Youth, Globalization, and Society in Africa and Its Diaspora Jepkorir-Rose Chepyator-Thomson, Akinloye Ojo, Karim Traore, Katja Sonkeng, 2020-02-11 This edited collection provides a window into Africa s diversity A wide ranging body of authors offers a valuable glimpse into the challenges and opportunities presented by globalization to the youth in Africa and its diaspora while issuing a stern call for action to local governments to act now and tap into the energy of Africa's burgeoning youth population. In doing so the authors expand extant literature on the continent's coping with globalization in the context of young people in various African nations. Featured in the collection are views on education, language, agriculture, sport, and technology deeply interwoven into the schooling behavior and health of youth. Specifically, these practices are found in both formal and non-formal education, agricultural production, and food nutrition, computer technology, and sport's amelioration of health issues throughout Africa.

ADR, Arbitration, and Mediation CI Arb, 2014. The various developments and changes in the field of arbitration coupled with the large sums and important issues which are so often at stake in them mean that a new book providing a comprehensive overview on the topic from an authoritative source is not merely very welcome; it is positively needed by professionals involved in arbitration and their clients. It is hard to think of an organisation better qualified to sponsor such a book than the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators with its enormous experience and authority in the field. It is also hard to conceive of a more impressive and well-qualified group of contributors to such a book than the list of people who Julio Cesar Betancourt and Jason A Crook have included in this volume. Lord Neuberger of Abbotsbury, President of the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom. The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators is a learned society that works in the public interest to promote and facilitate the use of alternative dispute resolution (ADR) mechanisms. Founded in 1915 and with a Royal Charter granted in 1979, it is a UK-based institution that has gained international presence in more than 100 countries and has more than 13,000 professionally qualified members around the world. Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, 12 Bloomsbury Square, London, United Kingdom, WC1A 2LP. T: 44 (0) 20 7421 7444, www.ciarb.org. Registered Charity 803725.

International Commercial Arbitration is the fastest growing dispute settlement discipline. The complexities surrounding its regulatory framework combined with an ever-increasing and constantly evolving set of acts, rules, guidelines, protocols, regulations, national legislation, international treaties, and so on, may appear daunting at first glance. This collection of documents or supplementary material is designed to provide the essential reading for all those who are eager to pursue a career in international arbitration. It will also appeal to arbitration practitioners wishing to have easy access to over 700 pages of arbitration-related resources.

A Practical Guide to Construction Adjudication James Pickavance, 2015-12-21. In the United Kingdom, adjudication is available as a right for parties to a construction contract following the enactment of the Housing Grants, Construction and Regeneration Act 1996. In general, within a comparatively short period of time, parties in dispute will have a decision from an adjudicator, which, except in limited circumstances, the courts will enforce. Adjudication has become the number one method of dispute resolution in the construction industry. The short timescale means that a party needs to know what to do, when to do it, and be able to check that the other party and the adjudicator are following the right steps. A Practical Guide to Construction Adjudication gives parties the necessary information to achieve this. It provides a straightforward overview of the process and procedure of adjudication by reference to legislation and case law, augmented with practical guidance including suggestions on what to do or not to do drafting tips and checklists Separate chapters for Scotland and Northern Ireland identify and explain the differences in procedure and judicial interpretation between those jurisdictions and England and Wales and further detailed explanations of the adjudication regimes in Australia Ireland Malaysia New Zealand and Singapore are included Each of the chapters on jurisdictions outside England and Wales has been written by senior experts in those jurisdictions to ensure the content is accurate and insightful There are a range of helpful appendices including a bank of model form adjudication documents and tabulated detailed comparisons of the Scheme for Construction Contracts the other major adjudication rules the major adjudicator nominating bodies and the UK and international regimes Readers will particularly appreciate the most comprehensive index of adjudication cases available sorted into 260 subject headings providing immediate access to all the reported cases on any adjudication topic

Muslim/Arab Mediation and Conflict Resolution Doron Pely, 2016-02-05 Inter and intra clan conflicts in Northern Israel pit hundreds against each other in revenge cycles that take years to resolve and impact the entire community The Sulha is a Shari'a based traditional conflict resolution process that works independently of formal legal systems and is widely practiced to manage such conflicts in the north of Israel as well as throughout the Muslim and Arab worlds The Sulha process works by effecting a gradual attitudinal transformation from a desire for revenge to a willingness to forgive through restoration of the victim's clan sense of honour Muslim Arab Mediation and Conflict Resolution examines the process of Sulha as practiced by the Arab population of northern Israel where it plays a central role in the maintenance of peace among Muslims Christians and Druze alike It presents detailed analysis of every stage of this at times protracted process It uses interviews with victims perpetrators Sulha practitioners community leaders and lawyers along with statistical analysis to examine how Sulha affects people's lives how various sectors of society impact the practice and how it coexists with Israel's formal legal system Furthermore it examines how Sulha compares to Western dispute resolution processes This book offers the first comprehensive exploration of the entire Sulha process and is a valuable resource for students and scholars of Middle East studies Islamic studies and conflict resolution Truth Commissions and Procedural Fairness Mark

Freeman, 2006-08-14 Publisher Description Global Trends in Mediation Nadja Marie Alexander, 2006-01-01 In its first edition Global Trends in Mediation was the first book to concentrate on mediation from a comparative perspective reaching beyond the all too familiar Anglo American view and as such has enjoyed wide practical use among alternative dispute resolution ADR practitioners worldwide This new edition has not only been updated throughout it has also added two new jurisdictions France and Quebec and a very useful comparative table summarising the salient points from each of the fourteen jurisdictional chapters Each jurisdictional chapter addresses critical structural and process issues in alternative dispute resolution such as the institutionalisation of mediation mediation case law and legislation the range and nature of disputes where mediation is utilised court related mediation mediation practice standards education training and accreditation of mediators the role of lawyers in mediation online dispute resolution and future trends All the contributors are senior dispute resolution academics or practitioners with vast knowledge and experience of dispute resolution developments in their countries and abroad

Civil Justice, Privatization, and Democracy Trevor C.W. Farrow, 2014-04-30 Privatization is occurring throughout the public justice system including courts tribunals and state sanctioned private dispute resolution regimes Driven by a widespread ethos of efficiency based civil justice reform privatization claims to decrease costs increase speed and improve access to the tools of justice But it may also lead to procedural unfairness power imbalances and the breakdown of our systems of democratic governance Civil Justice Privatization and Democracy demonstrates the urgent need to publicize politicize debate and ultimately temper these moves towards privatized justice Written by Trevor C W Farrow a former litigation lawyer and current Chair of the Canadian Forum on Civil Justice Civil Justice Privatization and Democracy does more than just bear witness to the privatization initiatives that define how we think about and resolve almost all non criminal disputes It articulates the costs and benefits of these privatizing initiatives particularly their potential negative impacts on the way we regulate ourselves in modern democracies and it makes recommendations for future civil justice practice and reform

Multidisciplinary Dynamics of Mediation Hugo Luz dos Santos, 2025-09-15 This book casts an analytical eye on the legal dynamics of mediation premised on a multidisciplinary approach This is the very first book to meld mediation and applied psychology with a view to portray the myriad of cognitive biases with which the great bulk of legal actors grapple tussle with in mediation settings The overriding goal of this book is to provide a multidisciplinary comprehensive and full fledged framework to legal dynamics of mediation while emphasizing the paramount importance of incorporative mediation to protect the fundamental rights of the weakest disputant in the room something that has not been done yet This book is the very first one to provide a framework frame of reference to the usage of artificial intelligence in the remit of both mediation settings and Restorative Relationship Session RRS
