Artistic Truth Aesthetics Discourse And Imaginative Disclosure:

Artistic Truth Lambert Zuidervart, 2004-10-18 It is unfashionable to talk about artistic truth Yet the issues traditionally addressed under that term have not disappeared Indeed questions concerning the role of the artist in society the relationship between art and knowledge and the validity of cultural interpretation have intensified Lambert Zuidervart challenges intellectual fashions He proposes a new critical hermeneutics of artistic truth that engages with both analytic and continental philosophies and illuminates the contemporary cultural scene People turn to the arts as a way of finding orientation in their lives communities and institutions But philosophers hamstrung by their own theories of truth have been unsuccessful in accounting for this common feature in our lives This book portrays artistic truth as a process of imaginative disclosure in which expectations of authenticity significance and integrity prevail Understood in this way truth becomes central to the aesthetic and social value of the arts

Seeking Stillness or The Sound of Wings Hector Acero Ferrer, Michael DeMoor, Peter Enneson, Matthew Klaassen, 2021-03-11 Seeking Stillness or The Sound of Wings pays tribute to Lambert Zuidervart one of the most productive Reformational philosophers of the present generation by picking up the central concerns of his philosophical work art truth and society and working with the legacy of his published concern to see what more can be understood about our world in light of that legacy Zuidervart is an internationally recognized expert in critical theory especially the work of Theodor Adorno and a leading systematic philosopher in the reformational tradition His research and teaching range across continental philosophy epistemology social philosophy and philosophy of art with an emphasis on Kant Hegel Marx Heidegger Gadamer and Habermas He is currently developing a new conception of truth for an allegedly post truth society At the Institute for Christian Studies 2002 2016 Zuidervart held the Herman Dooyeweerd Chair in Social and Political Philosophy and served as founding Director of the Centre for Philosophy Religion and Social Ethics He was also an Associate Member of the Graduate Faculty and Full Professor status only in the Department of Philosophy at the University of Toronto and a member of the Advanced Degree Faculty at the Toronto School of Theology Zuidervart is currently a Visiting Scholar in the Department of Philosophy at Calvin University in Grand Rapids Michigan Seeking Stillness or The Sound of Wings seeks to promote new scholarship emerging from the rich and dynamic tradition of reformational intellectual inquiry Believing that all scholarly endeavor is rooted in and oriented by deep spiritual commitments reformational scholarship seeks to add its unique Christian voice to discussions about leading questions of life and society From this source it seeks to contribute to the redemptive transformation and renewal of the various aspects of contemporary society developing currents of thought that open human imagination to alternative future possibilities that may helpfully address the damage we find in present reality As part of this work Currents in Reformational thought will bring to light the inter and multi disciplinary dimensions of this intellectual tradition and promote reformational scholarship that intentionally invites dialogue with other traditions or streams of thought

After Thomas Kuhn: The Structure of Aesthetic

Revolutions Oana Șerban,2022-11-07 This book reflects the most recent research devoted to a systematized perspective and a critical re construction of previous theoretical attempts of explaining justifying and continuing Kuhn s ingenious hypothesis in arts Hofstadter Clignet and Habermas revealed to be the most engaged scholars in solving this aesthetic puzzled problem In this context the structural similarities between science and arts are attentively evaluated thus satisfying an older concern attributed to the historical Kuhn Kubler dispute extensively commented along the pages of this book How can we track the matter of rationality and truth in art and aesthetics inspired by scientific perspectives Are artistic styles similar to scientific paradigms Are we entitled to pursue paradigms and masterpieces as rational models in science respectively in arts On what possible grounds can we borrow from science notions such as progress and predictability in the study of the evolution of art and its aesthetic backgrounds Are the historical dynamics of science and art affected by political factors in the same manner This book will be of interest to philosophers but also to historians of science and historians of art alike in the reassessment it provides of recent debates on reshaping the art world using Kuhn s paradigm shift     Music as Thought Mark Evan

Bonds,2015-07-28 Before the nineteenth century instrumental music was considered inferior to vocal music Kant described wordless music as more pleasure than culture and Rousseau dismissed it for its inability to convey concepts But by the early 1800s a dramatic shift was under way Purely instrumental music was now being hailed as a means to knowledge and embraced precisely because of its independence from the limits of language What had once been perceived as entertainment was heard increasingly as a vehicle of thought Listening had become a way of knowing Music as Thought traces the roots of this fundamental shift in attitudes toward listening in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Focusing on responses to the symphony in the age of Beethoven Mark Evan Bonds draws on contemporary accounts and a range of sources philosophical literary political and musical to reveal how this music was experienced by those who heard it first Music as Thought is a fascinating reinterpretation of the causes and effects of a revolution in listening     Architectural Humanities in Progress Bagoes Wiryomartono,2022-02-02 This monograph brings three branches of philosophy together epistemology ethics and aesthetics It assesses the built environment as a case study from a phenomenological perspective Under the notion of phenomenology this study understands the built environment as the hermeneutical phenomenon of being in the life world that is experienced by people within the socio cultural and historical context of habitation Hermeneutically the built environment as a phenomenon is contextually interwoven with other phenomena within the socio cultural historical and environmental network Phenomenologically speaking the task of the study is to excavate listen to unfold divulge and reconstruct the socio culturally environmentally and historically constructed relationship between people and their built environment that build develop and elaborate the system of knowledge ethics and aesthetics By and large its nature and findings are theoretical and interdisciplinary so it will be of interest not only for philosophers but also to scholars studying urban development and anthropology     The Future of Creation Order Govert J. Buijs,Annette K. Mosher,2019-04-16 This book investigates humanities social sciences and politics from the perspective of the concept of creation order It is the second volume in a series that provides a unique and topical overview of attempts to assess the current health of the concept of creation order within Reformational philosophy when it is compared with other perspectives Divided into a section on fundamental reflections and a section on normative practices it discusses issues such as redemption beauty nature love justice morality and ethics It concludes with discussions on a practice based theory to explain religion in international relations and a normative model for the practice of cooperation in development This series reflects the role that the branch of Christian philosophy called Reformational philosophy plays in the discussion on the status of laws of nature Ever since its inception almost a century ago the concepts of order and law principle structure have been at the heart of this philosophy One way to characterise this tradition is as a philosophy of creation order Firmly rejecting both scholastic metaphysics and Deism Reformational philosophers have maintained the notion of law as holding for reality Questions have arisen about the nature of such law is it a religious or philosophical concept does law just mean orderliness How does it relate to laws of nature Have they always existed or do they emerge during the process of evolution     Eyes Wide Open William D. Romanowski, 2007-02-01 Grounded in Christian principles this accessible and engaging book offers an informed and fascinating approach to popular culture William D Romanowski provides affectionate yet astute analysis of familiar well loved movies and television characters from Indiana Jones to Homer Simpson and he speaks with historical depth and expertise on films from Casablanca to Crash and music from Bruce Springsteen to U2 Romanowski's confessional approach affirms a role for popular culture in faithful living Practical analytical approaches to content meaning and artistic style offer the tools to participate responsibly and imaginatively in popular cultural activities An engaging read this new edition introduces students and thoughtful readers to popular culture one of the most influential forces in contemporary society     Introducing Radical Orthodoxy James K. A. Smith, 2004-12-01 Although God is making a comeback in our society popular culture still takes its orders from the Enlightenment a movement that denied faith a prominent role in society Today many are questioning this elevation of reason over faith How should Christians respond to a secular world that continues to push faith to the margins While there is still no consensus concerning what a postmodern society should look like James K A Smith suggests that the answer is a reaffirmation of the belief that Jesus is Lord over all Smith traces the trends and directions of Radical Orthodoxy proposing that it can provide an old but new theology for a new generation of Christians This book will challenge and encourage pastors and thoughtful laypeople interested in learning more about currents in contemporary theology

Immanent Frames John Caruana, Mark Cauchi, 2018-05-31 For some time now thinkers across the humanities and social sciences have increasingly called into question the once dominant view of the relationship between modernity and secularism prompting some to speak of a postsecular turn Until now film studies has largely been silent about this development even though cinema itself has been a major vehicle for such reflection This fact became inescapable in 2011 when Terrence Malick

s The Tree of Life and Lars von Trier's Melancholia were released within days of each other. While these two audacious and controversial films present seemingly opposite perspectives—the former a thoughtful meditation on faith, the latter a portrayal of nontriumphalist atheism—together they raise critical questions about transcendence and immanence in modern life. These films are however only the most conspicuous of a growing body of works that call forth similar and related questions: what this collection aptly calls postsecular cinema. Taking the nearly simultaneous release of The Tree of Life and Melancholia as its starting point and framing device, this pioneering collection sets out to establish the idea of postsecular cinema as a distinct body of films and a viable critical category. Adopting a film philosophy approach, one group of essays examines Malick's and von Trier's films, while another looks at works by Chantal Akerman, Denys Arcand, the Dardenne brothers, and John Michael McDonagh, among others. The volume closes with two important interviews with Luc Dardenne and Jean-Luc Nancy that invite us to reflect more deeply on some of the central concerns of postsecular cinema.

The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice Arnold H. De Graaff, 2025-06-20 Scripture's compelling message of love and justice is powerfully relevant for today. The implications of the Amsterdam way of interpreting Scripture are evident throughout the book. It is both a personal and timely way of speaking to our disintegrating society. The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice provides a meaningful and radical yet simple way of re-connecting with the Bible. As one of the founders of the Amsterdam way of interpretation, Karel Deurloo stated: "The opportunity to learn anew and understand the language of the Bible has been taken away. Often the focus is on the assumed origin and history of a text, a historical literary approach, or a fundamentalist view creating a fragmented, moralistic, and doctrinaire emphasis which has alienated many from churches. Instead, Deurloo and others focused on the prophetic meaning that speaks to all of us as the living word of God today. This alternative is rooted in the Hebrew Scriptures. Its abiding prophetic message of love and justice is reiterated in the Gospels and apostolic letters. Hence the choice of subtitle: Rediscovering the Old Testament. It is a joyful journey of discovery, finding new meaning in the Bible for our lives."

Locating the Past / Discovering the Present David Gay, Stephen R. Reimer, 2010-07-30 Comparative interdisciplinary examination of the production of religious ideas and images over time and place. Words and Intelligence II Khurshid Ahmad, Christopher Brewster, Mark Stevenson, 2007-05-16 Yorick Wilks is a central figure in the fields of Natural Language Processing and Artificial Intelligence. This book celebrates Wilks's career from the perspective of his peers in original chapters, each of which analyses an aspect of his work and links it to current thinking in that area. This volume forms a two-part set together with Words and Intelligence I: Selected Works by Yorick Wilks by the same editors.

The Democratic Theory of Hans-Georg Gadamer Darren Walhof, 2016-11-29 This book examines the distinctive contribution that the writings of Hans-Georg Gadamer make to democratic theory. Walhof argues that Gadamer's hermeneutical philosophy enlarges our perspective by shifting our view away from individual citizens to what exists between citizens, thereby allowing us to envision political realities that are otherwise hard to see. These realities include the disclosure of truth in democratic politics achieving common ground in democratic dialogue even amidst significant disagreement and diversity the public and political nature of the religious traditions that make claims on and shape citizens and the solidarities that connect us to each other and enable democratic action The author argues that bringing these dimensions to awareness enriches our theories of democracy and is particularly crucial in an era of hyper partisanship accelerating inequality and social conflicts involving racial sexual and religious identities The Artistic Sphere Roger D. Henderson, Marleen

Hengelaar-Rookmaaker, 2024-01-02 The Neo Calvinist tradition is well equipped to offer wisdom on the arts to the whole body of Christ Edited by art scholar Roger Henderson and Marleen Hengelaar Rookmaaker daughter of Hans Rookmaaker this volume brings together history philosophy and theology to consider the relationship between the arts and the Neo Calvinist tradition Art in Public Lambert Zuidervaart, 2010-11-15 This book examines fundamental questions about funding for the arts why should governments provide funding for the arts What do the arts contribute to daily life Do artists and their publics have a social responsibility Challenging questionable assumptions about the state the arts and a democratic society Lambert Zuidervaart presents a vigorous case for government funding based on crucial contributions the arts make to civil society He argues that the arts contribute to democratic communication and a social economy fostering the critical and creative dialogue that a democratic society needs Informed by the author's experience leading a non profit arts organisation as well as his expertise in the arts humanities and social sciences this book proposes an entirely new conception of the public role of art with wide ranging implications for education politics and cultural policy Imagining the Kingdom (Cultural Liturgies) James K. A. Smith, 2013-02-15 2013 Word Guild Award Academic How does worship work How exactly does liturgical formation shape us What are the dynamics of such transformation In the second of James K A Smith's three volume theology of culture the author expands and deepens the analysis of cultural liturgies and Christian worship he developed in his well received Desiring the Kingdom He helps us understand and appreciate the bodily basis of habit formation and how liturgical formation both secular and Christian affects our fundamental orientation to the world Worship works by leveraging our bodies to transform our imagination and it does this through stories we understand on a register that is closer to body than mind This has critical implications for how we think about Christian formation Professors and students will welcome this work as will pastors worship leaders and Christian educators The book includes analyses of popular films novels and other cultural phenomena such as The King's Speech Rise of the Planet of the Apes David Foster Wallace's Infinite Jest and Facebook Screening the Art World Temenuga Trifonova, 2025-10-01 Screening the Art World explores the ways in which artists and the art world more generally have been represented in cinema Contributors address a rarely explored subject art in cinema rather than the art of cinema by considering films across genres historical periods and national cinemas in order to reflect on cinema's fluctuating imaginary of art and the art world The book examines the intersection of art history with history in cinema cinema's simultaneous affirmation and denigration of the idea of art as truth the dominant often contradictory ways in which artists have been represented on screen and cinematic representations of the art world's tenuous position between commercial good and cultural capital

Truth in Husserl, Heidegger, and the Frankfurt School Lambert Zuidervaat, 2017-06-09 An innovative ambitious tradition crossing study drawing on the work of Husserl Heidegger Horkheimer Adorno and Habermas to propose a new and transformative concept of truth The idea of truth is a guiding theme for German continental philosophers from Husserl through Habermas In this book Lambert Zuidervaat examines debates surrounding the idea of truth in twentieth century German continental philosophy He argues that the Heideggerian and critical theory traditions have much in common despite the miscommunication opposition and even outright hostility that have prevailed between them including significant roots in the phenomenology of Edmund Husserl Zuidervaat sees the tensions between Heideggerian thought and critical theory as potentially generative sources for a new approach to the idea of truth He argues further that the critical retrieval of insights from German continental philosophy can shed light on current debates in analytic truth theory Zuidervaat structures his account around three issues the distinction between propositional truth and truth that is more than propositional which he calls existential truth the relationship between propositional truth and the discursive justification of propositional truth claims framed in analytic philosophy by debates between epistemic and nonepistemic conceptions of truth and the relationship between propositional truth and the objectivity of knowledge often presented in analytic philosophy as a conflict between realists and antirealists over the relation between truth bearers and truth makers In an innovative and ambitious argument drawing on the work of Husserl Heidegger Horkheimer Adorno and Habermas Zuidervaat proposes a new and transformative conception of truth
