Alternate Roots Plays From The Southern Theatre:

Alternate Roots Valetta Anderson, Kathie deNobriga, 1994 Alternate ROOTS is one of the American South's oldest theatres. This collection brings together some of the best work of their seventeen year history. Art in a Democracy Ben Fink, 2023-03-14 Collaborative plays with diverse ensembles across the country address pressing issues of our times. The plays in Volume 2 come from Roadside's intercultural and issue specific theater work including long term collaborations with the African American Junebug Productions in New Orleans and the Puerto Rican Pregones Theater in the South Bronx as well as with residents on both sides of the walls of recently built prisons. Roadside has spent 45 years searching for what art in a democracy might look like. The anthology raises questions such as: What are common principles and common barriers to achieving democracy across disciplines and how can the disciplines unite in common democratic cause. Performing Communities Robert H. Leonard, Ann Kilkelly, 2006-04 Ensemble Theater is the hottest American performance medium today. It's more than art; it's a movement. Contemporary Plays by Women of Color Roberta Uno, 2005-06-28 Contemporary Plays by Women of Color is a ground breaking anthology of eighteen new and recent works by African American, Asian American, Latina American and Native American playwrights. This compelling collection includes works by award winning and well known playwrights such as Anna Deavere Smith, Cherrie Moraga, Pearl Cleage, Marga Gomez and Spiderwoman as well as many exciting newcomers. Contemporary Plays by Women of Color is the first anthology to display such an abundance of talent from such a wide range of today's women playwrights. The plays tackle a variety of topics from the playful to the painful and represent numerous different approaches to playmaking. The volume also includes an invaluable appendix of published plays by women of color, biographical notes on each writer, the production history of each play. Contemporary Plays by Women of Color is a unique resource for practitioners, students and lovers of theatre and an inspiring addition to any bookshelf. Restaging the Sixties James Martin Harding, Cindy Rosenthal, 2006 A dynamic exploration of eight radical theater collectives from the 1960s and 70s and their influence on contemporary performance. Local Acts Jan Cohen-Cruz, 2005 The author surveys community based performance in the US from its roots to present day popular culture. She describes performances and processes and shows how ritualism reinforces community identification while aestheticism enables locals to transgress cultural norms. The SAGE Handbook of Performance Studies D. Soyini Madison, Judith Hamera, 2006 Publisher description. The Color of Theater Roberta Uno, Lucy Mae San Pablo Burns, 2005-12-01 The Color of Theater presents a range of essays, interviews and performance texts that illustrate and examine the process, evolution and dynamics of making theater in the dawning moments of the 21st century. It brings together writings by artists, intellectuals and art activists exploring contemporary practices within multicultural, intercultural and ethnically specific theaters. This provocative and dynamic resource brings forth critical issues of cultural aesthetics, engaging theatre as a crucial site for examining the intricate intersections of race, gender, class, sexuality and national and global politics.
