Alliterative Revivals:

Alliterative Revivals Christine Chism, 2013-05-29 Alliterative Revivals is the first full length study of the sophisticated historical consciousness of late medieval alliterative romance Drawing from historicism feminism performance studies and postcolonial theory Christine Chism argues that these poems animate British history by reviving and acknowledging potentially threatening figures from the medieval past pagan judges primeval giants Greek knights Jewish forefathers Egyptian sorcerers and dead ancestors In addressing the ways alliterative poems centralize history the dangerous but profitable commerce of the present with the past Chism's book shifts the emphasis from the philological questions that have preoccupied studies of alliterative romance and offers a new argument about the uses of alliterative poetry how it appealed to its original producers and audiences and why it deserves attention now Alliterative Revivals examines eight poems St Erkenwald Sir Gawain and the Green Knight The Wars of Alexander The Siege of Jerusalem the alliterative Morte Arthure De Tribus Regibus Mortuis The Awntyrs off Arthure and Somer Sunday Chism both historicizes these texts and argues that they are themselves obsessed with history dramatizing encounters between the ancient past and the medieval present as a way for fourteenth century contemporaries to examine and rethink a range of ideologies These poems project contemporary conflicts into vivid vast and spectacular historical theaters in order to reimagine the complex relations between monarchy and nobility ecclesiastical authority and lay piety courtly and provincial culture western Christendom and its easterly others and the living and their dead progenitors In this alliterative romance joins hands with other late fourteenth century literary texts that make trouble at the borders of aristocratic culture Alliterative Revivals Christine Chism, 2002-06-19

Addressing the ways alliterative poems share concerns with history and the often dangerous confrontation of the present with the past Christine Chism shifts her focus away from the emphases on meter dialect and provenance that have routinely marked studies of alliterative poetry The Poetry of the Alliterative Revival , The Historical Literature of the Jack Cade Rebellion Alexander L. Kaufman, 2016-03-16 Accounts of Jack Cade's 1450 Rebellion an uprising of some 30 000 middle class citizens protesting Henry VI's policies and resulting in hundreds of deaths as well as the leaders execution form the dominant entry in a group of quasi historical documents referred to as the London chronicles of the Fifteenth Century However each chronicle is inherently different and highly subjective In the first study of the primary documents related to the Cade Rebellion Alexander L Kaufman shows that the chroniclers produced multiple representations of the event rather than a single unified narrative Aided by contemporary theories of historiography and historical representation Kaufman scrutinizes the differing representations and distinguishes the writers objectiveness their underrated literary skills and their ideological positions on the rebellion and fifteenth century politics He demonstrates how the use of figurative language is related to writing about trauma and how descriptions of Cade's procession through London are a violent parody of midsummer festivals In an exploration of authenticity in the descriptions of Cade Kaufman also examines the characterization and plot devices that push Cade towards the realm of myth showing that representations of Cade are influenced by popular fifteenth century stories of Robin Hood Speculative Poetry and the Modern Alliterative Revival Dennis Wilson Wise,2023-12-08 2025 Mythopoeic Scholarship Award Finalist for Myth and Fantasy Studies If a literary movement arises but no one notices is it still a movement In Speculative Poetry and the Modern Alliterative Revival A Critical Anthology Dennis Wilson Wise argues that the answer is yes Over the last ten decades poets working in fantasy science fiction and horror have collectively brought forth a revival in alliterative poetics akin to what once happened in the mid fourteenth century Altogether this anthology collects for the first time over fifty speculative poets several of whom are previously unpublished from across North America and Europe Alongside such established names as C S Lewis Patrick Rothfuss Edwin Morgan Poul Anderson Jo Walton P K Page and W H Auden this anthology includes representative texts from cultural movements such as contemporary neo Paganism and the Society for Creative Anachronism A lengthy critical introduction by the editor written accessibly for a general audience explains and contextualizes the Modern Revival for critics and readers alike and extensive footnotes offer aids to anyone new to medieval history or Norse mythology Overall this indispensable anthology the first major academic book to focus on speculative poetry establishes where the medieval meets the modern in the hitherto unrecognized Modern Alliterative Revival Routledge Revivals: Medieval England (1998) Paul E. Szarmach,M. Teresa Tavormina,Joel T. The Cambridge History of Medieval English Literature David Wallace,2002-04-25 This was the first full scale history of medieval English literature for nearly a century Thirty three distinguished contributors offer a collaborative account of literature composed or transmitted in England Wales Ireland and Scotland between the Norman conquest and the death of Henry VIII in 1547 The volume has five sections After the Norman Conquest Writing in the British Isles Institutional Productions After the Black Death and Before the Reformation It provides information on a vast range of literary texts and the conditions of their production and reception which will serve both specialists and general readers and also contains a chronology full bibliography and a detailed index This book offers an extensive and vibrant account of the medieval literatures so drastically reconfigured in Tudor England It will thus prove essential reading for scholars of the Renaissance as well as medievalists and for historians as well as literary specialists Monstrous Fantasies Leila K. Norako, 2024-08-15

Monstrous Fantasies asks why medieval romances reimagining the crusades ending in a Christian victory circulated in England with such abundance after the 1291 Muslim reconquest of Acre the last of the Latin crusader states in the Holy Land and what these texts reveal about the cultural anxieties of late medieval England Leila K Norako highlights the impact that the Ottoman victory and subsequent massacre of Christian prisoners at the battle of Nicopolis in 1396 had on intensifying the popularity of what she calls recovery romance These two episodes inspired a sense of urgency over the fate of the Holy Land and of Latin Christendom itself resulting in the proliferation of romances in which crusading English kings like Richard I and anachronistic legends like King Arthur not only reconquered Jerusalem but committed genocidal violence against the Muslims These romances which as Norako argues also influenced Geoffrey Chaucer's Canterbury Tales conjure fantasies of an ascendant global Christendom by rehearsing acts of conquest and cultural annihilation that were impossible to realize in the late Middle Ages Emphasizing the tension in these texts between nostalgia and anticipation that fuels their narrative momentum Monstrous Fantasies also explores how the cultural desires for European and Christian hegemony that recovery romances versified were revived in the wake of the so called wars on terror in the twenty first century in such films as Kingdom of Heaven and American Sniper Winner and Waster and Its Contexts W. Mark Ormrod, 2021 First recent full length analysis of a major medieval poem The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Roland Greene, Stephen Cushman, Clare Cavanagh, Jahan Ramazani, Paul Rouzer, Harris Feinsod, David Marno, Alexandra Slessarev, 2012-08-26 Rev ed of The Princeton encyclopedia of poetry and poetics Alex Preminger and T V F Brogan co editors Frank J Warnke O B Hardison Jr and Earl Miner associate editors 1993
