Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation Apec The First Decade:

Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Werner Draguhn, Eva Manske, Jürgen Rüland, 2013-04-03 The Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC was founded in 1989 Since then the forum has developed into a major player in tri partite relations between North America East Asia and Europe The Seattle and Bogor Summits were landmark events suggesting to many observers a gravitational shift in the world economy and world politics Yet the Asian financial crisis had a sobering effect on high flying expectations as APEC contributed little to crisis management In the light of such contradictory performance distinguished scholars here examine APEC s achievements and failures its role and functions in international relations its linkages with regional organisations and the interplay between the forum and national interests of major factors in the region

Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation Ippei Yamazawa, 2003-08-01 Ippei Yamazawa is one of the fathers to the study of Asia Pacific regional cooperation in Japan and has contributed hugely to the development and work of APEC over many years APEC is a crucial trans regional arrangement that draws the United States into constructive economic engagement with East Asia This book makes it clear why APEC remains such a crucial element of regional economic architecture and defines an agenda going forward to which regional leaders should aspire Here is a first rate exposition of the priorities for regional cooperation in Asia and the Pacific Peter Drysdale Professor Emeritus Australian National University

Encyclopedia Of The Global Economy A Guide For Students And Researchers David E. O Connor, 2006

China's Multilateral Co-operation in Asia and the Pacific Chien-peng Chung, 2010-06-24 The leaders and bureaucrats of China have actively attended initiated promoted or made skilful use of regional multilateral political economic and security institutions to accelerate regional cooperation and integration with neighboring states convince Asian states that China s rise will not threaten the regional order and their national interests and exploit its role and diplomacy in the Asia Pacific as a launch pad for greater influence in world affairs This book examines why and to what extent China wishes to promote accelerate delay or overcome constraints to the institutionalization of these regional organizations It explores the meaning scope and repercussion in the drive that a rising China has for institutionalizing multilateral cooperative processes in the Asia Pacific region the extent to which its actions are motivated by concerns of politics economics or security and the obstacles it faces for so doing These arrangements have varying effect on the diplomatic postures economic development and strategic orientation of countries in Asia and the Western Pacific and hence the stability and prosperity of the entire region China s Multilateral Co operation in Asia and the Pacific will be of interest to those studying the politics and international relations of China and the Asia Pacific region

The Evolution of Regionalism in Asia Heribert Dieter, 2007-12-10 By combining the analysis of the three dimensions of integration this book enables readers to gain a broad understanding of the theory and practice of integration processes in Asia

Assessing APEC's Progress Richard E. Feinberg, Ye Zhao, 2001 In its first ten years what has the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC accomplished Has the 21 member forum including the United States Japan China Mexico and most of Southeast Asia fulfilled its promise To answer these vital questions leading scholars at APEC Study Centres from thirteen APEC member economies undertook detailed studies of such central issues as trade in services investment policy human resource development food and agriculture energy and financial stability The findings are summarized in a policy report Learning From Experience that has received wide praise and close scrutiny from senior government officials The report concludes that APEC has successfully established itself as a world class forum that has contributed to the affirmation of a coherent set of positive ideas However the report notes shortcomings in each of the critical areas of trade and investment liberalization economic and technical cooperation and institutional structure and offers remedial policy recommendations to improve APEC's future performance This volume contains both the policy report and the issue studies It is the product of the APEC International Assessment Network APIAN a collaborative independent project among participating APEC Study Centres to track and assess the design and execution of key APEC initiatives

Regionalism in East Asia Fu-kuo Liu, Philippe Regnier, 2013-10-18 Regional cooperation and integration have emerged as key issues for East Asia following the financial crisis This book explores these issues and examines the degree to which a new paradigm is emerging It reviews the evolution of the concepts and practices of regionalism in East Asia and considers the factors which are shaping new patterns of regional co operation and integration It includes discussions of historical developments economic co operation socio political factors and defence and security It considers the role of those states including China and Japan which have distinctive approaches to international relations and assesses the role of regional international bodies such as ASEAN

Reshaping the Asia Pacific Economic Order Christopher Findlay, Hadi Soesastro, 2004-08-02 This discussion directs attention to the fact that economic cooperation and security are complementary

Cross Regional Trade Agreements Saori N. Katada, Mireya Solis, 2008-06-24 An unacknowledged key feature of East Asian FTA diplomacy is the region's active cross regional preferential trading relations In sharp contrast to the Americas and Europe where cross regional initiatives gained strength after the consolidation of regional trade integration East Asian governments negotiate trade deals with partners outside of their region at an early stage in their FTA policies The book asks three main questions Are there regional factors in East Asia encouraging countries to explore cross regionalism early on What are the most important criteria behind the cross regional partner selection How do cross regional FTSs CRTAs influence their intra regional trade initiatives Through detailed country case studies from China Japan South Korea Singapore Thailand and Malaysia we show the ways in which these governments seek to leverage their CRTAs in the pursuit of intra regional trade integration objectives a process that yields a much more permeated regionalism

Systemic Changes in the German and Japanese Economies Werner Pascha, 2004-08-05 Where will systemic change lead This book offers fresh insights by collecting Japanese and German contributions to this scholarly discussion both from theoretical and empirical viewpoints

The Future of Asian Trade and Growth Linda Yueh, 2009-12-16 This book presents a comprehensive analysis of current trends of trade and economic growth in Asia assessing how they are likely to develop in the future It examines the evolving patterns of Asian economic development with the emergence of China including since China's accession to the World Trade Organisation WTO in 2001 It is written by experts specialising in economic growth and regional and global trade investment issues alongside country specialists who have examined the development path of Asian economies It discusses the significance of a export oriented growth strategy on the Asian region and the likely patterns of intra regional specialisation given China's rise The book examines the degree to which the remarkable growth of China is likely to affect other Asian countries in terms of global market share and growth prospects The book explores how the rise of intra industry trade is affecting patterns of specialisation in the region and appraises the role of multinational corporations and foreign direct investment Informed by the latest empirical economic thinking this book is a rigorous examination of the influence of an emerging economic superpower and the future for economic growth in Asia Readers interested in the implications of the rise of China the effect on the economic development path of the most successful developing nations of our time and the lessons to be heeded from China's integration with the global economy will find this a thorough yet accessible account of the influence of an emerging economic superpower

APEC and the Construction of Pacific Rim Regionalism John Ravenhill, 2001 The Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC grouping is the first comprehensive economic arrangement to link countries from around the Pacific Rim Since its establishment in 1989 APEC has graduated from a ministerial level gathering of nine countries to an institution that stages annual summits has a permanent secretariat and whose twenty one members have committed themselves to establishing free trade in the region A decade after its foundation however members have been increasingly frustrated with the grouping's progress In this timely book John Ravenhill examines the reasons for APEC's establishment its evolution and the causes of its failures His conclusions address central questions in international relations about international collaboration and regionalism The book will interest all those concerned with broader questions about regional economic and political cooperation

Apec and the Rise of China Lok-sang Ho, John Wong, 2011 Annotation Intra regional trade has been rising rapidly especially after China's accession to the WTO in 2001 China's economy is expanding at a great rate and will soon surpass Japan to become the world's second largest economy This book is based on papers presented by scholars at a conference on APEC at 20 and the Rise of China

Trade Regionalism in the Asia-Pacific Sanchita Basu

Das,2017-03-09 Asia has witnessed a proliferation of free trade agreements FTAs since the turn of the millennium The first regional agreement the ASEAN FTA was transformed into the ASEAN Economic Community at the end of 2015 In the meantime ASEAN forged five ASEAN 1 FTAs and began to negotiate a sixteen member Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership RCEP Agreement In parallel the U S led Trans Pacific Partnership TPP supporting U S foreign policy of a Pivot to Asia was broadly agreed in October 2015 The RCEP and the TPP are accompanied by other mega regional integration processes developing elsewhere in the world including the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership for the European Union and the United States and the Pacific Alliance among four Latin American member states Meanwhile APEC is also striving to meet its Bogor Goal targets and create a Free Trade Area of the Asia Pacific Each of these mega regionals aims to achieve greater trade and investment liberalization and facilitation and more harmonized trade and investment rules so that all member economies can participate in the global value chain of production Instead of undermining these regional exercises can be building blocks for a more liberal global trading system supported by the World Trade Organization This book ruminates on these regional agreements their economic and strategic rationales and challenges during negotiations and afterwards The book brings together eminent scholars and experts to deepen our understanding of the complex nature of the mega regional trade agreements and their implications It is useful both for the academic and research community and for policymakers who focus on trade and economic cooperation issues The “Roads” and “Belts” of Eurasia Alexander Lukin,2020-03-02 This book addresses the challenges and opportunities of contemporary and future development of Eurasia The main theme of the first part of the book is examining the reaction evoked in different countries by the Chinese Belt and Road Initiative The second part analyses other national and international integration and infrastructure projects in Eurasia This unique publication brings together in one volume works by leading researchers from different countries all united by their common interest in the political and economic processes unfolding in the Eurasian continent By offering various points of view from experts from all over the world this book provides a multi dimensional analysis of the Eurasian future and will be of value to a wide range of readers including scholars publicists the international business community and decision makers Regions and Crises Lorenzo Fioramonti,2012-06-26 Investigates the intimate relationship between regional governance processes and global crises Analysing the current turmoil in the European Union it also looks at regional cooperation and integration in the Arab world Africa Asia and Latin America through topical case studies The European Union and Interregionalism Mr Mathew Doidge,2013-03-28 The European Union and Interregionalism is the most comprehensive study of interregionalism to date providing a vigorous analysis of its role and functions in the architecture of global governance and of the place of qualitative differences between regional actors in shaping interregional relationships Regionalism itself is an established phenomenon with regional politics becoming increasingly institutionalised As a result with the EU as forerunner regions have begun to exert themselves in the external policy space developing networks of relations including prominently interregional relations We have thus seen the emergence of a new governance space at the interregional level banded on one side by sites of global governance and on the other by governance at the regional level Important questions challenging the current literature of these interregional structures include do interregional relationships conform to theoretical expectations and what patterns of engagement and interaction are emerging within the EU's core interregional partnerships and are these replicated elsewhere Exploring interregionalism beyond the core Europe Asia partnerships including the network of relations centred on ASEAN this book should be read by all those engaged in consideration of interregional structures to understand how patterns of EU centred interregional engagement rather than being sui generis are increasingly evident in the broader network of interregional relationships

East Asian Economic Integration Ross P. Buckley, Richard Weixing Hu, Douglas W. Arner, 2011-01-01 This book offers a fascinating exploration of the contradictions of East Asian economic integration a topic of enormous contemporary significance to observers of world political and economic affairs The collection provides an unusually rigorous and systematic treatment of this important topic drawing on contributions from an impressive array of experts It will provide a valuable resource for students scholars and other observers seeking deeper understanding of the contemporary dynamics and challenges of East Asian integration Kate MacDonald University of Melbourne Australia East Asia is a crucial part of the global economy This book analyses three key elements of East Asian economic integration trade investment and international finance The authors are leading experts in their fields Their book represents an important addition to the literature on a subject of fundamental importance both regionally and globally Bradley J Condon ITAM Mexico City This book analyses recent developments and likely future paths for trade and financial integration in East Asia It suggests a more coherent balanced way forward for regional economic integration and analyses implications for institution building in East Asia East Asia has achieved a high degree of intra regional trade investment and GDP correlation through an expanding web of free trade agreements and production networks However financially most regional economies are linked more closely to North America and Europe than to each other As trade integration has accelerated financial and monetary integration has not kept pace East Asian Economic Integration analyses potential reasons and remedies for this phenomenon through a multidisciplinary framework of law politics and economics This comprehensive book will appeal to researchers and students in political science international relations trade law international finance law and regional studies generally It will also be of great interest to regional
