Altering Eye Contemporary International Cinema:

The Altering Eye Robert Phillip Kolker, 2009 The Altering Eye covers a golden age of international cinema from the end of WWII through to the New German Cinema of the 1970s. Combining historical political and textual analysis, the author develops a pattern of cinematic invention and experimentation from neorealism through the modernist interventions of Jean Luc Godard and Rainer Maria Fassbinder, focusing along the way on such major figures as Luis Buñuel, Joseph Losey, the Brazilian director Glauber Rocha, and the work of major Cuban filmmakers. Kolker's book has become a much quoted classic in the field of film studies, providing essential reading for anybody interested in understanding the history of European and international cinema. This new and revised edition includes a substantive new Preface by the author and an updated Bibliography.

The Aesthetics of Antifascist Film Jennifer Lynde Barker, 2013

Through a series of detailed film case histories ranging from The Great Dictator to Hiroshima mon amour to The Lives of Others, The Aesthetics of Antifascist Film explores the genesis and recurrence of antifascist aesthetics as it manifests in the WWII, Cold War, and Post Wall historical periods. Emerging during a critical moment in film history, the 1930s and 1940s Hollywood cinematic antifascism was representative of the international nature of antifascist alliances with the amalgam of film styles generated in migr Hollywood during the WWII period, reflecting a dialogue between an urgent political commitment to antifascism and an equally intense commitment to aesthetic complexity. Opposed to a fascist aesthetics based on homogeneity, purity, and spectacle, these antifascist films project a radical beauty of distortion, heterogeneity, fragmentation, and loss. By juxtaposing documentation and the modernist techniques of surrealism and expressionism, the filmmakers were able to manifest a non-totalizing work of art that still had political impact. Drawing on insights from film and cultural studies, aesthetic and ethical philosophy, and socio-political theory, this book argues that the artistic struggles with political commitment and modernist strategies of representation during the 1930s and 40s resulted in a distinctive radical aesthetic form that represents an alternate strand of post-modernism.

The Films of Wim Wenders Robert Phillip Kolker, Peter Beicken, 1993-01-29 The authors trace the development of one of the most well-known directors of the New German Cinema that flourished in the 1970s and early 1980s. Examining Wim Wenders' career from his early film school productions through his mature works of the 1970s this book also analyses the most recent works as well as the themes and preoccupations that unite his oeuvre As the authors note Wenders works have been profoundly influenced by American films especially the road movie genre His own work often features characters who are always on the move in an attempt to capture a glimpse of their identity and place in the world They also represent a generation of postwar Germans seeking to redeem themselves and the history of their country by turning to American popular culture particularly its music and movies Stanley Kubrick's 2001: A Space Odyssey Robert Kolker,2006-03-23 Though Stanley Kubrick's 2001 A Space Odyssey boasts a large and ever expanding fan base there are few among even the most avid enthusiasts that fully understand the film's inheritance complexities and ironies The essays in this collection newly commissioned from a wide variety of scholars for this volume examine in detail various possible readings of the film its historical context and its status as a quintessential science fiction genre piece Italian Neorealism Charles L.
