Trautmann, 2005 This book the seventh in the Debates series brings together a selection of significant essays on the extremely topical Aryan debate The central question behind this selection is did the Sanskrit speaking Aryans enter India from the Northwest in 1500 BC or were they indigenous to India and identical with the people who inhabited the Indus Valley between 2800 1500

Dalit Theology and Dalit Liberation Peniel Rajkumar, 2016-05-13 In fulfilling the long awaited need for a constructive and critical rethinking of Dalit theology this book offers and explores the synoptic healing stories as a relevant biblical paradigm for Dalit theology in order to help redress the lacuna between Dalit theology and the social practice of the Indian Church Peniel Rajkumar's starting point is that the growing influence of Dalit theology in academic circles is incompatible with the praxis of the Indian Church which continues to be passive in its attitude towards the oppression of the Dalits both within and outside the Church The theological reasons for this lacuna between Dalit theology and the Church's praxis Rajkumar suggests lie in the content of Dalit theology especially the biblical paradigms explored which do not offer adequate scope for engagement in praxis

Aryans and British India Thomas R. Caste and the City Deeba Zafir,2024-06-21 This book looks at Dalits in the city and examines the nature of Dalit aspirations as well as the making of an urban sensibility through an analysis of hitherto unexamined short stories of some of the first and second generation as well as contemporary Dalit writers in Hindi Tracing the origins of the emergence of Dalit critical consciousness to the arrival of the Dalits into the print medium after their migration to the city this book examines their transactions with modernity and the emancipatory promises it held out to them It highlights the literary tropes that mark their fiction specifically those short stories which take up urban themes and shows how even in seemingly
