Artwords A Globary Of Contemporary Art Theory:

Artwords Thomas Patin, Jennifer McLerran, 1997 This glossary is intended to be a guide into the frontier of current theory and criticism of visual art and culture It includes over four hundred terms or phrases that have recently entered the discourse on the visual arts Preface

Art Theory for a Global Pluralistic Age Steven Félix-Jäger, 2019-12-02 This book extends a theory of art that addresses the present era's shift towards global pluralism By focusing on extrinsic rather than intrinsic qualities of art this book helps viewers evaluate art across cultural boundaries Art can be universally classified by an evaluation of its guiding narrative and can be understood and judged through hermeneutical methods Since artists engage culture through various local transnational and emerging global narratives it is difficult to decipher what standards are used for evaluation and which authoritative body evaluates the work This book implements a narrative hermeneutical approach to properly classify an artwork and establish its meaning and value

Regimes of Invisibility in Contemporary Art, Theory and Culture Marina Gržinić, Aneta Stojnić, Miško Šuvaković, 2017-09-04 This book places a focus on the regimes of invisibility and representation in Europe and offers an innovative perspective on the topic of global capitalism in relation to questions of race class gender and migration as well as historicization of biopolitics and decoloniality The aim of this volume is to revisit theories of art new media technology and aesthetics under the weight of political processes of discrimination racism anti-Semitism and new forms of coloniality in order to propose a new dispositive of the ontology and epistemology of the image of life and capitalism as well as labor and modes of life This book is firmly embedded in the present moment when due to rapid and major changes on all levels of political and social reality the need for rearticulation in theoretical artistic and political practices and rethinking of historical narratives becomes almost tangible

A Companion to Contemporary Art in a Global Framework Jane Chin Davidson, Amelia Jones, 2023-10-04 A Companion to Contemporary Art in a Global Framework explores the ways specialists and institutions in the fine arts curation cultural studies and art history have attempted to situate art in a more global framework since the 1980s Offering analyses of the successes and setbacks of these efforts to globalize the art world this innovative volume presents a new and exciting way of considering art in its global contexts Essays by an international panel of leading scholars and practicing artists assert that what we talk about as art is essentially a Western concept thus any attempts at understanding art in a global framework require a revising of established conceptual definitions Organized into three sections this work first reviews the history and theory of the visual arts since 1980 and introduces readers to the emerging area of scholarship that seeks to place contemporary art in a global framework The second section traces the progression of recent developments in the art world focusing on the historical and cultural contexts surrounding efforts to globalize the art world and the visual arts in particular global and transnational frameworks The final section addresses a wide range of key themes in contemporary art such as the fundamental institutions and ontologies of art practice and the interactions among art politics and the public sphere A Companion to Contemporary Art in

Installation Artworks in Museums Tatja Scholte, 2025-10-01 Site specific installations are created for specific locations and are usually intended as temporary artworks The Perpetuation of Site Specific Installation Artworks in Museums Staging Contemporary Art shows that these artworks consist of more than a singular manifestation and that their lifespan is often extended In this book Tatja Scholte offers an in depth account of the artistic production of the last forty years With a wealth of case studies the author illuminates the diversity of site specific art in both form and content as well as in the conservation strategies applied A conceptual framework is provided for scholars and museum professionals to better understand how site specific installations gain new meanings during successive stages of their biographies and may become agents for change in professional routines Contemporary Art Impacts on Scientific, Social, and Cultural Paradigms: Emerging Research and Opportunities Strehovec, Janez, 2020-05-29 Art is a concept that has been used by researchers for centuries to explain and realize numerous theories The legendary artist Leonardo da Vinci for example was a profound artist and a genius inventor and researcher The co existence of science and art therefore is necessary for global appeal and society s paradigms literacy and scientific movements Contemporary Art Impacts on Scientific Social and Cultural Paradigms Emerging Research and Opportunities provides emerging research exploring the theoretical and practical aspects of present post aesthetic art and its applications within economics politics social media and everyday life Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as media studies contemporary storytelling and literacy nationalism this book is ideally designed for researchers media studies experts media professionals academicians and students Contemporary Art in the Conflicts of Globalization Jonathan Harris, 2025-11-26 Contemporary Art in the Conflicts of Globalization presents an authoritative introductory guide to the emergence development and meanings of contemporary art around the world from the era of twentieth century western colonialism to the crises and conflicts of globalization over the last three decades Examining contemporary art s connections to and breaks from modern art in the last century the study offers an innovative account of its artists formation during the era of decolonization after 1945 and the Cold War Through a series of complementary analytic perspectives the book considers the cultural politics of the global art world its patterns of inclusion and exclusion and charts contemporary art s relations to feminist anti racist and climate change activism among others as these have both mutated and interconnected since the 1990s More than 50 illustrations are included and are the basis for the book s empirical and theoretically informed study The book is designed for both students and general readers and will be of great value for all who see contemporary art and global cultures as a contested ground of creativity and social significance within which transformative progressive change may be achieved for the whole world and all its peoples The Sociology of Arts and Markets Andrea Glauser, Patricia Holder, Thomas Mazzurana, Olivier Moeschler, Valérie Rolle, Franz Schultheis, 2020-06-15 This edited collection offers an in depth analysis of the complex and changing relationship between the arts and their markets Highly relevant to almost any sociological exploration of the arts this interaction has long been approached and studied However rapid and far reaching economic changes have recently occurred Through a number of new empirical case studies across multiple artistic historic and geographical settings this volume illuminates the developments of various art markets and their sociological analyses The contributions include chapters on artistic recognition and exclusion integration and self representation in the art market sociocultural changes the role of the gallery owner and collectives rankings and constraints across the cultural industries Drawing on research from Japan Switzerland France Italy China the US UK and more this rich and global perspective challenges current debates surrounding art and markets and will be an important reference point for scholars and students across the sociology of arts cultural sociology and culture economy

Intersections of Contemporary Art, Anthropology and Art History in South Asia Sasanka Perera, Dev Nath Pathak, 2019-02-23 Taking South Asia as its focus this wide ranging collection probes the general reluctance of the cultural anthropology to engage with contemporary visual art and artists including painting sculpture performance art and installation Through case studies engaged equally in anthropology and visual studies contributors examine art and artistic production in India Sri Lanka Pakistan Bangladesh and Nepal to bring the social and political complexities of artistic practice to the fore Demonstrating the potential of the visual as a means to understand a society its values and its politics this volume ranges across discourses of anthropology sociology biography memory art history and contemporary practices of visual art Ultimately Intersections of Contemporary Art Anthropology and Art History in South Asia simultaneously expands and challenges the disciplinary foci of two fields it demonstrates to art criticism and art history the necessity of anthropological and sociological methodologies and theories while at the same time challenging the iconophobia of social sciences

European Theories in Former Yugoslavia Zarko Cvejić, Andrija Filipović, Miško Šuvaković, 2015-09-18 European Theories in Former Yugoslavia shows that there is no such thing as a direct transfer or influence of theories from the centre to the margins but only complex practices of borrowing translating and reinterpreting conditioned by specific contexts in this case those of former Yugoslavia and its contemporary cultural sphere Here reception is no longer simply about receiving fresh knowledge from the centre but also about communicating feedback into broader contexts shaped by multicultural and global connections and exchange The book poses broader questions about contemporary theory today what are theories today How do specialised theories of culture gender media and art history relate to current philosophical turns in new materialism neo Marxism and biopolitics These questions posed from the perspective of a European periphery in this case former Yugoslavia gesture toward the dialectically tense relationship between the centre and the margins that is between original theories and their transformed perspectives The range of authors brought together here offers a cross section of post Yugoslav theory comprising both young scholars in the early stages of their academic careers and more senior established thinkers educated both in the region and abroad and coming from a variety of academic backgrounds including art theory gender theory cultural studies and theory sociology anthropology theatre studies musicology political theory and literary theory among others The schools of thought they address elaborate on critique and apply in their texts are similarly varied from French post structuralist theory and philosophy via German critical and postmodern theory to a number of other topics and authors in contemporary European theory and philosophy The book will be of interest to students and scholars of art and media theory philosophy sociology and cultural studies and their reception interpretation application and elaboration in the region of former Yugoslavia New Histories of Art in the Global Postwar Era Flavia Frigeri, Kristian Handberg, 2021-03-24 This book maps key moments in the history of postwar art from a global perspective The reader is introduced to a new globally oriented approach to art artists museums and movements of the postwar era 1945 70 Specifically this book bridges the gap between historical artistic centers such as Paris and New York and peripheral loci Through case studies previously unknown networks circulations divides and controversies are brought to light From the development of Ethiopian modernism to the showcase of Brazilian modernity this book provides readers with a new set of coordinates and a reassessment of well trodden art historical narratives around modernism This book will be of interest to scholars in art historiography art history exhibition and curatorial studies modern art and globalization Can Art History be Made Global? Monica Juneja, 2023-03-20 The book responds to the challenge of the global turn in the humanities from the perspective of art history A global art history it argues need not follow the logic of economic globalization nor seek to bring the entire world into its fold Instead it draws on a theory of transculturation to explore key moments of an art history that can no longer be approached through a facile globalism How can art historical analysis theorize relationships of connectivity that have characterized cultures and regions across distances How can it meaningfully handle issues of commensurability or its absence among cultures By shifting the focus of enquiry to South Asia the five meditations that make up this book seek to translate intellectual insights of experiences beyond Euro America into globally intelligible analyses Global Art in Local Art Worlds Oscar Salemink, Amélia Siegel Corrêa, Jens Sejrup, Vibe Nielsen, 2023-03-30 This book explores the attribution and local negotiation of cultural valuations of artistic and art institutional practices around the world and considers the diverse ways in which these value attributions intersect with claims of universality and cosmopolitanism Taking Michael Herzfeld's notion of the global hierarchy of value as point of departure the volume brings together six empirical studies of the collection circulation classification and exhibition of objects in present day Brazil China India Japan South Africa and Indigenous Australia in light of Europe's loss of global hegemony Including reflections by a number of senior scholars the chapters demonstrate that the question of valuation lies at the heart of artistic and art institutional practices writ large including museum practices museum architecture galleries auction houses art fairs and biennales Preserving and Exhibiting Media Art Julia Noordegraaf, Vinzenz Hediger, Cosetta Saba, Barbara Maitre, 2025-10-01 This important and first of its kind collection addresses the emerging challenges in the field of media art preservation and exhibition providing an outline for the training of professionals in this field Since the emergence of time based media such as film video and digital technology artists have used them to experiment with their potential The resulting artworks with their basis in rapidly developing technologies that cross over into other domains such as broadcasting and social media have challenged the traditional infrastructures for the collection preservation and exhibition of art Addressing these challenges the authors provide a historical and theoretical survey of the field and introduce students to the challenges and difficulties of preserving and exhibiting media art through a series of first hand case studies Situated at the threshold between archival practices and film and media theory it also makes a strong contribution to the growing literature on archive theory and archival practices A companion to media art provides the first full fledged introduction to the emerging new field of the preservation and presentation of media art from a truly international perspective Bringing together contributions from authors from all over Europe and the United States and combining the rich insights of scholars curators and artists the book addresses the history theory and technical aspects of creating and curating media art A companion to media art is the first textbook for students in advanced degree programs that lead to careers in the field of preserving and curating media art in media archives and museum collections For the general reader the book provides an introduction to this fascinating new field The combination of incisive scholarly articles and cases studies provides for a comprehensive view of the field that will interest scholars artists archivists and curators alike
