Almond The Sexual Awakening Of A Muslim Woman:

The Almond Nedjma, 2005 An autobiographical novel chronicles the sexual awakening of a Muslim woman as it follows the protagonist from a stifling Algerian household in the country to Tangiers where she explores personal identity and sexuality free of the constraints of her upbringing

A Taste of Honey Habeeb Akande, 2015-08-12 A Taste of Honey provides a scholarly exposition on the prominent place that sexuality and erotology enjoyed in traditional Islam The book is divided into two parts part one presents a critical examination of sexual ethics and part two consists of a concise treatise on the art of seduction and lovemaking The central aim of this book argues that Islam is a sexually enlightened religion which teaches that sensuality should not be devoid of spirituality The book also argues that the loss of sacred sensuality afflicting modern society can be reclaimed by a revival of the classical erotological tradition Drawing upon the Qur'an and traditional erotological literature the book follows the style and composition of classical Eastern and Afro Arab love texts such as the Kama Sutra and Jalil ad-Din Rumi's erotic treatises A Taste of Honey is a thought provoking work on a highly sensitive yet extremely important subject

A Hypersexual Society K. Kammeyer, 2008-11-10 As many can attest the prevalence of sexual imagery has increased in modern society over the past half century In this timely new study Kenneth Kammeyer traces the historical development of sexual imagery in America and society's preoccupation with it all within a firm theoretical and sociological framework

Arab and Arab American Feminisms Rabab Abdulhadi, Evelyn Alsultany, Nadine Naber, 2011-04-05 In this collection Arab and Arab American feminists enlist their intimate experiences to challenge simplistic and long held assumptions about gender sexuality and commitments to feminism and justice centered struggles among Arab communities Contributors hail from multiple geographical sites spiritualities occupations sexualities class backgrounds and generations Poets creative writers artists scholars and activists employ a mix of genres to express feminist issues and highlight how Arab and Arab American feminist perspectives simultaneously inhabit multiple overlapping and intersecting spaces within families and communities in anticolonial and antiracist struggles in debates over spirituality and the divine within radical feminist and queer spaces in academia and on the street and among each other Contributors explore themes as diverse as the intersections between gender sexuality Orientalism racism Islamophobia and Zionism and the restoration of Arab Jews to Arab American histories This book asks how members of diasporic communities navigate their sense of belonging when the country in which they live wages wars in the lands of their ancestors Arab and Arab American Feminisms opens up new possibilities for placing grounded Arab and Arab American feminist perspectives at the center of gender studies Middle East studies American studies and ethnic studies

Global Justice and Desire Nikita Dhawan, Antke Engel, Christoph H.E. Holzhey, Volker Woltersdorff, 2015-05-15 Employing feminist queer and postcolonial perspectives Global Justice and Desire addresses economy as a key ingredient in the dynamic interplay between modes of subjectivity signification and governance Bringing together a range of international contributors the book proposes that both analyzing justice through the lens of desire and considering desire through the lens of justice are vital for exploring economic processes. A variety of approaches for capturing the complex and dynamic interplay of justice and desire in socioeconomic processes are taken up. But acknowledging a complexity of forces and relations of power, domination and violence, sometimes cohering and sometimes contradictory, it is the relationship between hierarchical gender arrangements, relations of exploitation and their colonial histories that is stressed. Therefore, queer feminist and postcolonial perspectives intersect as Global Justice and Desire explores their capacity to contribute to more just and more desirable economies.

Sex and Lies Leïla Slimani, 2020-02-18. Striking ELLE France. Brave iNews. Powerful TLS Urgent Evening Standard Original. Cosmopolitan. The first work of non-fiction in English from the prize-winning and internationally bestselling author of Lullaby and Adèle, translated by Sophie Lewis. In these essays, Leïla Slimani gives voice to young Moroccan women who are grappling with a conservative Arab culture that at once condemns and commodifies sex. In a country where the law punishes and outlaws all forms of sex outside marriage as well as homosexuality and prostitution, women have only two options for their sexual identities: virgin or wife. Sex and Lies is an essential confrontation with Morocco's intimate demons and a vibrant appeal for the universal freedom to be, to love and to desire.

The Changing Profile of Race in the United States Evelyn Azeiza Alsultany, 2005

Muslim American Hyphenations Mahwash Shoaib, 2021-05-19. The essays in Muslim American Hyphenations contest the lack of nuance in the public debates about American Islam and reclaim a self-determined identity by twenty-first-century Muslim American writers, artists, and performers. Muslim American Hyphenations covers a wide spectrum of cultural representation based upon a shared religion that encompasses multiethnic and polylinguistic communities in the American landscape, challenging both the sacred/secular binary and the confines of multiculturalism. The contributors to this volume explore the codes of belonging in different American spheres, from transnational and local negotiations of immigrant and domestic Muslim Americans with nation, race, class, and gender to the performance of faith in the creative manifestations of these identities. In their analyses, these scholars propose that Muslim American cultural productions provide an alternative space of dissensus and the utopian potentiality of connections with other minoritarian communities.

Race in an Era of Change Heather M. Dalmage, Barbara Katz Rothman, 2011. Featuring a wide range of classic and contemporary selections, Race in an Era of Change: A Reader is an affordable and timely collection of articles on race and ethnicity in the United States today. Opening with coverage of racial formation theory, it goes on to cover racial thinking, including the challenging and compelling concept of whiteness and the idea of assigned and claimed racial identities. The book also discusses the relationships between race and a variety of institutions, including healthcare, economy, and work, housing, and environment, education, policing, and prison, the media, and the family, and concludes with a section on issues of globalization, immigration, and citizenship. Editors Heather Dalmage and Barbara Katz Rothman have carefully edited the selections so that they will be easily accessible to students A detailed introduction to each article contains questions designed to help students focus as they begin reading In addition each article is followed by a journaling question that encourages students to share their responses to the piece Offering instructors great flexibility for course use the selections can be used in any combination and in any order Race in an Era of Change A Reader is ideal for any undergraduate course on race and ethnicity
