Living in the Margins Terry A. Veling, 2002-11-12 A gifted theologian sheds light on the meaning and value of intentional faith communities in the margins of parish life New Directions in Mission and Evangelization: Theological foundations James A. Scherer, Stephen B. Bevans, 1992 Elenchus bibliographicus, 1988 Missiology, 1991 An international review The Promise of Partnership James D. Whitehead, Evelyn Eaton Whitehead, 1993 In a comprehensive and practical model for ministry in today's parish the authors draw on their experience and scholarship to provide tools that will enable clergy and their congregations to build productive working relationships in their parishes Winner of the Catholic Press Association Book Award Doors to the Sacred Joseph Martos, 1991 This historical introduction the only such study of the sacraments in the Catholic Church available has been called illuminating thorough reliable The Future Church of 140 BCE Bernard J. Lee, 1995 A century and a half before the time of Jesus a movement of educated Jewish laity initiated a profound transformation of Judaism Bernard Lee uses this as a metaphor for a hidden revolution in the U S Catholic Church today the development of a lay interpretation of Catholic Christian identity He proposes an ecclesiology that believes that the Spirit is God's gift to the entire people of God without privilege or prejudice Accordingly some form of dialogic community is ecclesologically appropriate to give the lay experience of faith a legitimated voice in the telling of the Catholic story i e a place in the interpretive structure of Catholic community BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Modern Catholicism Adrian Hastings, 1991 When Pope John XXIII convened the Second Vatican Council in 1963 he could not have predicted the dramatic transformation of modern Roman Catholicism that would result from its deliberations Its influence has reached into every aspect of Catholic life and continues to be felt and hotly debated to the present day In this sweeping new study edited by the eminent British Catholic theologian Adrian Hastings a distinguished team of international scholars provides a complete history of the Council and assesses its impact on the last quarter century of Catholic thought and practice The contributors consider the reign of John XXIII and his immediate predecessors and successors the history of the Council and each of the sixteen documents it issued which together represent perhaps the most authoritative church teaching of this century embodying radical changes in the liturgy and greater participation in services by lay members But Vatican II also left behind many unresolved controversies such as celibacy of priests and birth control and the contributors also examine these and other issues including the role of women in the Church homosexuality divorce and war and the nuclear predicament In addition the impact of the Council on different parts of the world is discussed giving full weight to the emergence of liberation theology in Latin America and the Philippines and the desire of African and Asian Catholics to assimilate aspects of their traditional culture into Church life Modern Catholicism offers us a new map for understanding the challenges faced by the Church as we approach the end of the second millennium of Christianity Commemorating the twenty fifth anniversary of Vatican II this book is destined to become the standard resource on the Council and its influence
