The Moths and Other Stories Helena Marõa Viramontes, 1995-01-01 The adolescent protagonist of the title story like other girls in this pioneering collection rebels against her father refusing to go to Mass Instead dressed in her black Easter shoes and carrying her missal and veil she goes to her abuelita's house Her grandmother has always accepted her for who she is and has provided a safe refuge from the anger and violence at home The eight haunting stories included in this collection explore the social economic and cultural impositions that shape women s lives Girls on the threshold of puberty rebel against their fathers struggle to understand their sexuality and in two stories deal with the ramifications of pregnancy Other women struggle against the limitations of marriage and the Catholic religion which seek to keep them subservient to the men in their lives Prejudice and the social and economic status of Chicanos often form the backdrop as women fight with varying degrees of success to break free from oppression Shedding light on the complex lives and experiences of Mexican American girls and women this bilingual edition containing the first ever Spanish translation of Viramontes debut collection The Moths and Other Stories will make this landmark work available to a wider audience A Brief Excursion and Other

Stories Antun Soljan,1999 The novel A Brief Excursion anchors this collection of fiction by one of the most significant postwar Croatian writers This novel and six stories including many from Soljan s first book Traitors reveal a sensibility both comic and poignant devoted to questions of identity and solidarity of how the one and the many conflict and intermingle issues that were at the center of both political and literary life for Soljan Whether fixing up a summerhouse on the Istrian coast or confronting prejudice and the past in a tourist town Soljan s characters are stirred to action by an undefined longing only to find the stark landscape of self knowledge and loss The Lost World and Other Stories Arthur Conan

Doyle,1995 The protagonist of these stories is the maddening irascible and fascinating Professor George Edward Challenger In these collected tales he faces adventures such as that high above the Amazon rain forest in The Lost World and the challenges ofThe Land of Mist Kismetwali and Other Stories Reetika Khanna Nijhawan ,2015-06-01 Details for Kismetwali and Other Stories Set against the backdrop of modern day India Kismetwali and Other Stories places the reader amidst circumstances that transcend place purse and prestige This octet of novellas offers a rare glimpse into the parallel lives of the privileged and penniless converging on those astonishing moments when free will intercepts fate and the rigid divide between social classes is rendered insignificant Each narrative showcases walas and walis of the working class the common yet essential purveyors of goods and providers of service as empowered individuals who take centre stage The shavewala a humble barber becomes an intimate collaborator in a love story that spans the seven seas the malishwali a long serving masseuse conceals her mistress s shocking secret while offering a gift of revelation to another the kismetwali a clairvoyant of unremarkable pedigree solicits cosmic benefaction for her affluent clients These socially eclipsed characters are the true protagonists in every story About Reetika Khanna Nijhawan Reetika Khanna Nijhawan was born and raised in a small town in northern India While growing up she travelled the world extensively with her father an officer in the merchant navy After receiving her degree in Psychology from Delhi University she worked as a flight attendant with Lufthansa German Airlines before settling down to write for ELLE and ELLE Decor in Mumbai She later moved to Atlanta where her work has been published in the Atlanta Journal Constitution and Khabar magazine Kismetwali and Other Stories is her first work of fiction She penned these eight novellas over time while waiting in the carpool line outside her daughter s school
