Almost Full Circle Harry Seidler A Biography:

Finding a Common Interest Lindie Clark, 2002-10-08 This important book demonstrates how businesses can operate both profitably and ethically by finding a common interest between all those involved in their operations It does so through the example of Dick Dusseldorp founder of Lend Lease one of Australia's most admired blue chip corporations Arriving in postwar Australia with only one construction contract and a handful of workers on his company's books Dusseldorp built Lend Lease into a billion dollar property development and financial services concern Widely respected for his business success Dusseldorp was equally well known for his commitment to sharing the fruits of that success with the workers shareholders and clients of Lend Lease and the communities where the company conducted its business Not only does this book tell the story of Lend Lease and its founder through them it demonstrates how business can be done inclusively and so provides a workable model for corporate governance

The House That Jack Built James Colman, 2016-09-01 This is the story of how an ordinary bloke from the bush became the key figure in a movement that would change the shape of our cities and bring about lasting political and legal reform This is the story of the house that Jack Munday built Without the green bans movement of the 1970s Sydney and many other cities would look very different Pulling together an unlikely alliance of environmentalists and union players earned Jack Munday a reputation as both the best known unionist and best known conservationist in Australia Under his leadership the movement fought against the slash and burn philosophy that almost saw The Rocks fitted out with high rise buildings a highway through the centre of Glebe and total development of Centennial Park In this long awaited book James Colman reflects on Jack's remarkable life and his ongoing legacy Munday overturned the bulldozer mentality of the 1960s and 1970s and helped to persuade Australians everywhere to cherish and protect the heritage of special buildings places and sites

Almost Full Circle Alice Spigelman, 2001 Biography of renowned Australian based architect Harry Seidler 1923 Details the personal political and artistic influences that shaped his life Explores his introduction to architecture as a schoolboy in Vienna and Canada his internment in Canada during the war his studies at Harvard his early work in architecture in New York and Brazil before migrating to Australia in 1948 and his often contentious relationship with the critics Foreword by former Australian Prime Minister Gough Whitlam Introduction by Edmund Capon Director of the Art Gallery of New South Wales Includes photographs endnotes and index

A Critical History of Contemporary Architecture Elie G. Haddad, David Rifkind, 2016-12-05 1960 following as it did the last CIAM meeting signalled a turning point for the Modern Movement From then on architecture was influenced by seminal texts by Aldo Rossi and Robert Venturi and gave rise to the first revisionary movement following Modernism Bringing together leading experts in the field this book provides a comprehensive critical overview of the developments in architecture from 1960 to 2010 It consists of two parts the first section providing a presentation of major movements in architecture after 1960 and the second a geographic survey that covers a wide range of territories around the world This book not only reflects the different perspectives of its various authors but also charts a middle course between the aesthetic histories that examine architecture solely in terms of its formal aspects and the more ideological histories that subject it to a critique that often skirts the discussion of its formal aspects

Experiments in Modern Living Milton Cameron, 2012-05-01 When a group of brilliant young scientists arrived in Australia's national capital after World War II to take up leading roles in the establishment of national research institutions they commissioned Australia's leading architects to design their private houses The houses that resulted from these unique collaborations rejected previous architectural styles and wholeheartedly embraced modernist ideologies and aesthetics The story of how these progressive clients contributed to the innovative design of their houses brings fresh insights to mid twentieth century Australian domestic architecture and to Canberra's rich cultural history
