Arts Nagle,1993-02 The Arts/World Themes Geraldine Nagle,1998-01-01 Art Worlds Roberta Wue,2014-12-09

The growth of Shanghai in the late nineteenth century gave rise to an exciting new art world in which a flourishing market in popular art became a highly visible part of the treaty port's commercialized culture. Art Worlds examines the relationship between the city's visual artists and their urban audiences. Through a discussion of images ranging from fashionable painted fans to lithograph illustrated magazines, the book explores how popular art intersected with broader cultural trends. It also investigates the multiple roles played by the modern Chinese artist as image maker, entrepreneur, celebrity, and urban sojourner. Focusing on industrially produced images, mass advertisements, and other hitherto neglected sources, the book offers a new interpretation of late Qing visual culture at a watershed moment in the history of modern Chinese art. Art Worlds will be of interest to scholars of art history and to anyone with an interest in the cultural history of modern China. By focusing on objects, sites, social networks, and technologies, this elegantly conceived book enriches our understanding of art production and consumption in nineteenth century Shanghai. The author makes masterful use of newspapers, guidebooks, diaries, and advertisements, as well as paintings, to present readers with the compelling story of a city and its artists. Tobie Meyer Fong, author of What Remains: Coming to Terms with Civil War in 19th Century China and Building Culture in Early Qing Yangzhou. Rich in findings, forensic in visual analysis, and not least elegantly crafted, Wue's book on painting, printing, and the social worlds of art in late Qing Shanghai is an exemplary contribution. A must-read volume. Shane McCausland, author of Zhao Mengfu: Calligraphy and Painting for Khubilai's China. Art World City Joanna Grabski,2017-07-10. Insightful should be on the bookshelf of anyone interested in contemporary art on the continent of Africa: its politics, its display, its economics. African Arts. Art World City focuses on contemporary art and artists in the city of Dakar, a famously thriving art metropolis in the West African nation of Senegal. Joanna Grabski illuminates how artists earn their livelihoods from the city's resources, possibilities, and connections. She examines how and why they produce and exhibit their work and how they make an art scene and transact with art world mediators such as curators, journalists, critics, art lovers, and collectors from near and far. Grabski shows that Dakar-based artists participate in a platform that has a global reach. They extend Dakar's creative economy and the city's urban vibe into an art world city. In her fine-grained analysis, Joanna Grabski demonstrates the ways that the urban environment and the sites of art production, exhibition, and sale imbricate one another to constitute Dakar as an Art World City. Mary Jo Arnoldi, Curator, Anthropology, National Museum of Natural History, Smithsonian. A valuable addition to the anthropology of cities and of art worlds. It stretches and revises the notion of art world to include multiple scales and illustrates how the city enables simultaneous engagement for artists with local, national, Pan-African, and global discourses and platforms. City Society. A beautiful book. The photographs, most of which are by the author, are stunning. College Art Association Reviews. How to Study Art Worlds Hans van Maanen,2009.
