Allied Aces:

Aces High, Volume 1 Christopher Shores, Clive Williams, 2008-09-18 First in the Aces High series a military reference of the fighter pilots who had five or more confirmed victories while serving in the Royal Air Force Introduced by the French quite early in World War I the term ace was used to describe a pilot credited with five or more aerial victories But in the United Kingdom the term was never officially recognized Becoming an ace was partly luck especially considering the campaigns in which they flew and the areas of combat There are three distinct kinds of aces the defensive ace the offensive ace and the night fighter This book is a revised collection of the biographies of the highest scoring Allied fighter pilots of World War II including those with the confirmed claims of shooting down five aircraft and those pilots with lower scores but whose wartime careers prove them worthy of inclusion All details of their combat are arranged in tabular form Included are a selection of photographs from hitherto private collections There are some authors whose name alone is sufficient reason to buy a book and Christopher Shores is surely one of these By profession a chartered surveyor he served in the Royal Air Force in the 1950s so his writing bears the stamp of authenticity HistoryNet Air Aces Dan McCaffery, 1990 A thoughtful account of the nature of war and wartime heroism Air Aces examines the myth of the fighter ace showing why it emerged in the First World War and waned thereafter Aces Bill Yenne, 2020 Aces is an illustrated history of the brave World War II fighter pilots who earned the title of ace with archival and modern photos of their aircraft U.S. Navy Aces Peter B. into us I had pistons blown out of one engine and the constant speed unit blown out in the other We were going to bail out We jettisoned the door and the navigator was halfway out when the chap came back from the Ground Control Intercept GCI and said There is a Force 9 to 10 sea and we will never be able to rescue you So we brought that aircraft back to Bradwell Bay and I can tell you it near flew again My navigator was wounded bleeding from the face I could see the engines running red hot one was actually running on molten metal the whole thing glowing inside The air bottles were shot away and I had no brakes for landing The Mosquito was in ribbons Forgotten Allies J. Lee Ready,1985-01-01 Many nations played a role as belligerents on the Allied side in World War II Many were in the thick of combat and made grave national sacrifices yet general histories mention them only briefly or omit their story entirely The assisting troops are given their due in this unique comprehensive and readable history Included are chapters about land and sea troops from such countries as Fiji Trans Jordan Luxembourg Brazil Iran and Nigeria as well as Maori Assyrians Gurkhas Free Poles and others Knowing the lines drawn more than 70 years ago between sides will enable anyone to understand better national enmities and relations today
