimberly M. Grimes, B. Lynne Milgram, 2022-07-12 With new markets opening up for goods produced by artisans from all parts of the world craft commercialization and craft industries have become key components of local economies Now with the emergence of the Fair Trade movement and public opposition to sweatshop labor many people are demanding that artisans in third world countries not be exploited for their labor Bringing together case studies from the Americas and Asia this timely collection of articles addresses the interplay among subsistence activities craft production and the global market It contributes to current debates on economic inequality by offering practical examples of the political economic and cultural issues surrounding artisan production as an expressive vehicle of ethnic and gender identity Striking a balance between economic and ethnographic analyses the contributors observe what has worked and what hasn't in a range of craft cooperatives and show how some artisans have expanded their entrepreneurial role by marketing crafts in addition to producing them Among the topics discussed are the accommodation of craft traditions in the global market fair trade issues and the emerging role of the anthropologist as a proactive agent for artisan groups As the gap between rich and poor widens the fate of subsistence economies seems more and more uncertain The artisans in this book show that people can and do employ innovative opportunities to develop their talents and in the process strengthen their ethnic identities Contents Introduction Facing the Challenges of Artisan Production in the Global Market Kimberly M Grimes and B Lynne Milgram Democratizing International Production and Trade North American Alternative Trading Organizations Kimberly M Grimes Building on Local Strengths Nepalese Fair Trade Textiles Rachel MacHenry That They Be in the Middle Lord Women Weaving and Cultural Survival in Highland Chiapas Mexico Christine E Eber The International Craft Market A Double Edged Sword for Guatemalan Maya Women Martha Lynd Of Women Hope and Angels Fair Trade and Artisan Production in a Squatter Settlement in Guatemala City Brenda Rosenbaum Reorganizing Textile Production for the Global Market Women's Craft Cooperatives in Ifugao Upland Philippines B Lynne Milgram Textile Production in Rural Oaxaca Mexico and the Complexities of the Global Market for Handmade Crafts Jeffrey H Cohen Part Time for Pin Money The Legacy of Navajo Women's Craft Production Kathy M Closkey The Hard Sell Anthropologists as Brokers of Crafts in the Global Marketplace Andrew Causey Postscript To Market To Market June Nash

Artisan and Handicraft Entrepreneurs Léo-Paul Dana, Veland Ramadani, Ramo Palalic, Aidin Salamzadeh, 2022-01-27 In handicrafts and artisanal products industry has witnessed both a technological shift and a renewed interest among customers especially after the challenges and limitations of mass production became evident under the COVID 19 pandemic This book portrays the worldwide development of this trend the nature of entrepreneurship in these industries and the unique challenges and opportunities that entrepreneurs face The book shows how these businesses are gaining a resurgence due to customers preferring ethical regional and climate friendly options to fulfill their needs The chapters focus on artisan entrepreneurs contribution to society by not only creating businesses but also in terms of tourism development The book reiterates that artisan entrepreneurs enable crucial cultural connections with tradition due to their affinity to a region city village or community Small business and entrepreneurship researchers as well as policymakers in the cultural sector would benefit from this book Fair Trade and Social Justice Mark Moberg, Sarah Lyon, 2010-06-01 By 2008 total Fair Trade purchases in the developed world reached nearly 3 billion a five fold increase in four years Consumers pay a fair price for Fair Trade items which are meant to generate greater earnings for family farmers cover the costs of production and support socially just and environmentally sound practices Yet constrained by existing markets and the entities that dominate them Fair Trade often delivers material improvements for producers that are much more modest than the profound social transformations the movement claims to support There has been scant real world assessment of Fair Trade s effectiveness Drawing upon fine grained anthropological studies of a variety of regions and commodity systems including Darjeeling tea coffee crafts and cut flowers the chapters in Fair Trade and Social Justice represent the first works to use ethnographic case studies to assess whether the Fair Trade Movement is actually achieving its goals Contributors Julia Smith Mark Moberg Catherine Ziegler Sarah Besky Sarah M Lyon Catherine S Dolan Patrick C Wilson Faidra Papavasiliou Molly Doane Kathy M Closkey Jane Henrici Fair Trade and How It Works Jacqueline DeCarlo, 2011-01-15 This book is an introduction to contemporary issues about fair trade and how trade influences our lives discussing exploitative middle men values based choices fair trade principles and practices the complex problems of poverty and changes in international trade The Force of Fashion in Politics and Society Beverly Lemire, 2016-12-05 Throughout history fashion has emerged as one of the most powerful driving forces determining the political economic and social ramifications of the production distribution and circulation of goods Indeed fashion especially in relation to clothing and textiles shapes the relationship between self and society in unique ways In this light the collected papers in this volume position fashion as the lens the critical mediating force through which to analyse and understand cultural economic and political shifts within a broad spectrum of societies in Europe Asia Africa and America from the seventeenth to twenty first centuries Topics include a seventeenth century failing fashion region the material politics of marketing American abolitionist fashions the construction of a fashionable ethos for French perfumes and the use and meanings of clothing and textiles in the politics of Nigerian silk robes and early modern domestic d cor in Europe This volume represents an important shift in scholarship towards a more in depth understanding of the role of fashion in early modern and modern times and will appeal to international readers interested in material culture fashion consumer studies and cultural anthropology among other areas Handbook of Research on Fair Trade Laura T. Raynolds, Elizabeth A. Bennett, 2015-02-27 Fair trade critiques the historical inequalities inherent in international trade and seeks to promote social justice by creating alternative networks linking marginalized producers typically in the global South with progressive consumers typically in the Ethical Sourcing in the Global Food System Stephanie Barrientos, 2012-04-27 Ethical sourcing both through fair trade and ethical trade is increasingly entering the mainstream of food retailing Large supermarkets have come under pressure to improve the returns to small producers and conditions of employment within their supply chains But how effective is ethical sourcing Can it genuinely address the problems facing workers and producers in the global food system Is it a new form of northern protectionism or can southern initiatives be developed to create a more sustainable approach to ethical sourcing How can the rights and participation of workers and small producers be enhanced given the power and dominance of large supermarkets within the global food chain What role can civil society and multistakeholder initiatives play in ensuring the effectiveness of ethical sourcing This book brings together a range of academics and practitioners working on issues of ethical sourcing in the global food system It critically explores the opportunities and challenges in the ethical sourcing of food by combining analysis and case studies that examine a range of approaches It explores whether ethical sourcing is a cosmetic northern initiative or can genuinely help to improve the conditions of small producers and workers in the current global food system

The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory Lisa Disch, Mary Hawkesworth, 2018-02-01 The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory provides a rich overview of the analytical frameworks and theoretical concepts that feminist theorists have developed to analyze the known world Featuring leading feminist theorists from diverse regions of the globe this collection delves into forty nine subject areas demonstrating the complexity of feminist challenges to established knowledge while also engaging areas of contestation within feminist theory Demonstrating the interdisciplinary nature of feminist theory the chapters offer innovative analyses of topics central to social and political science cultural studies and humanities discourses associated with medicine and science and issues in contemporary critical theory that have been transformed through feminist theorization The handbook identifies limitations of key epistemic assumptions that inform traditional scholarship and shows how theorizing from women s and men s lives has profound effects on the conceptualization of central categories whether the field of analysis is aesthetics biology cultural studies development economics film studies health history literature politics religion science studies sexualities violence or war

The Amazon Heist Kimberly M. Grimes, 2015-12-14 Journey to the fascinating world of the Amazon rainforest as seen through the eyes of the native peoples artisans students and tourists Anacondas caimans monkeys shamans yucca harvests river cruises legends and much more come to life in this amusing yet suspenseful book Elizabeth Long an Anthropology professor and her group of students travel to the Amazon jungle for a study abroad trip In this bold adventure they encounter life as never before imagined living with a tribe on the world s mightiest river The voyage takes a sudden turn when the discovery of diamonds in the area leads to a robbery It is an event that will cause the students lives to converge with two elderly British tourists and two local men who work at the diamond mine weaving them together in a race to recover the diamonds before time runs out The book unearths the spirit of the Amazon peoples and recreates the beauty of the rainforest the sights smells tastes sounds and dangers of this unique place A riveting chronicle Most entertaining is the way in which humorous tales changing attitudes and the straddling of two very different worlds are revealed by following the visitors and natives days      Mayas in the Marketplace Walter E. Little, 2010-07-05 2005 Best Book Award New England Council of Latin American Studies Selling handicrafts to tourists has brought the Maya peoples of Guatemala into the world market Vendors from rural communities now offer their wares to more than 500 000 international tourists annually in the marketplaces of larger cities such as Antigua Guatemala City Panajachel and Chichicastenango Like businesspeople anywhere Maya artisans analyze the desires and needs of their customers and shape their products to meet the demands of the market But how has adapting to the global marketplace reciprocally shaped the identity and cultural practices of the Maya peoples Drawing on over a decade of fieldwork Walter Little presents the first ethnographic study of Maya handicraft vendors in the international marketplace Focusing on Kaqchikel Mayas who commute to Antigua to sell their goods he explores three significant issues how the tourist marketplace conflates global and local distinctions how the marketplace becomes a border zone where national and international developed and underdeveloped and indigenous and non indigenous come together how marketing to tourists changes social roles gender relationships and ethnic identity in the vendors home communities Little s wide ranging research challenges our current understanding of tourism s negative impact on indigenous communities He demonstrates that the Maya are maintaining a specific community based sense of Maya identity even as they commodify their culture for tourist consumption in the world market      Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories Regna Darnell, Frederic W. Gleach, 2019-11-01 Histories of Anthropology Annual presents diverse perspectives on the discipline s history within a global context with a goal of increasing awareness and use of historical approaches in teaching learning and conducting anthropology The series includes critical comparative analytical and narrative studies involving all aspects and subfields of anthropology Volume 13 Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories explores the interplay of identities and scholarship through the history of anthropology with a special section examining fieldwork predecessors and indigenous communities in Native North America Individual contributions explore the complexity of women s history indigenous history national traditions and oral histories to juxtapose what we understand of the past with its present continuities These contributions include Sharon Lindenburger s examination of Franz Boas and his navigation with Jewish identity Kathy M Closkey s documentation of Navajo weavers and their struggles with cultural identities and economic resources and demands and Mindy Morgan s use of the text of Ruth Underhill s O odham study to capture the voices of three generations of women ethnographers Because this work bridges anthropology and history a richer and more varied view of the past emerges through the meticulous narratives of anthropologists and their unique fieldwork ultimately providing competing points of access to social dynamics This volume examines events at both macro and micro levels documenting the impact large scale historical events have had on particular individuals and challenging the uniqueness of a single interpretation of the same facts      Swept Under the Rug Kathy M'Closkey, 2002 Debunks the romanticist stereotyping of Navajo weavers and Reservation traders and situates weavers within the economic history of the southwest      Artisans and Fair Trade Mary A. Littrell, Marsha A. Dickson, 2012-03 Addresses the cultural conditions under which artisan work provides a feasible income alternative to other employment options Offers a methodology for assessing the socio economic impacts of fair trade artisan work After agriculture and tourism artisan work provides the next most significant source of income in many developing countries Yet because of its image as a soft or frivolous industry some politicians and development professionals question whether the handcraft sector is worthy of investment An opposing view holds that the creation of sustainable employment opportunities for poor people and a positive alternative to mass production outweighs the costs Until now the debate has been hampered by a lack of industry data The apparel group MarketPlace Handwork of India serves as the perfect case study to provide this missing information Like many fair trade companies it has dual goals to generate income in the global marketplace and foster the empowerment of the low income workers who run and staff the business In conducting interviews with MarketPlace s artisans managers and founders Littrell and Dickson produced an in depth socio economic audit of the group over time The result Artisans and Fair Trade provides a quantitatively and qualitatively illuminating study of fair trade impacts and a methodology that is sure to inform current assessment practices in social entrepreneurship and business social responsibility      Weaving Transnational Solidarity Katherine O'Donnell, 2010-07-26 Weaving Transnational Solidarity from the Catskills to Chiapas and Beyond analyzes the grassroots economic justice work 1998 2009 of three groups two Mexican organizations Jolom Mayaetik Mayan women s weaving cooperative and K inal Antzetik NGO in the highlands of Chiapas and an informal international solidarity network The book provides scholar activist ethnographic case study data which contributes to understanding collective organization indigenous rights and the solidarity process within transnational social movements and critically reflects on Fair Trade health and education solidarity efforts as well as the class ethnic and gender dimensions of neoliberal globalization Central themes include solidarity human rights and social justice Indigenous women s voices are featured in the book as powerful in transnational justice organizing in the global south and north Critical Global Studies vol 2      Women in Mexican Folk Art Eli Bartra, 2013-12-15 The aim of this book is to engender Mexican folk art and locate women at its centre by studying the processes of creation distribution and consumption as well as examining iconographic aspects and elements of class and ethnicity from the perspective of gender The author will demonstrate that the topic provides unique insights into Mexican culture and has enormous relevance within and without the country given the fact that much folk art is made for the United States and Europe either in terms of the tourists who buy it on coming to Mexico or that which is exported      The Other Word Rosalva Aída Hernández Castillo, 2001 On December 22nd 1997 32 women and 13 men in the los Naranjos encampment for displaced people in the community of Acteal Chiapas Mexico were assassinated by heavily armed men The voices and feelings of women that were lost among the numbers cronologies and political analyses of this mass of information are rescued in this book      Anthropologica , 2001      Negotiating Feminisms Eilidh AB Hall, 2021-03-04 Negotiating

Feminisms examines intergenerational feminism in Chicana family life It analyses literary representations of the ways that Chicanas negotiate feminisms in the family across generations through the maintenance contestation and adaptation of traditional gender roles Using an original theoretical lens of negotiation to read the works of Ana Castillo and Sandra Cisneros this book unpacks intergenerational resistance to patriarchal oppression This book shows how the works of Cisneros and Castillo articulate a politics of negotiation that critiques the gendered ideologies and roles of the family In doing so the book's discussion not only engages with literary representations but also connects these representations to the contextual experience of Chicana family life This book calls for a rethinking of women characters beyond limited and limiting familial roles and uses the framework of feminist negotiation as a means to explore the empowering possibilities of intergenerational female relationships

Cross-border Mobility Wendy Mee, 2025-10-01 Cross border Mobility Women Work and Malay Identity in Indonesia offers a fresh perspective on the association between mobility and the ethnocultural category Malay In so doing it raises new research questions that are relevant to the study of Indonesian women's socioeconomic mobility more generally Based on fieldwork in Sambas a region of Indonesia bordering Malaysia this study documents the ethnocultural consequences of the highly mobile working lives of Sambas Malay women Emphasising the significance of territorial borders in women's working lives this study highlights how women's border location not only facilitates cross border pathways of international labour migration and trade but also generates feelings of peripherality that inform women's imaginative construction of other nonterritorial borders that need to be crossed Shaped by social class gender and the economic and cultural possibilities of political decentralization the study identifies three borderscapes that orient women's work related mobility and create diverse outcomes for the ethnocultural category Sambas Malay This book offers a fresh perspective on the association between mobility and the ethnocultural category Malay This study documents the broader cultural consequences of Indonesian Malay women's work related mobility on the practice and understanding of what it means to be Malay In so doing the book Provides a rare investigation into the ethnocultural effects of Indonesian women's mobility i.e. in terms of the way women's mobility reconfigures ethnic identifications Critically addresses the historically informed assumption that Malay men through their mobility are the carriers of Malayness Islamic reform and modernity Deepens our appreciation of the significance of gendered forms of mobility across territorial and non territorial borders to the construction of identity Provides a borderlands perspective on women's independent labour migration in a part of West Kalimantan where studies of women's labour migration remain scarce

Cultural Commodities in Japanese Rural Revitalization Anthony Rausch, 2010-01-11 The fate of local places increasingly rests on their capability to capitalize on their highly specific local cultural resources Cultural Commodities in Japanese Rural Revitalization Tsugaru Nuri Lacquerware and Tsugaru Shamisen examines the dynamics of this reality for the Tsugaru District of the Aomori Prefecture Japan and its two dominant cultural commodities a lacquerware and a musical performance Organized on the basis of policy production and consumption the research points to historical trajectory and a combinative conceptual operational space as the means of identifying cultural and economic potential for a cultural commodity This analytical approach provides both for assessing the local consciousness and identifying informed policy and industry management for the commodity making it possible to realize its potential in local revitalization
