Articles Of Faith Missionary Reference Library:

A Study of the Articles of Faith James Edward Talmage, 1942 Missionary Reference Library Deseret Book Company, Deseret Book Company Staff, 2001 Catalogue of the Reference Library Birmingham Public Libraries, John Davies Mullins, 1890 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1970 The Mormon Hierarchy D. Michael Quinn, 1997 The Mormon church today is led by an elite group of older men nearly three quarters of whom are related to current or past general church authorities This dynastic hierarchy meets in private neither its minutes nor the church's finances are available for public review Members are reassured by public relations spokesmen that all is well and that harmony prevails among these brethren But by interviewing former church aides examining hundreds of diaries and drawing from his own past experience as an insider within the Latter day Saint historical department D Michael Quinn presents a fuller view His extensive research documents how the governing apostles seventies and presiding bishops are likely to be at loggerheads as much as united These strong willed independent men like directors of a large corporation or supreme court justices lobby among their colleagues forge alliances out maneuver opponents and broker compromises There is more clandestine political activities investigative and punitive actions by church security forces personal loans from church coffers later written off as bad debts and other privileged power vested activities Quinn considers the changing role and attitude of the leadership toward visionary experiences the momentous events which have shaped quorum protocol and doctrine and day to day bureaucratic intrigue from the time of Brigham Young to the dawn of the twenty first century The hierarchy seems at root well intentioned and even at times aggressive in fulfilling its stated responsibility which is to expedite the Second Coming Where they have become convinced that God has spoken they have set aside personal differences offered unqualified support and spoken with a unified voice This potential for change when coupled with the tempering effect of competing viewpoints is something Quinn finds encouraging about Mormonism But one should not assume that these men are infallible or work in anything approaching uninterrupted unanimity Birmingham free libraries. Catalogue of the reference library John Davis Mullins, 1886 Christian Missionaries, Ethnicity, and State Control in Globalized Yunnan Gideon Elazar, 2023-10-31 Following the Communist Revolution of 1949 missionaries were kicked out of China and proselytizing was outlawed However since the beginning of the reform era China has witnessed a massive return of missionary workers Today there are more Christians in church on a given Sunday in China than anywhere else on the globe This book investigates the interaction of Western missionaries ethnic minorities and Han Chinese converts with the Chinese state in an increasingly globalized China Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork conducted in Yunnan it tries to make sense of the disparity between official state rhetoric and everyday reality Examining morality in the context of the free market system spatial practices linguistic activity and Christian welfare organizations Gideon Elazar reveals the ways in which the previously conflicting Communist Party and Christian civilizing projects have reached a measure of convergence enabling local authorities to treat missionaries with a degree of tolerance Elazar shows how this unofficial arrangement relates to the social realities and challenges of the reform era including ethnic culture and identity Yunnan s many social problems and the integration of ethnic minorities into the state system By exploring the continuously shifting social and religious borders negotiated by converts missionaries and state authorities in Southwest China this book sheds light on the larger issue of contemporary religion in China s global era It will be of interest to researchers of religion Christianity and minority groups in the People s Republic of China The Improvement Era ,1951 The Evangelical Magazine and Missionary Chronicle ,1855
