Alternative Approaches To The Assessment Of Achievement:

Alternative Approaches to the Assessment of Achievement David L. McArthur, 2012-12-06 Ingrained for many years in the science of educational assessment were a large number of truths about how to make sense out of testing results artful wisdoms that appear to have held away largely by force of habit alone Practitioners and researchers only occasionally agreed about how tests should be designed and were even further apart when they came to interpreting test responses by any means other than categorically right or wrong Even the best innovations were painfully slow to be incorporated into practice The traditional approach to testing was developed to accomplish only two tasks to provide ranking of students or to select relatively small proportions of students for special treatment In these tasks it was fairly effective but it is increasingly seen as inadequate for the broader spectrum of issues that educational measurement is now called upon to address Today the range of questions being asked of educational test data is itself growing by leaps and bounds Fortunately to meet this challenge we have available a wide panoply of resource tools for assessment which deserve serious attention Many of them have exceptionally sophisticated mathematical foundations and succeed well where older and less versatile techniques fail dismally Yet no single new tool can conceivably cover the entire arena

Alternative Approaches to Outcomes

Assessment for Postsecondary Vocational Education Debra D. Bragg, 1992 Alternatives in Assessment of Achievements, Learning Processes and Prior Knowledge Menucha Birenbaum, F. Dochy, 2012-12-06 Achievement assessment has undergone a major shift from what some call a culture of testing to a culture of assessment Nowadays a strong emphasis is placed on the integration of assessment and instruction on assessing processes rather than just products and on evaluating individual progress relative to each student's starting point This book addresses assessment issues in light of the present state of affairs The first part discusses new alternatives in the assessment of achievement in various subject areas focusing on agenda practice impact and evaluation of the assessment The second part deals with issues related to assessment of the learning process specifically questions concerning the assessment of individual differences in prior knowledge learning skills and strategies

Handbook of Special Education James M. Kauffman, Daniel P. Hallahan, Paige Cullen Pullen, 2017-05-25 The purpose of the Handbook of Special Education is to help profile and bring greater clarity to the already sprawling and continuously expanding field of special education To ensure consistency across the volume chapter authors review and integrate existing research identify strengths and weaknesses note gaps in the literature and discuss implications for practice and future research The second edition has been fully updated throughout to take into account recent changes to federal laws as well as the most current academic research and an entirely new section has been added on research methods in special education Assessment of Children and Youth with Special Needs Libby G. Cohen, Loraine J. Spenciner, 2003 Assessment of Children and Youth Second Edition is a comprehensive assessment book that provides balanced coverage of special education assessment of children and youth ages 3-20. Easy for readers to understand the book reviews traditional and alternative assessment approaches and discusses the strengths and weaknesses of each. Coverage of informal and performance based assessments across the curriculum teaches students how approaches in the general education classroom apply to students both with and without disabilities. For anyone interested in learning about the assessment of students with disabilities Rating EFL Written Performance Katalin Bukta, 2014-09-18 The study focuses on the investigation of the process during which raters of EFL written performance make their decisions. It consists of a pilot and a main study, each of which concentrates on assessment of writing. The rationale is to detect the decision making processes that raters follow, which can be used for training raters and with which the reliability of rating can be improved. The pilot study is based on data collected during a large scale language proficiency assessment of two age groups from learners of English and German languages. Raters were asked to think aloud during the rating task. Data was then transcribed and analysed. The participants in the main study were novice raters who produced verbal protocols. 37 EFL teacher trainees took part in rater training and practised think aloud protocol production. Then they evaluated ten compositions written by EFL learners and verbalised their thought processes. The verbal protocols served as a basis for data collection. The analysis of data resulted in the conclusion according to which more reliable and objective assessment is possible when evaluating written performance Issues in Contemporary Economics Kenneth J. Arrow, 2016-07-27 This book with an overview introduction by Kenneth J. Arrow is the first volume of the proceedings of the World Economic Congress held in Athens, Greece, in August-September 1989 under the auspices of the International Economic Association. It contains in Part 1 lectures from the plenary session by distinguished world economists. Part 2 contains surveys and reflections on various aspects of markets in equilibrium. Part 3 is concerned with normative criteria for economic policy within the framework of welfare and social choice theory Handbook of Language and Literacy, Second Edition C. Addison Stone, Elaine R. Silliman, Barbara J. Ehren, Geraldine P. Wallach, 2016-05-27 An acclaimed reference that fills a significant gap in the literature, this volume examines the linkages between spoken and written language development, both typical and atypical. Leading authorities address the impact of specific language-related processes on K-12 literacy learning, with attention to cognitive, neurobiological, sociocultural, and instructional issues. Approaches to achieving optimal learning outcomes with diverse students are reviewed. The volume presents research-based practices for assessing student needs and providing effective instruction in all aspects of literacy: word recognition, reading comprehension, writing, and spelling. New to This Edition: Chapters on digital literacy, disciplinary literacy, and integrative research designs. Chapters on bilingualism response to intervention and English language learners Incorporates nearly a decade s worth of empirical and theoretical advances Numerous prior edition chapters have been completely rewritten ENC Focus ,1997
