Hewitt, 2016-04-08 Ireland's Aviator Heroes of World War II celebrates Irish aviators who served in the Royal Air Force during the dark days of the Second World War Individual stories have been painstakingly and extensively researched through interviews with the surviving subjects and their families and using the original log books and service records of the men Many of the stories contain details of the individuals participation in important wartime campaigns although others are limited to war service records due to a lack of surviving information Above all this book celebrates the great courage and sacrifice demonstrated by these Irishmen during their contribution to the Allied war effort against Nazi Germany her western allies and Japan Many of the men included paid the ultimate price for their participation The book is also well illustrated with many photographs some taken by the subjects themselves Confidential Documents United States. Army Air Forces, 1937 Flying American Combat Aircraft of World War II Robin Higham, Abigail T. Siddall, Carol Williams, 2021-08-01 Riveting first person accounts that put the reader in the cockpit Dozens of photographs of the planes and the pilots that flew and fought in the skies from Tokyo to Berlin Find out what it was like to fly some of the all time classic aircraft of World War II including the P 51 Mustang B 17 Flying Fortress P 47 Thunderbolt P 38 Lightning P 40 Kittyhawk and many more Jane's Fighting Aircraft of World War II Leonard Bridgman, 1989 This edition of Jane's fighting aircraft presents photographs line drawings and data tables for all of the many aircraft types that took part in World War II including those of Germany Italy and Japan Inside front cover Luftwaffe Intruder Operations Over the United Kingdom Chris Goss, 2025-07-30 On 17 July 1940 Oberst Josef Kammhuber took command of the Luftwaffe's 1 Nachtjagddivision after his release from French captivity He was tasked with combating RAF bombers which were increasingly threatening Germany during the Battle of Britain

Kammhuber's strategy the Fernnachtjagd long range night fighter missions focused on targeting bombers while they were vulnerable during takeoff and return to bases Kammhuber believed that converted German bombers like the Dornier Do 17Z and Junkers Ju 88 flown by experienced crews would be ideal for these missions The first claims from Fernnachtjagd occurred on 23 July 1940 when Luftwaffe pilots mistakenly shot down a Bristol Blenheim thinking it was a Vickers Wellington These night missions continued over the next few years with varying success By 1942 the campaign shifted to a stopgap phase and the introduction of the Messerschmitt Me 210 and Me 410 marked further changes in the tactics and aircraft used While Fernnachtjagd operations had some impact in 1941 by 1944 their effectiveness had diminished Notably during the Allies Berlin raid on 19 February 1944 the Luftwaffe claimed more RAF bombers than the entire Me 410 campaign achieved in 14 months

Missing: Believed Killed Roy Conyers Nesbit, 2010-08-19 The uncertain fates of Amelia Earhart Amy Johnson and Glenn Miller have fascinated readers and aviation historians ever since they disappeared Even today more than half a century after their final flights what happened to them is still the subject of speculation conspiracy theory and controversy This has prompted Roy Conyers Nesbit to reinvestigate their stories and to write this perceptive level headed and gripping study Using testimony from new witnesses and hitherto undisclosed public records he seeks to explain why they were reported missing believed killed He describes why American aviatrix Amelia Earhart vanished in the Pacific on her round the world flight in 1937 what caused the death of Britain's aviation heroine Amy Johnson over the Thames estuary in 1941 and what really killed band leader Glenn Miller on his doomed flight to Paris in 1944 And he applies the same expert forensic eye to other tragic aerial mysteries of the period including the flying boat crash that claimed the life of the Duke of Kent in Scotland in 1942 This classic study issued here for the first time in paperback will be fascinating reading for students of aviation history and for anyone who is intrigued by tales of flights into the unknown

Women at Work in World Wars I and II Paul Chrystal, 2024-04-04 This book is about women in World Wars I II women working in factories and on farms or toiling perilously in field stations just behind the front lines in inhospitable hospitals and convalescent homes It is therefore about the prodigious contribution women made to the war efforts from 1914 1918 and 1939 1945 standing in for the men who had left their places of work for the various theatres of war from Greece and Italy to Belgium from Mesopotamia to France Their tasks were many and various keeping the troops supplied with shells bullets and explosives keeping the nation from starving to death keeping hundreds of thousands of wounded troops alive so that they might fight another day The book is in short the uplifting but sometimes tragic story of the many women who stepped up to work in the factories hospitals field stations in transport and in civil defense on the farms and shipyards or signed up to the various military and civil services during the two world wars of the 20th century wars to end all wars The book is different because it deals with women's labour in both world wars and in all occupations it covers the discrimination and prejudice they faced from men at every level military and civilian even when they had demonstrated beyond doubt that they were quick learners industrious and proficient and usually as good as any man The book raises the embarrassing question why it has taken so long for the prodigious contribution women made in both wars to be recognized and why some women workers still remain air brushed from our military history after more than a century As it turned out little was beyond their capabilities and it is reasonable to suppose that without their huge efforts and accomplishments both wars might have turned out very differently for us

Superintendent of Documents, Aircraft of The Royal Australian Air Force Air Force History Branch, 2021-06-01 Aircraft of The Royal Australian Air Force tells the story of the RAAF's first one hundred years by describing the acquisition operation and service record of the multitude of aircraft types flown by the RAAF The 176 aircraft types include the flimsy wood and canvas aircraft typical of World War I through the technological advances during and after World War II to modern fifth generation complex aircraft like the F 35 Lightning II Even before its formation Sir Richard Williams the Father of the RAAF had decided to employ an alpha numeric numbering system to identify and account for each aircraft in service This system started with A1 A2 A3 etc as each type of aircraft came into service Each individual aircraft within each series was identified as A1 1 A1 2 and so on and the aircraft serial became known colloquially as the A number With some exceptions over the century since the A number system started aircraft entered RAAF service in broadly the sequence of the A numbers and so this book is intended to assist in charting the 100 year history of the RAAF by listing aircraft operated in A number sequence rather than by listing them by role such as Fighter Bomber Maritime Trainer Transport etc or alphabetically by name or by manufacturer The inclusion of a comprehensive Index and the Quick Reference Guide to aircraft by role is intended to facilitate the location of the entry for any specific type of aircraft for those who may not already know its A number Aircraft of The Royal Australian Air Force is a must have for all those who have served in the RAAF those with a passion for military aviation and aircraft in general and the broader members of the public wishing to gain an appreciation of the Royal Australian Air Force in its centenary year place over Southampton All of these actions and many others are critically analyzed Through diligent research combined with crucial official primary sources and personal papers Dilip unravels many myths often challenging the accepted narrative This is not simply another dull record of combat losses and claims far from it Drawing upon unique first hand accounts from a wide range of combatants and eyewitnesses along with Daily Home Intelligence Reports and numerous other primary sources this book forms part of what is likely to be the first and last such comprehensively woven account of this epic air battle

Two-Man Air Force Philip Kaplan, 2006-02-19 American volunteers Don Gentile pronounced Jen tilly and John Godfrey flew together as leader and wingman respectively with the USAAF 4th Fighter Group based at Debden near Cambridge in England At the end of their missions with the 4th the two of them had accounted for over 58 enemy aircraft destroyed Major Gentile had scored 22 air and 6 ground kills before he was returned to the USA to help raise money for the war effort Major Godfrey was credited with 18 air and 12 ground kills before he was shot down and taken prisoner of war This is the story of their amazing adventures and wartime partnership from their basic training in Canada and then onto England where they first flew the Supermarine Spitfire It continues with their transfer to the USAAF 4th Fighter Group when the US entered the war and when the two were retrained to fly the P 47 Thunderbolt and eventually the superb P 51 Mustang These two ace pilots loved life as much as flying and as well as being hell bent on destroying the enemy in the skies of Europe they also lived life to the full in their off duty time in England

Spitfire Pilot Air Commodore Geoffrey Stephenson John Shields, 2024-11-30 Under cloudless blue skies the Oakwood Cemetery Annex in Montgomery Alabama hosts the largest Commonwealth War Graves Commission cemetery in the United States Most of the graves contain young RAF trainee pilots killed during their flying training at nearby Maxwell and Gunter airfields during the Second World War However there is another grave located at the edge of the plot not from the early 1940s but from 1954 The grave marks the final resting place of a 44 year old senior RAF officer Air Commodore Geoffrey Stephenson CBE It begs the questions who was he and why is he buried there This book sets out to answer both these questions As a result this is the remarkable story of not only Stephenson s life but the people planes and places that would leave an indelible mark on a seasoned fighter pilot After growing up in Lincolnshire and Ireland 18 year old Stephenson joined the RAF in 1928 alongside Douglas Bader who would become a life long friend After leaving Cranwell the pair both joined 23 Squadron In the 1930s Stephenson rose through the ranks to command 19 Squadron a Duxford based Spitfire unit that would see his baptism of fire over Dunkirk in late May 1940 Following the downing of a Junkers Ju 87 Stuka Stephenson was himself shot down and crash landed on the beach at Sangatte After a brief period on the run in France and Belgium Stephenson was taken into captivity spending the next five years as a prisoner of war ending up at the iconic Colditz Castle where ironically he was reunited with his old friend Bader Upon his release in April 1945 Stephenson quickly resumed his RAF career commanding instructing and flying the latest jet fighters both at home and overseas He was aide de camp to two monarchs including escorting a young Queen Elizabeth II

during her 1953 Coronation Review However his already eventful career would take a tragic turn In 1954 Stephenson flew to the United States to review their latest acquisitions which included a flight in the supersonic F 100 Super Sabre It would be his last flight Nevertheless Stephenson's legacy lives on at his former base at Duxford in the guise of the Imperial War Museum's immaculately restored Spitfire Mk I N3200 This was the very aircraft in which he force landed on 26 May 1940 Recovered from the French beach N3200 was painstakingly rebuilt and returned to flying condition Today N3200 is often referred to as a National Treasure This is the biography of a remarkable pilot husband and father revealing the planes he flew the places he visited and the incredible people he met along the way
