D. H. Lawrence Alistair Niven,1978-02-23 Since his death in 1930 D H Lawrence has become not only one of the most controversial English novelists of the twentieth century but also one of the most widely read and quoted writers in the language In this new study of his major fiction Alistair Niven revalues all the novels tracing Lawrence s development through them both as an artist and as a thinker At the centre of the book Dr Niven discusses The Rainbow and Women in Love as the diverse products of a single creative intention nothing less than an exploration of where modern man is going Lawrence s early novels The White Peacock and The Trespasser receive exceptionally close scrutiny There are also full length chapters on Lawrence s well known fiction of sexual self discovery Sons and Lovers and Lady Chatterley s Lover The travel novels The Lost Girl Aaron s Rod The Plumed Serpent and especially the Australian novel Kangaroo which the author believes has been seriously underestimated by previous critics are given prominence as evidence of Lawrence s restless desire to find a superior set of values to those he believed had failed in England Dr Niven s conclusions are derived solely from his close reading of the novels themselves and when relevant from Lawrence's correspondence and short stories. This study with its unusually lively and commonsense approach confirms Lawrence as not only a great novelist but a central figure in the development of the modern mind.

Novels of Flaubert Victor H. Brombert, 2015-12-08 Through a probing study of Flaubert's novels which brings out their nuances of tone, technique, vision and meaning, Victor Brombert provides a close and complex analysis of Flaubert's art in relation to his tragic themes. Avoiding undue emphasis on biography, Professor Brombert focuses on the haunting motifs of the novels and analyzes the features which contribute to Flaubert's total vision while respecting the integrity of each work and discussing each novel in its own terms. The vision of Flaubert emerges showing his artistic relevance to his time and to our own. Above all, the book brings out the poetic density and beauty of Flaubert's novels: the poetry of loss and constriction, the poetry of subjective time, the tragic poetry of frustration and the poetry of unconquerable dreams.
