Towards a Strategic Management and Decision Technology J.W. Sutherland, 2012-12-06

The Many Faces of Relativism Maria Baghramian, 2015-10-14 This book is a study of relativism as a dominant intellectual preoccupation of our time Relativism asks how we are to find a way out of intractable differences of perspectives and disagreements in various domains Standards of truth rationality and ethical right and wrong vary greatly and there are no universal criteria for adjudicating between them In considering this problem relativism suggests that what is true or right can only be determined within variable contexts of assessment This book brings together articles published in the International Journal of Philosophical Studies over a period of 17 years as well as in a Special Issue of the journal published in 2004 The chapters in Section I discuss some of the main forms of relativism Section II sheds light on the different motivations for relativism assessing their strengths and weaknesses Section III provides a detailed examination of the vexed question of whether Ludwig Wittgenstein in his later work supported relativism The varied responses to this important question shed light on the issues discussed in Sections I and II This collection is a lively and engaging resource for scholars interested in the crucial impact relativism has had on the way we think about the meaning of truth and what is right and wrong The chapters in this book were originally published in the International Journal of Philosophical Studies     Handbook of Conflict Management Research Oluremi B. Ayoko, Neal M. Ashkanasy, Karen A. Jehn, 2014-07-31 This unique book draws together current thoughts and research in conflict management Specifically it brings a wealth of knowledge from authorities in the field on emerging issues such as power in conflict cognition and emotions in conflict leading     Uncertainty, Information Management, and Disclosure Decisions Tamara Afifi, Walid Afifi, 2015-12-22 This volume provides an in depth exploration of two key processes in communication research uncertainty and information regulation It integrates scholarly work on disclosure and uncertainty with cutting edge research theories and applications Offering contributions from renowned scholars this volume is a unique and timely resource for advanced study in interpersonal health and family communication and it will also appeal to scholars interested in applied research

Encyclopedia of Adolescence Roger J.R. Levesque, 2011-09-05 The Encyclopedia of Adolescence breaks new ground as an important central resource for the study of adolescence Comprehensive in breath and textbook in depth the Encyclopedia of Adolescence with entries presented in easy to access A to Z format serves as a reference repository of knowledge in the field as well as a frequently updated conduit of new knowledge long before such information trickles down from research to standard textbooks By making full use of Springer's print and online flexibility the Encyclopedia is at the forefront of efforts to advance the field by pushing and creating new boundaries and areas of study that further our understanding of adolescents and their place in society Substantively the Encyclopedia draws from four major areas of research relating to adolescence The first broad area includes research relating to Self Identity and Development in Adolescence This area covers research relating to identity from early adolescence through emerging adulthood basic aspects of development e g biological cognitive social and foundational developmental theories In addition this area focuses on various types of identity gender sexual civic moral political racial spiritual religious and so forth The second broad area centers on Adolescents Social and Personal Relationships This area of research examines the nature and influence of a variety of important relationships including family peer friends sexual and romantic as well as significant nonparental adults The third area examines Adolescents in Social Institutions This area of research centers on the influence and nature of important institutions that serve as the socializing contexts for adolescents These major institutions include schools religious groups justice systems medical fields cultural contexts media legal systems economic structures and youth organizations Adolescent Mental Health constitutes the last major area of research This broad area of research focuses on the wide variety of human thoughts actions and behaviors relating to mental health from psychopathology to thriving Major topic examples include deviance violence crime pathology DSM normalcy risk victimization disabilities flow and positive youth development

Planning For Life Liam Concannon, 2005-08-15 This book traces the development of services for people with disabilities and discusses how much things have really changed for today's service users since the days of asylums It also assesses whether the policy of involvement such as that outlined in Valuing People is achievable in practice or simply places unrealistic burdens on professionals and service users Based on findings from original research and interviews the author argues that involving people with learning disabilities in service planning is difficult to achieve successfully and is currently to a large extent tokenistic This area of challenging practice and emotive debate is brought to life by the voices of service providers carers and the service users themselves and illustrates the realities of working with people with learning disabilities Planning for Life is valuable and informative for students of social work social care and social policy and will be enlightening reading for those working with adults with learning disabilities in policy and in practice

Groups that Work Paul H. Ephross, Thomas V. Vassil, 2005 Working groups play a major role in the development of health human services The authors discuss the skills needed for effective participation leadership within these groups

Door of Hope Jan Frank, 1995 A powerful story of inspiration and restoration Door of Hope is Jan's journey toward wholeness But it is much more than a story It is hope for other victims
