Our Hawaii: Islands and islanders Charmian London, 2006-01-01 Once upon a time only the other day when jovial King Kalakaua established a record for the kings of earth and time there entered into his Polynesian brain as merry a scheme of international intrigue as ever might have altered the destiny of races and places The time was 1881 the place of the intrigue the palace of the Mikado at Tokio The record must not be omitted for it was none other than that for the first time in the history of kings and of the world a reigning sovereign in his own royal person put a girdle around the earth The intrigue It was certainly as international as any international intrigue could be Also it was equally as dark while it was precisely in alignment with the future conflicting courses of empires Manifest destiny was more than incidentally concerned When the manifest destinies of two dynamic races move on ancient and immemorial lines toward each other from east to west and west to east along the same parallels of latitude there is an inevitable point on the earth's surface where they will collide In this case the races were the Anglo Saxon represented by the Americans and the Mongolian represented by the Japanese The place was Hawaii the lovely and lovable beloved of countless many as Hawaii Nei Kalakaua despite his merriness foresaw clearly either that the United States would absorb Hawaii or that allied by closest marital ties to the royal house of the Rising Sun Hawaii could be a brother kingdom in an empire That he saw clearly the situation to day attests Hawaii Nei is a territory of the United States There are more Japanese resident in Hawaii at the present time than are resident other nationalities not even excepting the native Hawaiians The figures are eloquent In round numbers there are twenty five thousand pure Hawaiians twenty five thousand various

Caucasians twenty three thousand Portuguese twenty one thousand Chinese fifteen thousand Filipinos a sprinkling of many other breeds an amazing complexity of intermingled breeds and ninety thousand Japanese And most amazingly eloquent of all statistics are those of the race purity of the Japanese mating In the year 1914 the Registrar General is authority for the statements that one American male and one Spanish male respectively married Japanese females that one Japanese male married a Hapa Haole or Caucasian Hawaiian female and that three Japanese males married pure Hawaiian females When it comes to an innate antipathy toward mongrelization the dominant national in Hawaii the Japanese proves himself more jealously exclusive by far than any other national Omitting the records of all the other nationals which go to make up the amazing mongrelization of races in this smelting pot of the races let the record of pure blood Americans be cited In the same year of 1914 the Registrar General reports that of American males who intermingled their breed and seed with alien races eleven married pure Hawaiians twenty five married Caucasian Hawaiians three married pure Chinese four married Chinese Hawaiians and one married a pure Japanese To sum the same thing up with a cross bearing in the same year 1914 of over eighteen hundred Japanese women who married only two married outside their race of over eight hundred pure Caucasian women who married over two hundred intermingled their breed and seed with races alien to their own Reduced to decimals of the females who went over the fence of race to secure fathers for their children 25 of pure Caucasian women were guilty 0014 of Japanese women were guilty in vulgar fraction one out of four Caucasian women one out of one thousand Japanese women

Haven Jessica Jayne, 2020-12-08 A week to think a lifetime to love. When a young attorney arrives on the Big Island with the goal of moving past her broken engagement and predictable life, a brooding but sexy man is not what she expected but is exactly what she needs. Mia wants to move beyond the years of her life wasted in pleasing everyone else except herself. She travels to Hawaii where she can be alone where she knows no one and no one knows her. But instead of the solitude she craves, she meets a handsome stranger with the uncanny ability to see the person she wants to be. Love is for other people or so Kekoa thinks. The Hawaiian surfer is no stranger to heartbreak or sacrifice. He's all but given up on his dreams, resigned to live the life his deceased father had planned for him. And then a curvy and dark-haired bundle of sunshine rents a room in his family's inn and everything changes. Maybe love isn't too much to hope for after all.

Lady Friends Karen L. Ito, 2018-08-06 Many indigenous Hawaiians who have moved to the islands' cities languish at the bottom of the socioeconomic scale and are thought to have lost their cultural roots. Initially apolitical urban Hawaiians were often skeptical of activists who sought to revitalize traditional ways, yet as Karen L. Ito shows, Hawaiian women in particular continue to maintain and express crucial aspects of their cultural heritage in their lifestyle and interactions with others. Ito conducted intensive fieldwork with six Honolulu families, all of which shared the distinguishing characteristics of Hawaii's matrifocal society. In her close examination of the friendships and family relations among the women in these households, she focuses on the significance of a traditional manner of speech known as talk story, which they use when conversing together. She describes how her subjects employ metaphoric language to address issues concerning responsibility, retribution, understandings of self and personhood, and methods for conflict resolution. For these lady friends, Ito finds the emotional quality and quantity of their social relationships help define personal identity, while their common concepts of morality bind them together. By applying ethnopsychological strategies to the exploration of culture, Ito demonstrates cultural continuity at a level where most observers would not expect to find it. Lady Friends brings a new dimension to Hawaiian research.
