Artistic Theory in Italy, 1450-1600 Anthony Blunt, 1940 Leonardo da Vinci Alberti Michelangelo Vasari Social position of the artist Religious art Minor writers of the High Renaissance Later mannerists Artistic Theory in Italy Anthony Frederick Blunt, 1956 Artistic Theory in Italy: 1450-1600 Anthony Blunt, 1975 Renaissance Culture in Context Jean R. Brink, 2017-07-05 Scholarly traditions of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries have led us to assume that national traditions were defining in a way that they may not have been during the Renaissance when Latin remained an international language This collection interrogates the historical importance of national traditions many of which depend upon geographical boundaries that took their shape only after the emergence of the nation state in the modern period In a seminal essay on Scottish literature R D S Jack delineates the problems of defining a national literature Zirka Zaremba Filipczak traces connections between Italy and The Netherlands while Jozef Ijsewijn examines the use of Italian models by neo Latin authors and Francis M Higman offers a preliminary study of European translations of Reformation authors Paul W Knoll reminds us that the division between western and eastern Europe dates from this century by demonstrating the impact of Italian humanism on Polish universities Divisions among disciplines are also challenged by the contributors to this volume Arthur F Kinney brilliantly shows that literature is enriched by an understanding of historical and political texts Jacqueline L Glomski questions the division between historiography and art while Howard Mayer Brown indicates the importance of literary concepts such as rhetoric and genre for the Italian madrigal and Norman K Farmer Jr of the theological texts for interpreting poetry Minna Skafte Jensen traces the impact of a major reformer on some Danish poets Conceptual forms of internationality are explored in essays by Bart Westerweel on time Bruce P Lenman on geography and Karen Skovgaard Petersena and Karin Tilmans on historiography Taken together the essays in this volume offer a compelling and persuasive justification for an interdisciplinary and international approach to the study of Renaissance culture Siting Federico Barocci and the Renaissance Aesthetic Peter Gillgren, 2017-07-05 Focusing on what he calls the performative gaze the author explores the artistic world of the Urbino painter Federico Barocci 1535 1612 in the context of Renaissance culture Through analysis of Barocci s works Gillgren also sheds new light on Renaissance aesthetic communication generally The first part of the book discusses the poetics of Early Modern painting based on contemporary theories of Reception Aesthetics hermeneutics and phenomenology but grounded in Renaissance culture itself through numerous examples from Early Modern painting The author discusses works by such artists as Botticelli Raphael Titian Vel uez and Poussin from the point of view of their spectator status The second part deals specifically with the art of Federico Barocci showing in detail how his works relate to aspects of the gaze and to their intended spectators Gillgren s method is unusual in that he takes care to set the images within their original physical contexts lighting space framing materials angle of viewer approach as much as possible through careful analysis of early descriptions of now destroyed or modified chapels The third section of the volume contains a brief catalogue of Barocci s paintings presented in a chronological order with a full bibliography and with details about the painting s original locations Artistic Theory in Italy, 1450-1600 Sir Anthony Blunt,2013 The Classical Tradition Anthony Grafton,Glenn W. and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Sensuous Worship Jeffrey Chipps Smith,2002 It provides the first comprehensive treatment of the Jesuits poorly understood but remarkable revitalization of German religious art and culture an accomplishment that would guide the direction of both religious life and subsequent German Baroque art BOOK JACKET An Architectural Progress in the Renaissance and Baroque Henry A. History of Art Horst Woldemar Janson,Anthony F. Janson,2004 For forty years this widely acclaimed classic has remained unsurpassed as an introduction to art in the Western world boasting the matchless credibility of the Janson name This newest update features a more contemporary more colorful design and vast array of extraordinarily produced illustrations that have become the Janson hallmark A narrative voice makes this book a truly enjoyable read and carefully reviewed and revised updates to this edition offer the utmost clarity in contributions based on recent scholarship Extensive captions for the book s incredible art program offer profound insight through the eyes of twentieth century art historians speaking about specific pieces of art featured throughout Significantly changed in this edition is the chapter on The Late Renaissance in which Janson offers a new perspective on the subject tracing in detail the religious art tied to the Catholic Reform movement whose early history is little known to many readers of art history Janson has also rearranged early Renaissance art according to genres instead of time sequence and he has followed the reinterpretation of Etruscan art begun in recent years by German and English art historians With a truly humanist approach this book gives written and visual meaning to the captivating story of what artists have tried to express and why for more than 30 000 years The Grove Encyclopedia of Materials and Techniques in Art Gerald W. R. Ward,2008 The Grove Encyclopedia of Materials and Techniques deals with all aspects of materials techniques conservation and restoration in both traditional and nontraditional media including ceramics sculpture metalwork painting works on paper textiles video digital art and more Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in The Dictionary of Art and adding new entries this work is a comprehensive reference resource for artists art dealers collectors curators conservators students researchers and scholars Similar in design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this one volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of materials and techniques in various geographical locations The Encyclopedia provides unparalleled scope and depth and it offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as over 150 illustrations and color plates The Grove Encyclopedia of Materials and Techniques offers scholarly information on materials and techniques in art for anyone who studies creates collects or deals in works of art The entries are written to be accessible to a wide range of readers and the work is designed as a reliable and convenient resource covering this essential area in the visual arts The Periodical ,1941 This is Not Just a Painting Bernard Lahire,2019-04-15 In 2008 the Musée des Beaux Arts de Lyon acquired a painting called The Flight into Egypt which was attributed to the French artist Nicolas Poussin Thought to have been painted in 1657 the painting had gone missing for more than three centuries Several versions were rediscovered in the 1980s and one was passed from hand to hand from a family who had no idea of its value to gallery owners and eventually to the museum A painting that had been sold as a decorative object in 1986 for around 12 000 euros was acquired two decades later by the Mus e des Beaux Arts de Lyon for 17 million euros What does this remarkable story tell us about the nature of art and the way that it is valued How is it that what seemed to be just an ordinary canvas could be transformed into a masterpiece that a decorative object could become a national treasure This is a story permeated by social magic the social alchemy that transforms lead into gold the ordinary into the extraordinary the profane into the sacred Focusing on this extraordinary case Bernard Lahire lays bare the beliefs and social processes that underpin the creation of a masterpiece Like a detective piecing together the clues in an unsolved mystery he carefully reconstructs the steps that led from the same material object being treated as a copy of insignificant value to being endowed with the status of a highly prized painting commanding a record breaking price He thereby shows that a painting is never just a painting and is always more than a piece of stretched canvass to which brush strokes of paint have been applied this object and the value we attach to it is also the product of a complex array of social processes with its distinctive institutions and experts that lies behind it And through the history of this painting Lahire uncovers some of the fundamental structures of our social world For the social magic that can transform a painting from a simple copy into a masterpiece is similar to the social magic that is present throughout our societies in economics and politics as much as art and religion a magic that results from the spell cast by power on those who tacitly recognize its authority By following the trail of a single work of art Lahire interrogates the foundations on which our perceptions of value and our belief in institutions rest and exposes the forms of domination which lie hidden behind our admiration of works of art
